REPORT IS MADE ON FRIENDLESS HOME

At the Annual Meeting, the Secretary Gives Out
Her Records.

INSTITUTION IS THRIVING

REMARKABLE FACT SHOWN THAT
SINCE 1904 NO DEATH HAS OC-CURRED AT THE HOME—MAN-AGEMENT IS GOOD.

The report of Mrs. A. M. Taylor, secretary of the board of trustees of the Home for Friendless, was presented at the meeting yesterday. It shows the institution to be in a satisfactory condition. It was as follows:

We are meeting for our forty-first anniversary. As we are an outgrowth of the former Y. M. C. A., having been organized by the ladies auxiliary, we think it fitting at this time, to voice our joy today over the completion and dedication of the new Y. M. C. A. and pray for its long continued usefulness and prosperity in our midst. Our home is in good condition. The trustees have improved the property by building new fences and cement walks and the minor repairs have been kept up by the two boards. We began 1908 with five adults and five children in the home department and three insane and four other prisoners in the jail. We have received during the year as new inmates three insane. Forty-one prisoners have been received, of which number five were merely held as witnesses. Children boarded by parents or friends, 22; number of juveniles sent in by court 19; number of births 7; one was the child of a married woman; number of unfortunate girls received 7; transients 5; all with children; one had five children but was with us only a few hours. The home received one old woman. We have at this date 7 children, 2 aged women, 1 suffered from rheumatism, 1 girl boarder, 5 insane, 2 other prisoners, one unfortunate girl.

"She is more to be pitied than censured. More to be helped than despised. She is only a lassie who ventured. On the dark stormy pathway of life. Do not scorn her with words fierce and bitter; Don't laugh at her shame and downfall;

For a moment you stop to consider A man was the cause of it all." The health of the home has been reported excellent. With all the different classes and ages we have in the institution, there has not been a death since 1904. Our matron is a fine conscientious nurse as well as woman and our physician, Dr. Markley, is ever ready to respond. It will be well at this season of the year to remind the public that with all these lives in our hands, we must refuse to take contagious or infectious disease cases, as a matter of protection to our inmates. We wish to thank all who contributed to make the holidays such a happy time for us. We have granted our matron a vacation of 6 weeks that she may accept an offer to visit California with friends and wish her a happy journey.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. A. M. TAYLOR, Secy.

A CROSS ON HIS BACK.

It Was Made With Chalk, but Was Too Heavy to Carry.

There is a story of an envious tailor current with the French peasantry. He fancied that his neighbor, who received a pension for the loss of an arm incurred while fighting for his country, was better off than himself. Both men went to pay their rent on the same day.

"That's a lucky man," said the tailor to the landlord. "He gets well paid for his arm."

"But who would be willing to part with an arm, even if he were paid for it?" said the landlord.

"I would," declared the tailor. "You!" cried the landlord. "Why, man, you wouldn't be willing to bear anything of the sort, no matter how much you were paid for it."

"I wish some one would try me."

"Now, see here," said the landlord, who had studied human nature. "I'll tell you what—if you'll wear even so much as a chalk mark on your back I'll remit your rent as long as you wear it on your coat so it can be seen, the condition being that you tell no one why it is there."

"Agreed," said the tailor eagerly. "That's an easy way to pay rent."

So the chalk mark in the form of a cross was made on the back of his coat, and the delighted tailor sallied forth upon the street.

Strangers and acquaintances hailed him to tell him of the mark on his back. Jokes were made at his expense, children laughed and pointed at him, and his wife annoyed him with questions and with conjugal familiarity told him he was a fool. The usually amiable man grew surly and morose; he shunned men, women and children and frequented back streets.

Before the week was up the tailor found himself embroiled in a quarrel with his best friend, his wife had threatened to leave his house, and he considered himself miserable and ill used.

Finally one night he took off his coat and rubbed out the chalk mark and said: "There! I would not wear that cross on my back another week, no, not if I could have all the money there is in Paris!"
