A CHINESE EXODUS HE WAS WORTH $30

In Ten Years All Celestials Will Leave America, Says Investigator.

EMPLOYMENT AT HOME.

Winnipeg, Manitoba, Dec. 19.—In ten years there will not be a Chinaman left in the United States or Canada, was the statement made last night by Lau Sz Kiv, imperial investigator, appointed by the Chinese government to inquire into mining, agricultural and commercial matters on this continent, with a view to the organization of an era of development in China.

With him are Law A. Yan, Yip Yen and On Wan Yow, three merchants of China, who are seeking out Chinamen well versed in various lines of trade and commerce, that they may be sent back to China to work for a syndicate which has been formed with a capital of $3,000,000 to build railroads, steamships, develop mines, farms and engage in banking and general business.

The company has already been started and will soon begin operations in the province of Kweng Si, and Yip Yen, president of the concern, said hundreds of other companies will be put in operation as soon as the company now being organized has started work, and China will induce her countrymen on this continent to return to China, and the inducements are being offered by the government for the development of the country are so great that every Chinaman will respond to the call.

Marked For Death.

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave-yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me, and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Bac, Ky. "The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored." This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at A. G. Luken & Co. drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Wife Did Not Consider Husband Worth More and Gave Release.

CHARGED WITH BIGAMY.

Northampton, Mass., Dec. 19.—Ira A. Lovejoy, of Belchertown, charged with having two wives, was held today for the grand jury in the sum of $1,000. He married Grace Lumphy in Canton, Mass., in March, 1906, but they separated three years later. In May, this year, according to the complaint, Lovejoy married Harriet M. Lane, of Belchertown.

The first Mrs. Lovejoy, who lives in Worcester, testified that not long ago she gave Lovejoy a release of his marriage obligations, putting it in writing. The consideration was that he allow her $50 of his pension money. A day or two before his arrest on the charge of bigamy she wrote him, having learned of his second marriage. It was aspiey letter. She said:

"You may take me for a — fool, but you will find out that I am not the big fool you take me for. It always took you forever to do nothing, but if you don't get a gait on you mighty soon you will think an earthquake has got after you."

"Lovejoy, find your thinking cap, put wife. In it she said: money for the support of my two little children, you are a h—l of a fellow. How is your wife? Do you know how you stand?"

Another letter was read in court from her to Lovejoy's Belchertown wife. If it she said:

"I hear you are afraid of Mr. Lovejoy, but you need not be for he is a good man, but I have quit with him, having given him a release from all marriage vows."

Asking Too Much.

I believe there is a story told of Mark Twain that in youthful days, being sent out by his mother to weed a certain flower bed and finding more weeds than flowers, he came back and asked if he might not "flower the weed bed."

Our little Alfred probably has as great an aversion to work as had the youthful Clemens. Admonished to pull some rather large weeds in the back yard, after a faint hearted lift on one of them he shouted:

"Mamma, how do you think I'm going to pull these weeds when the whole world is hitched on to them?"
