ROW IN DEMOCRATIC
CAMP IS BREWING

Some State Committeemen Refused Lobby Against County Option Law.

STORMY MEETING TONIGHT

LEGISLATURE MET THIS AFTER-NOON AND EACH BRANCH HAD IMPORTANT MEASURES UP FOR CONSIDERATION.

Palladium Bureau,
Indianapolis, Feb. 1.

The democrats in the legislature are still in a big tangle over the local option bill. Several members of the democratic state committee are using every effort and all their political guile to get the temperance democrats in line for the repeal of the county local option law. The ward and township devotees are seeking to have the state committee take official action as in favor of standing by platform pledges which were in reality the repeal of county local option legislation.

Foley No Lobbyist.

All would have gone well had not M.
E. Foley, chairman of the Ninth district, sent word that he had no intention of becoming a lobbyist. So far as is known the only members of the committee who are in favor of standing on the platform are the following chairmen of districts: Peter Foley of the Sixth; Bernard Korbly of the Seventh and George Pleasant of the Fourth.
They have held a meeting to discuss plan of action.
The democratic caucus tonight promises to be stormy.
Senator Proctor of Elkhart is preparing a liquor bill which will be different from all the others in its plan, he says.

Met This Afternoon.

The legislature met this afternoon at 2 o'clock. In the house the bill to regulate the construction of tenement houses and the three mile road law will come up. The senate will be occupied over the tenement measure and a bill to make the Culver Military Academy part of the state military forces.

AGED GERMAN DEAD

Conrad Zwissler, Prominent Local Follower of Emperor, Passes Away.

LEAVES SEVERAL SONS

Conrad Zwissler, Sr., a well known German resident of the city died yesterday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank M. Meyer, 600 South Seventh street. He was the father of John Zwissler, the well known baker, and Conrad Zwissler, Jr., the gardener of this city. The deceased was seventy-three years old, and a native of Germany. He is survived by six sons, John, Conrad, Frank and Arthur of this city, Michael of Cincinnati, and Adam of Indianapolis.
The funeral will be Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the St. Andrews church. The burial will be in the St.
Andrews cemetery. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Father Roell.
The deceased has been prominent among the Germans of Richmond in various ways. He returned from a visit to his only sister in Germany but recently. At the time of his death he was not engaged in any business industry.

LEWIS IS SUSTAINED

Delegates to Mine Workers' Convention Support Stand
Of the President.

THIS ENDS OLD TROUBLE

Indianapolis, Feb. 1.—The Mine Workers' convention today decided to settle the Van Horn-Lewis controversy by a vote of the delegates. Before half the long roll was called it was certain that Lewis would be sustained in his action of last summer.

It will be remembered that Lewis took the authority to annul the charter of a local union which refused to obey his order to return to the Hudson mine where they had gone on a strike alleging that there were unsafe mine conditions.
At this juncture Lewis arranged for a court of arbitration to decide the dispute if the men returned to work.
Van Horn upheld the men in their refusal to go. The result is expected at three o'clock this afternoon. According to rumors Lewis has sixteen thousand majority.
