

WRESTLING GAME TO START AGAIN

Charlson Returns From Chicago and Says He Has Arranged for Matches.

FIRST BOUT JANUARY 18TH

ON THAT DATE BOB MANOGOFF AND "STRANGLER" LEWIS WILL HAVE CONTEST—PARDELLO MAY BE SECURED.

Manager Charlson, the wrestling promoter, returned yesterday to the city from Chicago and Iowa where he has been promoting matches for three weeks. He announced that on January 18 he would reopen engagements here with a match between "Strangler" Lewis of St. Paul, and "Bob" Manogoff, the Terrible Turk of local fame. The matches will be continued for several weeks in this city. The better class of wrestlers have been engaged.

The match the 18th of this month should prove one of the best ever pulled off in the city. The Turk and Lewis are of about equal weight and ability, and may be counted on to pull off an interesting and square match. The coliseum has been engaged for the match.

Preliminary Bouts. Before each match, Mr. Charlson intends to have fast preliminary bouts. For the first one he has signed "Nick" Peters, said to be the fastest lightweight in the country. Mr. Charlson has seen him work and declares him to be one of the best.

Pardello the Italian was to have wrested the Turk here on the 11th but telegraphed Mr. Charlson that he would have to cancel the engagement. Pardello is a rough wrestler and in Chicago the other evening became very angry because Olson threw him twice in succession.

In speaking of the coming match between Olson and Manogoff, the most Terrible Turk of the country today, at Chicago, Charlson stated that the local favorite would wrestle under great odds as the Turk weighs 200 pounds. However, Olson will give him a good match and has a chance of winning.

Many Billiard Tournaments Scheduled to Take Place This Year.

SUTTON TO PLAY SLOSSON.

They Will Meet in New York For 18.1 Balk Line Title Jan. 26—World's Championship Tournament to Start March 22—Heppa Posts Forfeit.

Billiard events arranged and projected promise activity and interest during the first three months of 1909. George Sutton and George Slosson are to play for the 18.1 balk line championship in New York Jan. 26. Announcement has been made that a tournament to revive the 18.2 championship will be held in New York March 22, and the National Association of Amateur Billiard Players will meet the latter part of February or the early part of March either in New York or Chicago.

The Sutton-Slosson match, besides being for the championship, will involve a side bet of $1,000.

In the 18.2 tournament to begin at Madison Square Garden concert hall March 22 the contestants will be limited to six, each of whom must pay an entrance fee of $100. Prize money amounting to $3,000 is offered, and to this sum will be added the entrance money and net gate receipts, all of which will be divided among the players who finish first, second, third and fourth, the proportions being 50, 25, 15 and 10 per cent.

Tournament games will be of 400 points, and ties must be played off. To the winner of first prize will be awarded a trophy emblematic of the championship of the world, which he will be required to defend according to the rules heretofore governing such title. Before the tournament opens the players about to engage in it will be asked to determine whether or not championship matches shall be of one, two or more nights' duration.

Assured entrants are George Sutton, George F. Slosson and Calvin Demarest. Among other probable competitors are Ora Morningstar, Harry Cline and A. G. Cutler.
