

News of Surrounding Towns

ECONOMY, IND.

Economy, Ind., Feb. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hiatt of Mooreland, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lebrick, Tuesday.

Mrs. Retta Willis of Muncie, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Lydia Bennett Tuesday night.

Rev. M. V. Bartlett and son Charles, were in town Tuesday afternoon.

Charles Edwards, the young photographer, took a splendid picture of Miss Lucinda Haxton. It shows the interior of a parlor with Miss Haxton posing in front of the piano.

Report of the Economy basketball teams for the season up to date is as follows: First team—Games played, 7; won, 6; lost, 1. High School team—Games played, 11; won, 8; lost, 3. The First team lineup—Forwards, Lindsey and Lamb; center, Gwin; guards, Ballenger and Swain. High School team—Forwards, Ballenger and Oler; center, Daughy; guards, Manning and Chamness. Manager of First team, Charles Mendenhall. Manager High School team, Russel Kimball.

J. L. Peterson received 108 valentines, that being the largest number received by any one person here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Thornburg were carrying a tub of hot water Tuesday morning when Mr. Thornburg slipped and fell, spilling the whole contents of the tub on himself, causing a lively scrimmage for a little while.

Will Williams and Vernon Marshall left for a two weeks' Texas trip Tuesday.

T. P. Hadley bought a horse of Albert Chamness of West River, Tuesday.

Mrs. Agnes Osborn and daughter, Daisy, gave a quilting, Tuesday. Those that quilted and enjoyed a fine dinner were: Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Mrs. Amanda Lamb, Mrs. Martha Atkinson, Mrs. Aseneth Osborn, Mrs. Jennie Ballenger, Mrs. Ethel Marshall and the Misses Ruby Jones and Mary Ballenger, and Mrs. Nora Stamm.

Calvin Weyl of Williamsburg has bought the Randolph Nelson property in Economy and will move here some time.

Charles and Byram Cale have butchered 125 hogs this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hiatt, attended meeting at Morgan's Chapel Tuesday night.

Mrs. Byram Peirce and Mrs. Alice Fraiser swapped visits with each other, Monday.

Ora Edwards is going to build a house just as soon as the weather will permit working. He has material already on the lot.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox and children were visiting relatives at Carlos City, today.

Several sleighs were seen in town Tuesday afternoon.

Some of the young men from here make frequent visits to Moadoc.

Joseph Haxton, the popular grocery man, said four preachers visited him on Tuesday.

B. W. Clark is reported feeling much better since his recent sickness.

Simon Atwell was out sleigh-riding Monday afternoon in a West Virginia cutter.

John Replogle spent Tuesday night in Hagerstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark entertained Mrs. Edna Replogle and son, Tuesday night.

The M. E. Aid Society met Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Tillie Clark's to make arrangements to serve lunch at Fred Lebrick's public sale Saturday, Feb. 20th.

Prof. Moore was able to resume teaching, Tuesday.

Harry Macy is in Richmond for a few days.

Foley's Orino Laxative cures constipation and liver trouble and makes the bowels healthy and regular. Orino is superior to pills and tablets as it does not gripe or nauseate. Why take anything else? A. G. Luken & Co.

NEW PARIS, OHIO.

New Paris, O., Feb. 18.—Mrs. Bulla Watts visited here this week.

Mr. C. A. Fleming is visiting relatives at South Bend, Ind.

Contractor Lawder and his force of hands now have the new Methodist church about ready to complete shingling. Work has been progressing nicely and the edifice already presents a most handsome appearance. It will be one of the prides of New Paris when finally completed and in use.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook are expected home from their western trip the last of the week.

Harry Commons left Wednesday for the west where he will join his brother

Habitual Constipation

May be permanently overcome by proper personal efforts with the assistance of the one truly beneficial laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, which enables one to form regular habits daily so that assistance to nature may be gradually dispensed with when no longer needed as the best of remedies, when required, are to assist nature and not to supplant the natural functions, which must depend ultimately upon proper nourishment, proper efforts, and right living generally. To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine

Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. ONLY
SOLD BY ALL LEADING DRUGGISTS
at one only, regular price 50¢ per bottle

Charles. Together they will go to Oregon.

Raymond Jones of Dakota is visiting John Jones this week.

Miss Grace Crafton of Dayton was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.

