THE THEATER

THEATRICAL CALENDAR.

GENNETT.

All Week—Aubrey Stock Co.
NEW PHILLIPS.
All Week—High Class Vaudeville.

"Too Many Wives."

That new music being whistled about town is from the new musical farce "Too Many Wives." It's Frederick V. Bower's music and the composer of "Because" and "Always" knows what takes the public's fancy. By the bye, you had better visit the Gennett theater and view "Too Many Wives." There may be some musical numbers you will like better and the management feels sure you will enjoy Charles Horwitz's merry libretto.

Otis Skinner.

Otis Skinner has a record of noteworthy achievements on the American stage of which he may be justly considered a staunch pillar. But it remained for this brilliant actor to give to the playgoing public a unique psychological study such as Philippe Bridau, in "The Honor of the Family." The coming appearance here of Otis Skinner will, therefore, attract more than usual interest Jan. 25 at the Gennett theater because of the fact that this new play founded on a novel by Balzac is the greatest production in which Otis Skinner has ever been seen. It is a Gallic success, emanating from Paris, the national home of the drama in France. It also ran for four months in New York at the beautiful Hudson theater. No actor of mediocre ability could achieve even a small modicum of success in this play. Otis Skinner, who is an actor of genius, has won an enduring triumph in "The Honor of the Family."

Aubrey Stock Co.

One of the many features of the stock company appearing at the Gennett this week is the fine character of the plays they produce. Even at a glance at their list of plays arrests one's attention and brings out the fact that they must have competent talent to present their plays, the manager realizing that the great fault with the average repertoire company is lack of variety in the plays and specialties. They have paid particular attention in engaging their artists to securing a series of widely different numbers in the vaudeville department. While retaining some of the best features that have become popular in the past, they have obtained a number of novelties and the entertainment they present is far above any repertoire and will please everyone. See special advertisement in Jenkins jewelry store.

The New Phillips.

One would scarcely believe that a vaudeville act would be the means of reconciling two estranged beings. Yet, there are strange things going on each day in one walk of life that persons in another walk would not give credit to.

Mr. Danny Mann, rural character in "Mandy Hawkins" at the New Phillips this half-week, tells a story that had its happy end in Winnipeg. The act was being given in one of the theaters there several months ago and a few days before the engagement closed Mr. Mann received a letter from a mother. It appears, from the letter, that the sixteen year old daughter of the woman had seen the act and looking back over her life felt the pathetic heart-yearning pictured on the stage by Mrs. Mann. She determined to find her parents whom she was quite a little miss and for want of a home she had been placed by the authorities in the home at Winnipeg.

The managers of the institution easily traced the whereabouts of the girl's parents and she effected a reconciliation. Harry and Kitty Sutton came to the Sun circuit direct from the Western circuit. They have a novelty act that outranks anything of the sort booked at the theater in months. Both are high class.

Simpson, the ventriloquist, has five different voices and succeeds in throwing each one just about where he wants to.

NOTICE.

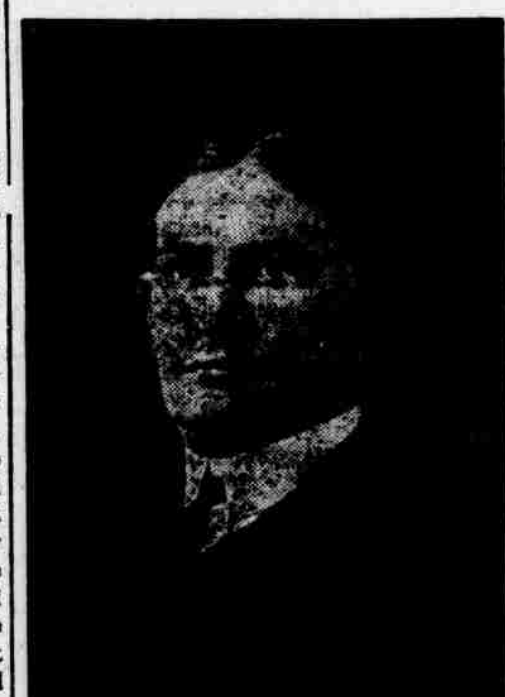

I wish to state that the insufficient supply of programs for "Father and the Boys" was not the fault of the theatre management, but a misunderstanding between the printer and myself. It is to my advantage that everyone in the house have a program and regret that this occurred.

