Mrs. Jeannette Gaar Leeds was the charming hostess for a bridge party given yesterday afternoon at her home on North Eighth street. The function was in honor of Mrs. John Kendrick Taylor, of Boston, Massachusetts. The game was played at four tables, following which luncheon was served. The guest prize was given to Mrs. Taylor. Mrs. S. E. Swayne captured the first prize while Mrs. W. W. Gaar of Chicago, received the second favor offered. The guests were Mrs. Robert Stimson, Mrs. J. Y. Poundstone, Miss Mary Shiveley, Mrs. Fred Carr, Mrs. Hollingsworth, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Ray Shiveley, Miss Nellie Howard, Mrs. Edmund Williams, Mrs. A. C. Lindemuth of Chicago, Miss Susan Brownell of Cincinnati, Mrs. C. W. Elmer, Mrs. S. E. Swayne, Mrs. White, Mrs. Rudolph Leeds, Mrs. Charles Shiveley and Mrs. J. M. Gaar.

Miss Lena Weisbrod entertained several guests informally last evening at her home, 226 South Fifteenth street. The evening was spent socially and with games. Luncheon was served.

An informal musical and thimble party was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Turner Hadley, at her home on South Thirteenth street. The house was decorated appropriate to the Christmas season, holly, cedar and mistletoe being used. In the dining room about forty red tapers, with dainty shades, lighted this apartment. The music numbers were given by Miss Ethel Patton, Miss Alice Knollenberg, Miss Halcy Harold and Mrs. F. W. Krueger. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Joseph Mills, Miss Bertha Kelsey, Miss Mary Jay and Mrs. Francis Edmunds assisted in the dining room. About forty guests were served. Mrs. Hadley is entertaining this afternoon with another musical.

Miss Maude Zimmerman and Miss Marguerite Zimmerman left this morning for Gary, Indiana, where they will attend a New Year's party and dance; from there they will go to Chicago where they attend the Conservatory of Music.

Mr. and Mrs. Meck Zimmerman have also gone to Chicago after having spent Christmas here.

Miss Fannie Jones entertained in a delightful manner yesterday afternoon at her home on East Main street for Miss Forbes and Miss Street who are house guests of Miss Rose Gennett. Whist was played at two tables, Miss Agnes Twigg winning the prize. After the game, luncheon was served. Those present including the hostess and honor guests were: Miss Martha McClellan, Miss Bertha Garver, Miss Mildred Gaar, Miss Rose Gennett and Miss Opal Husson.

Miss Jessie Barnhart of Lynn, and Miss Ruth Murry of Union City left this morning for their homes after having spent a few days the guests of Miss Florence Schroeder and Mrs. Paul Noss of South Thirteenth street.

Miss Mary and Miss Martha McClellan are entertaining Miss May Chenoweth of Lynn who is home from Cincinnati where she attends the Conservatory. This evening a theatre party will be given in their honor. In the company will be: Miss Lova Mansfield, Miss Ruth Harris, Misses Mary and Martha McClellan, Miss Chenoweth, Mr. Harry Sloan, Mr. Donahoe, Mr. Arthur Halsey and Mr. William Kloecker.

The evening's social calendar will consist of a number of watch parties. The Trifolium literary society will give a party and entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. George Reid of South Fourth street will also give a "watch party."

CLUB NOTES

The "charity ball" given last evening in the coliseum by the Flower Mission was a financial as well as social success. Over seventy-five couples were on the dance floor, while a large number of spectators viewed the brilliant scene from the gallery and boxes. The decorations were very simple, a pyramid of palms having been erected in the center of the dance hall. Heidelberg's orchestra which furnished the dance music was stationed to the north of the building.

A number of beautiful and elaborate gowns were worn by the women in attendance. Late in the evening during an intermission a buffet luncheon was served. The patroness list included a number of the well known society folks of the city. A partial list of the dancers is: Miss Ina Clawson, Miss Ruth Thistlethwaite, Miss Fannie Jones, Miss Mildred Gaar, Miss Rose Gennett, Misses Caroline and Gwendolyn Foulke, Miss Mabel Culbertson, Miss Edna Bayer, Miss Agnes Twigg, Miss Juliet Swayne, Miss Marie Campbell, Miss Josephine Cates, Miss Mary Shiveley, Miss Georgia Cole, Miss Ruth Thistlethwaite, Miss Lucy Smyser, Miss Myral Weegman and Opal Husson; Messrs. S. Saxton of Chicago.

Friday evening, January 1, the Sunday school of the United Presbyterian church will give an oriental Christmas cantata entitled Santa Claus in Japan. The little playlet is in two parts. A short sketch of the affair with the cast of characters is:

The Story.

Bobbie and Priscilla, who are attending school in Japan, plan an American Christmas for their Japanese schoolmates. They write to Santa Claus asking him to visit their adopted country this year. He, of course, gladly consents and with aid of the fairies, gives the Japanese children their first real Christmas. They in their appreciation call upon the fans, screens, lanterns, chrysanthemums, and cherry blossoms who unite in giving Santa a royal welcome and exact his promise never to forget them again.