Haller & Oats will install in the basement of their butcher shop a modern up-to-date ice plant with a daily capacity for 3,000 pounds of artificial ice. This is a long felt want and the promoters are receiving congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Kilbourne have returned home from a visit to Spice-land.

Rev. Baker has taken rooms at the home of Mrs. Mary Mills.

The Tuesday club met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Anna Bevington. At roll call the members responded with Japanese heroes. Three excellent papers were read, "Japan as a military nation," Mrs. John Purviance; "Korea, the hermit nation," Mrs. Margaret Reinheimer; "The Story of Port Arthur," Miss Cora Hawley. The next meeting will be with Miss Mary Morrow at Greenwood. Mrs. Ella Bloom was present as a guest.

There is an entertainment being planned for early in March for the benefit of the public library. Juvenile books and fiction are much needed.

The slander suit of Pence vs. Bogan and King, was compromised by the defendants paying the costs.

Mr. C. W. Standish is filling the vacancy of Mr. Nelson, agent for the Pennsylvania railroad Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones and family are visiting relatives at Dayton this week.

Mr. J. A. King is at Detroit, Mich., on a business trip.

PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS LA GRIPPE

Pneumonia often follows la grippe but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, for la grippe coughs and deep seated colds. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. A. G. Luken & Co.

OLIVE HILL, IND.

Olive Hill, Ind., Feb. 18.—The Jollie club meet with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor Saturday evening. A good time was had.

Mr. Walter Harris' children are on the sick list again.

Mrs. Bell Armstrong was called to Fountain City, Sunday to see her sick sister, Mrs. Jennie Dunkman.

Mr. S. J. Medearis is suffering with neuralgia in his head.

Some of the boys from this place formed a fox chase Wednesday on Mr. Andrew Toms farm north of here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eliason entertained the Happy Hour club Saturday evening.

There are quite a number of scholars out of school this week on account of sickness.

Mr. Bert Tuttle entertained a young gentleman friend from Richmond Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. W. K. Cheesman went to Richmond Wednesday on business.

Mr. Wesley Wanker and Mr. John Folle were at Richmond Tuesday.

Hoarse coughs and stuffy colds that may develop into pneumonia over night are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar, and it soothes inflamed membranes, heals the lungs, and expels the cold from the system. A. G. Luken & Co.

HAGERSTOWN, IND.

Hagerstown, Ind., Feb. 18.—Clinton Milikan, south of Millville made a business trip to this place, Tuesday.

Mrs. Will Teeter has been the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gephart of Middletown, Ind. While there Mrs. Teeter assisted the Eastern Star chapter in some initiatory work.

Jeremiah E. Myers spent Wednesday at Indianapolis to which place he shipped a car load of shorthorn cattle which had been fattened for market on his farm east of town.

The sale of Dr. Chas. Harter, north of town, was unusually well attended Tuesday, considering the weather and everything sold at a good price.

Mrs. M. T. Fox has purchased the vacant corner lot of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fouts on South Perry street. Consideration $800. A modern dwelling house will be erected on the lot.

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Warbinton received word from Carlyle, Ohio of the illness of Mrs. Warbinton's sister's husband, Isaac Gebhart who was stricken with paralysis with little hopes of his recovery. They left Wednesday for Carlyle.

The death of Mary Katherine, the six weeks old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hatfield living southwest of town occurred Tuesday night at 11 o'clock. The little one was ill only a short time with pneumonia.

H. C. Teeter and assistants Exum Copeland and Carlos Burton have returned from Kyle, Ohio, where they were placing a grain elevator and the machinery. They will not return to their work until the weather settles.

The following attended the play "Madam Butterfly" at the Gennett at Richmond, Wednesday night: Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Foutz, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Teeter, Mrs. India Keys, Mrs. Henry Keagy, Miss Anna Keagy, Misses Eva Worl and Mable Teeter, Raymond Deeter, Simon Miller, Frank Thomas, Francis Veal.

Mrs. H. W. Keagy spent Wednesday at Richmond, shopping.

On account of the inclemency of the weather the Christian Aid society postponed its meeting this week until Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Joe Teeter will be hostess.

Mrs. Cordelia Scott is having her recently purchased property on North Plum street improved to a considerable extent.