WILL CONDUCT THE CHRISTIAN REVIVAL

ROY L. BROWN.

Evangelist Roy L. Brown of Bellefontaine, O., who will arrive Wednesday to conduct services at the Christian church, was formerly a citizen of Richmond. He will be remembered by a large number of the citizens. He started into the printing business, but shifted to the ministry and his first charge was a small congregation at Liberty. He is at present just closing a two weeks engagement at Lima, Ohio.

Apple Pie and Malted Cheese.

Bake a pie crust in the bottom and on the side of a pie tin; fill with apple quarters stewed till tender and return to the oven, putting a little cinnamon, sugar and bits of butter over. When it is baked enough to set, draw it out and cover with a thick layer of grated cheese. Return to the fire and let the cheese melt and brown. Serve immediately.—Harper's Bazar.

A Reminder.

"Why should I, sonny?"
"Oh, I thought if it was bigger it would be more on your mind and you might remember to give it to me sometimes."—London Telegraph.

Declined With Thanks.

In many respects it [the article] has a good deal of merit, but on the whole I do not think it suited to the Review. . . . Perhaps my judgment would not agree with that of others whose opinion is to be respected; but, after all, you know, we editors have no other criterion than our own judgment.—James Sparks, Editor North American Review. COMMITTEE WAS NOT PREPARED

Reports on Feed Wires and Milk Ordinance Was Not Submitted to Council.

WILL MAKE MODIFICATIONS

ALMOST CERTAIN THAT MILK MEASURE WILL BE ALTERED CONSIDERABLY BEFORE IT IS ADOPTED BY COUNCIL.

The committee on ordinances and franchises reported last evening at council meeting that it was not as yet ready to report to council in regard to the milk ordinance or the matter of compelling the Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern traction company to remove its feed wires from Main street. These two matters will be ready for council's consideration at the meeting February 1, in all probability. Nevertheless an idea as to what would be in the result was given last evening in discussion of the subjects. Council will no doubt pass a milk ordinance modified greatly to that presented by Dr. Charles Bond city health officer and it will also probably give the traction company the permission to allow their feed wires to remain on Main street, because of the enormous expense attached to making a change to A street as proposed.

Study Has Relented.

City Attorney T. J. Study, one of those who was most insistent in his demand that the city compel the removal of the wires, stated that he had talked with officials of the traction company and found that they would be put to an enormous expense to make the change.

How! Exaggerated.

Councilman Von Pein stated that the howl of the dairymen was no doubt exaggerated and that the price would not be raised as the dairymen had represented in passing petitions among their customers. City Clerk C. W. Merrill was instructed to write to different cities and obtain evidence as to what these cities have in the way of milk ordinances.

Councilman McManan said it had been stated to him the ordinance had been introduced to favor certain dairymen. Mr. Study stated that Walter Commons of the Richmond Cream company had told him he favored the ordinance. Mr. Study declared the ordinance was too wordy and perhaps Dr. Bond's language was such that it could not be clearly understood by the dairymen. Councilman Deuker likewise stated that Dr. Bond's language was a mystery not only to the dairymen but to the councilmen. Every one speaking on the subject seemed to favor a modified ordinance.

There is no case on record of a cough, cold or la grippe developing into pneumonia after Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken, as it cures the most obstinate deep seated coughs and colds. Why take anything else. A. G. Luken & Co.

Bogus Antiques.

Old statuary is made in great quantities in Italy, Bohemia and Belgium furnish glass of the middle ages, and every European capital has its makers of antiques. Berlin and Vienna makers are kept busy with the home trade, but Paris, London, Brussels, Rome, Florence, Smyrna and Munich are commercial centers for this class of merchandise. The business has grown to such proportions that Nuremberg, Vienna and Livorno have museums where counterfeit works are exhibited and where their style of manufacture may be studied.—Berlin Post.

Chinese Flat Noses.

"The Chinese mother," the ethnologist explained, "carries her babe in a sack on her back. The babe's nose is pressed against her. Day in and day out, all through its babyhood, the little thing's soft and malleable nose is pressed against its mother's back. Hence it is no wonder, is it, that the Chinese are a flat nosed race?"

Too Much.

"Of course," said the lady with the steel bound glasses, "I expected to be called 'strong minded' after making a speech three hours long in favor of our sex, but to have it misquoted into 'strong minded' was too, too much."
