THE PENNANT

Fall Season of City Bowling League Has Been Closed.

TO PLAY MARION CLUB

HARRY BUNTIN PICKING TEAM
TO MEET CRACK INDIANAPOLIS
OUTFIT—OTHER BOWLING GOS-SIP.

The fall season of the City Bowling league has come to a close with the championship being won by the Pirates. The spring season will not open until after the holidays and the winning team in this race, providing it is not the Pirates will meet the fall champions to determine the championship of the city. The spring schedule will be out in a few days.

Teams composed of employees of the superintendent's office and the engineer's office of the Pennsylvania railroad will play a series of three games this evening at the city bowling alleys.

Harry Buntin will select a picked team of the best bowlers in the city to play two contests with the Marion club of Indianapolis in the near future. One game will be played in this city and a return game on the Marion club's alleys at Indianapolis. It is very probable that several other contests with out of town teams will be played during the winter.

Dr. Frank Harold who is one of the twenty best bowlers in the city, known as the class A bowlers, won first prize and in class B, which included any other bowlers in the city not in the first above mentioned class, Ed Lichtenfels won first money. The scores winning the prizes were Harold 237 and Lichtenfels 228.

GOOD POLO HERE

Richmond Will Play With Teams Throughout the State.

NO LEAGUE IS ORGANIZED.

Richmond, the home of polo in the West, may get to see the game at the Coliseum this winter, as a plan is now being arranged whereby many of the Central Indiana polo teams will be brought to this city. A meeting was held at Anderson, Ind., Sunday, and several men interested in the game were in attendance.

According to plans outlined, no league will be formed, but teams representing New Castle, Anderson, Connersville, Elwood, Tipton, Alexandria, Marion, Richmond and probably Hamilton, O., will be scheduled to play in these various cities during the winter, one game being played each week. C. A. Gaar who is directing the Richmond coliseum this winter, did not attend the meeting at Anderson, but in a letter stated that the Richmond management would gladly become a party to any arrangement whereby the lovers of the sport could be given the opportunity to see the sport during the coming season.

NOT NEGRO'S FIGHT

Colored Organ, Interview, Announces Stand on the Option Question.

WHITE MAN OWNS SALOON

The negro of Wayne county and of Richmond, has ceased to be the tool of the white political boss and henchman and has been admonished by the editor of the interview, the only local colored organ, to keep their hands off the county local option fight now being waged. It is not the fight of the negro, says Mr. Dennis, in commenting upon the situation, as it is the white man's saloon, and the white man's dive that is to be driven out, and not those owned and operated by the colored man.

As the negro of Richmond and Wayne county has ceased to be swayed by the eloquent arguments of the ward healer and the political corruptionist, he has begun to think for himself and the colored vote will not be controlled by any set of these men, hence neither political party or neither the "wets" nor the "drys" can count on the solid support of the colored race in the fight just starting.

The advice of Mr. Dennis to the members of his race is being commended on all sides, and although as much as both sides would like to have the united support of the negroes in the fight, neither will get it. It is stated that Mr. Dennis is right in asking the colored people to let the white people decide whether or not the saloon shall go.

H. S. Grant, of Albany, N. Y., has joined his wife who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Young. They will be here until after the holidays.

Jeffersonian Simplicity of Marshall to Receive Jolt

Meredith Nicholson and Others Arranging to Make Inauguration Ball and Reception Swell Events.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 22.—Thomas R. Marshall's Jeffersonian simplicity is about to get a jolt. On the night of the day of his inauguration, a swell reception and ball is to be given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall at the Propylaeum, the swellest social center of this city. It will not be as pretentious an affair as the inaugural ball has been on former similar occasions when a governor was inaugurated, but it will be fine enough to suit anyone. Arrangements are well under way and there is promise that, although not as large, it will be one of the nicest affairs of the kind ever pulled off in this city.

Meredith Nicholson, the Indiana novelist, who, by the way, is a red hot democrat, is one of the men who are arranging the details. Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, widow of the late president, Harrison, will be in the receiving line along with a large number of other social leaders.

January 11 is the day set for the ball. Several hundred invitations will be sent out, many of them to persons out in the state. The Propylaeum will be decorated with flags and flowers. An orchestra of ten or more pieces will furnish the music and dancing will begin at 10 o'clock. A buffet luncheon will be served.

It is said, however, that the inauguration of Mr. Marshall as governor, will be a simple ceremony. It is known to be the wish of Mr. Marshall that there be no display of frill and feathers on this occasion, and it will probably be a simple affair.

CARRIERS MAY BE PROMOTED

Mote and Niewoehner Recommended by Postmaster.

Edgar S. Mote and William H. Nel-woehner, city mail carriers number 6 and 14, will be recommended for a promotion by Postmaster J. A. Stokenhier, to take effect January 1, for efficiency of service. Providing First Assistant Postmaster General C. P. Grandfield acts favorably on the postmaster's recommendation, Mr. Mote and Mr. Niewoehner will receive $100 more a year. These two at present are each receiving $800 a year.

VACATION IS HERE

Earlham Students Leaving College for Their Homes.

LAST EXAM HELD TODAY

Many Earlham students left the college yesterday for their homes to spend the holidays. All examinations have not been completed but the last will be finished by noon today and it is then expected the college will be practically deserted until the Winter term begins in January.

President Kelly is much pleased with the work done during the term just closing, he stating that not since he can remember has there been such interest taken by the student body and such a response to better things in the college life. The enrollment at the college was the largest during the term just closing, than any in the history of the institution. It is expected that even a greater number of students will be enrolled during the next term, as already many young men and women have expressed their intention of entering if they can secure accommodations. Several young men have asked admittance to Bundy hall, but cannot be accommodated because of the lack of room. Notwithstanding this they are expected to secure desired accommodations in the city.