The same parties who gave the New Year's dance are arranging for another on Thursday night, Feb. 25. Music will again be furnished by Mel-

The Hoosier Store

Attracts All Economical Buyers

To the Hoosier's way, which is simply getting the full value for your dollar. It helps your income, stops your worry and a sure cure for extravagance

38 inch Black and Colored Serges at50c
Fancy Novelty Dress Goods, 38 inches wide, at39c
54 inch Gray Cloth Check and Plaids at75c
34 inch Fancy Suiting at15c
Persian Figured Cotton Challies at5c
60 inch Mercerized Table Linen, beautiful patterns at 50c
Turkey Red Table Linen in Check and Plaids, fast color, 60 inches wide, at25c
18 inch Bleached Toweling, worth 12½c, extra value at 10c
Percales in dark and light patterns, 36 inches wide, with or without borders, at12½c
Dimities in fine checks and fine cord stripes at 10c & 12½c

India Linen, extra value at 6½c, 8½c & 10c
Dress Gingham in fancy stripes and plaids at 10c & 12½c
Ladies' Flannelette Gowns, well made, large size, at...50c
Ladies' Flannelette Gowns, worth $1.25, in plain white, pink and light blue, nicely made, at98c
Ladies' Muslin Gowns at50c, 98c & $1.25
EXCEPTIONAL VALUES.
Ladies' Black Mercerized Petticoats, great values, at 98c, $1.25 & $1.50
FURS! FURS! FURS to close at half their value.
Bissel's Carpet Sweepers, all grades at low prices.
MAY MANTON PATTERNS AND CATALOGUES AT....10c

THE HOOSIER STORE

Cor. 6th and Main

leberg's orchestra from Dayton, which was so highly appreciated at the other dance.

Mrs. Allen Fouts has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. McMann at Richmond.

Mrs. Chas. Newcomb was at New Castle Wednesday.

Mable, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Denny has been sick, and Mrs. Denny has been sick.

The condition of the weather under foot did not permit the Ladies History club meeting this week but it will meet with Mrs. Margaret Lantz on next Monday afternoon, Feb. 22, with the following program which has been re-arranged:

Bible Reading—By the hostess.
Responses, Items of interest relative to the life of Washington.

Bernese Arts, continued—Miss Clark.

Swiss Patriotism—Mrs. Lamar.

Question bureau, conducted by Mrs. Shively.

Current Events—Mesdames Bell and Hartley and Miss Taylor.

C. R. Kluger, the Jeweler, 1000 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." A. G. Luken & Co.

GREENSFORK, IND.

Greensfork, Ind., Feb. 18.—It is said that a drummer on an east bound passenger train, recently, got relief from a Richmond man in the following way: He had a bottle of booze and the cork was in so tight that he made the second attempt to remove it but failed. He said to himself, "Where there is a will, there's a way," and he announced aloud, "Is there any man in this car who resides in Richmond?" A big fat man arose and said "Yes," and the drummer asked him for the loan of his cork screw, which enabled him to get his drink.

Joel Griffin who has been making his home with Barney Linderman, south of town for some time, talks of changing his residence.

Rev. J. T. Miller of the Radical U. B. church who was called to his home at Oakland City, Ind., as a witness in a law suit, has returned and will fill his regular appointment here next Sunday at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Roy Copeland of Cambridge City is spending the week with William Boyd and family.

There are several of our largest land owners and most influential farmers and business men of our township who are still hostile over the actions of the merchants and dealers of Richmond at the local option election recently held. They declare they will not spend a dollar in Richmond as long as it is wet.

Rev. McKee will deliver a sermon to women and girls next Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

George Hoover, Milo Gentry and Frank Linderman viewed a road running north from the National road Tuesday.

Lute Hatfield made a business trip to Indianapolis Wednesday.

John Gilmer and son opened their sugar camps a few days ago and made 15 gallons of syrup.

Mr. Lebo of the firm of Snell & Co. of Indianapolis was in town Wednesday looking after the interests of the firm.

Ell Cates, Sr., who has been confined to his home with illness for some time made his first trip to town recently.

D. W. Harris & Co. are shipping dressed poultry by express to eastern markets.

Charles Poland southeast of town shipped a car load of hogs of his own raising to Indianapolis Wednesday.

The farmers of this vicinity report that the recent snow fall is quite beneficial to the wheat crop.

Miss Blanche Kerr has returned to Indianapolis after spending a few days at home.

Lem Foland of College Corner was in town Wednesday.

Ol Starr of Richmond was in town Tuesday on business.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. A. G. Luken & Co.

