The Doldrums.

"In the doldrums" is a phrase more often employed than understood. It refers to a belt of calms contiguous to the equator and situated between the course of the southeast and northeast trade winds. Long periods with scarcely a stir in the air and a torrid sky above, broken by sudden squalls and violent storms of short duration, make the doldrums a dreary area for sailing ships.

JESSE DRULEY IS MEMBER OF BOARD

Was Selected as Successor to Robinson in Wayne County Council.

HE HAD NO OPPOSITION

COUNCIL MEETS AGAIN TOMORROW TO PASS FINALLY ON APPROPRIATIONS AND AVOID TECHNICALITIES.

At the meeting of the Wayne county council this morning Jesse Druley of Boston township, was chosen a member of the council to succeed Henry E. Robinson, deceased. Mr. Druley is a democrat. His was the only name proposed. Abner Bond of Greensfork, had been suggested, but his name was not presented. Mr. Druley is a well known farmer. Walter Commons was chosen president of the board and Junius C. Knipe vice president.

It is expected that the appointment of Mr. Druley will meet with favor. He was selected by a republican board and will have the distinction of being the only democratic member of the organization. It is not expected that there will be in any criticism of the board for departing from party lines in making its choice. Mr. Druley is expected to prove a valuable member of the board.

The list of appropriations was read, and will be read again tomorrow and be passed. This will remove any question of a technical nature regarding the appropriation made before the county local option election. The list is identical as published two weeks ago.

LARGE CROWD TO ATTEND DINNER

Agricultural Society Event Is Saturday Noon.

It is expected that the customary large crowd will partake of the annual dinner served by the Wayne county agricultural society at the court house Saturday. The usual contest of food stuffs will be held in the morning. In order that they may be judged, it is necessary that the exhibits be brought to the room as early as possible.

MISS M'VICKERS IS ON INJURED LIST

Painfully Hurt as Result of a Fall.

Miss Affie McVickers, treasurer of the Gennett theater injured her knee yesterday afternoon by falling at Tenth and Main streets. She will be compelled to be off duty for several days.

"NO EXTRA COIN" IS BOARD RULING

Election Officers Must Be Content With Pared Wages For Services.

COURT IS THE ONLY RESORT

IF THE OPTION ELECTION OFFICIALS ARE NOT SATISFIED THEY WILL HAVE TO BRING SUITS AGAINST COUNTY.

No additional allowance for service upon local option election boards will be made by the county officials. The commissioners allowed the election clerks, sheriffs, etc., but one day's pay. There were protests and claims filed for additional remuneration. The commissioners at the last meeting asked the advice of J. F. Robbins, county attorney. He said to pay only for one day. Mr. Robbins was out of the city today and John L. Rupe was called in for counsel. He said to pay for only one day and that is what the commissioners will do.

Must Go to Courts.
That means that if any of the claimants want to press the matter, they will have to resort to the courts. The county council has appropriated $2,500 to defray the election expenses and that is all the money to be set aside for that purpose unless the court requires more. It is not believed that any individual claimant will resort to a law suit in order to secure the extra day's pay and at the same time take the chance of losing. The action of the commissioners will mean a large saving in the election expenses.

JOHNSON CANDIDATE

Former Congressman Announces That He Will Make The Race for Mayor.

EVEN MUGWUMPS APPLAUD

To a select audience in the circuit court room this morning, Henry U. Johnson announced his candidacy for the office of mayor of the city. He said his platform will be union, the constitution and the enforcement of the law. The well known attorney was congratulated by friends who were at the "announcement party" and all assured him of their support. The group contained republicans, democrats and mugwumps.

The declaration was said to be primarily for the benefit of the newspaper reporters and not a joke.

SHE WANTS DIVORCE.

Sarah Swisher has entered suit in the Wayne circuit court against Alonzo Swisher for divorce. Cruel and inhuman treatment and failure to provide were alleged. Some time ago the defendant entered suit for divorce but the case was dismissed.

INTEREST SHOWN IN THE ELECTION

This Time It Is Only the Commercial Club That Is Choosing Its Officers.

MCCARTHY FOR THIRD TERM

NAME BEING BOOMED AS PROBABLE SUCCESSOR TO HIMSELF—NEW VICE PRESIDENTS WILL BE SELECTED.

Much interest is centering in the coming election of officers by the board of directors of the Commercial club at the meeting of the new board March 1. It is probable that the present officers will be re-elected, including John F. McCarthy, president; E. M. Haas, secretary and Howard Dill, treasurer. A change in the vice presidents may be made as it is customary with the club to elect different members each year. The present vice presidents are John Nicholson, first, and Lee Neubaum, second.

President John F. McCarthy if elected again will be so honored for the third time. If re-elected he will be the first president to serve three terms. He stated this morning that he does not expect to be the next president of the club. He did not state he would refuse if elected. It seems he is the only candidate suggested for the place.

The election of Secretary E. M. Haas is practically assured. Mr. Haas has served for nearly two years and has proved a very satisfactory officer. Mr. Dill, as treasurer will also probably be elected to succeed himself. In selecting officers the board can elect any member of the club.

STUDY VISITING HERE.

William H. Study, who was sheriff of this county about thirty years ago, is visiting local relatives and friends. He now resides in Southern Kansas.

City Statistics

Deaths and Funerals.

LOCAL RELATIVES TO ATTEND FUNERAL

Burial Services Over Murderer of Editor Kellum to Be Held Friday.

ARE NEW DEVELOPMENTS

IT IS STATED THAT MURDER AND SUICIDE FOLLOWED AFTER HANDLEY AND WIFE HAD BEEN RECONCILED.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reak and Lawrence Handley and members of his family will probably attend the funeral of Clyde Handley of College Corner, the murderer of S. P. Kellum, editor of the College Corner News. Handley, who suicided after committing his act, was a relative of the above persons. The following dispatch throws further light on the affair:

New Developments.
Developments today in the sensational murder of S. P. Kellum, editor of the College Corner News, and the suicide of Clyde Handley, the murderer, at College Corner, O., last night, show that Handley undoubtedly was insane, due to disease and worry over domestic difficulties. Handley had been showing signs of being mentally unbalanced for a week or more. He had been living apart from his wife for several weeks, but about ten days ago, they were reconciled and had made preparations to leave College Corner. Mrs. Handley's father said today that his daughter had been getting her wardrobe in shape for the trip.

Kellum was Mrs. Handley's attorney in a divorce proceeding which she had begun in court, and it is said that he had written Handley several letters rebuking him for neglecting his wife. These rebukes are said to have preyed upon the young man's mind.

FIGHT IS REPORTED.

It has been reported to the police that Hazel Carter and another woman started a rough house at the New Windsor Hotel last evening with the proprietor, Lewis Parker. It is stated that Parker was worsted in the encounter. The police have not made any arrests but are investigating the affair.
