Her Contribution.

A man, a new acquaintance, once told Dr. Joseph Parker of London that his sermon had so impressed him that he had put a five pound note in the plate instead of the half sovereign he had intended.

"I hope you don't repent of your charity," said the doctor.

"Indeed, no," said the guest.

"Because," said Parker, "I remember that one of my congregation once did. It was a woman, and she came to the vestry after service one Sunday morning to tell me that a week before she must have put a sovereign in the plate instead of a shilling, because she could not account for the loss otherwise. But she didn't get the change from me." said the doctor, with a smile. "I told her it was too bad, of course, particularly as God would only give her credit for the shilling."

A Chance For All.

There was little doubt in the minds of those who were invited to the wedding of Augustus Clay Johnson and Chloe Matilda Baker as to the cordiality of the invitation. It was clearly printed and read as follows:

"You are invited to attend the marriage of Mr. Augustus Clay Johnson and Miss Chloe Matilda Baker at the house of the bride's mother. All who cannot come may send."—Exchange.

M'KINNEY FALLS OFF AN ICE WAGON

For Once Water Wagon Is Not Blamed.

Fred McKinney when he fell off the water wagon, but the next thing to it, the ice wagon—yesterday afternoon at Sixteenth and Main streets, badly sprained his right ankle. McKinney is an employee of the ice delivery combine in the city and in lifting a heavy cake of ice from the wagon, his foot slipped, causing him to fall. He is confined to his home, North F street.