CAMBRIDGE CITY, IND.

Cambridge City, Ind., Feb. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beeson, of Indianapolis, came the first of the week for a visit with relatives and friends in this place. Mr. Beeson has returned to the city. Mrs. Beeson remains for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Freeman.

W. S. Hunt is very seriously ill at his home in the Boyd family.

Claud Kitterman went to Falmouth yesterday where he attended the sale of Elmer Caldwell, who resides near that place.

The Bijou theater, under the management of Buckskin Ben is attracting crowds each evening.

Mrs. Leadora Wilson, Mrs. Howard

Heeson and Miss Susie Freeman were the guests of Mrs. George Butler, of East Germantown, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Oliver entertained a number of the friends of their daughter, Miss Sarah, on St. Valentine's evening. The young people, twelve in number, went masked. Various games in keeping with the day, formed the evening's entertainment. Ice cream, cake, lemonade and candies were served.

Willard Petro was a Greenfield visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. Robert Steele is visiting her mother, Mrs. Cooper, at the home of a brother in Oxford, O.

Mrs. Clayton Wagner spent the day in Connersville, the guest of a friend.

Mrs. Anna Hackman.

Mrs. Solomon Mettert has returned from a visit with friends in Anderson.

Mrs. Kate Seward, who has been in the hospital, at Anderson, has so far recovered, that she could be brought to the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Sumwalt, south of town.

Mrs. Emma Pritchard entertained at dinner today, Mrs. D. S. Williams, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Margaret Patten of Indianapolis, in honor of the seventy-eighth birthday anniversary of her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Downs.

Charles Loeb made a business trip to Indianapolis Tuesday.

Daniel Drischel will go to New Orleans, Saturday, where he will attend that city's celebrated festival, the Mardi Gras. He will return by way of Mobile, for a visit with his son, Willard.

The Business Men's club continues to add new attractions to the interior of their rooms. Noticeable among the recent gifts is a copy of Rosa Bonheur's famous painting—Pharoah's Horses.

Charles Lackey spent Tuesday in Indianapolis.

ELDORADO, OHIO.

Eldorado, O., Feb. 18.—Dr. George Blackford, of Middletown, was a very recent guest of his parents, Mr. and J. H. Blackford.

The musical program which was to have been rendered this week at the opera house by Miss Irene Kimmel, assisted by some of her acquaintances who are distinguished musicians, has been indefinitely postponed because of the serious sickness of a Miss Smart.

At present a student in the Cincinnati College of Music, and the unavoidable absence and previous engagements of others who are to take an active part in the entertainment.

Mrs. Horace Horn and daughter Myrtle, of Greenville, have been visiting with their friends and relatives in this vicinity for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burger and daughter were recent guests of friends in New Paris.

Harry McCoy and Emma Thompson attended the teachers' institute at Eaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Coons were recent guests of their parents at New Paris.

Charles Brasier of Eaton is visiting his son William.

Mrs. L. Disher of Dayton, has been Martin, and her sister, Mrs. Hattie Ullom.

Ora Shewmon made a business trip to Hagerstown, Ind., today.

Mrs. Lottie Aultman of Dayton, is the guest of her father, L. Linebaugh.

George Beard of Greenville was here yesterday on business preparatory to his removal to the Dr. Beck property.

Mrs. William Ricker is home from Dayton where she has been visiting with relatives.

Chester Blackford one of our boys who is working in Dayton, and who takes quite an interest in Y. M. C. A. affairs in the Gem City has during his spare time solicited and collected for said institution $100. A mighty good thing for a boy to work overtime at.

HEXAMETHYLENETETRAMINE

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. A. G. Luken & Co.

MILTON, IND.

Milton, Ind., Feb. 18.—Frank Brumfield has a lot of homer pigeons.

Mr. Petro of Straughn was the guest of Rev. F. A. Scott and family Sunday.

Mrs. David Nugent went to New Orleans Tuesday to spend a few weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kleinknecht of Richmond were at John Ball's this week.

Master Paul Werking is confined to his home with illness.

The Christian church was packed Tuesday evening to hear the Salisbury family entertainers. The program pleased greatly and their return would be welcome.

Mrs. Angeline Warren is home from Richmond.

Miss Hildebrand of Hartford City visited Milton relatives.

The Christian church choir will practice tonight at that church. Harry Doty is the new director.

Angus Hood has decided not to move to Centerville, but has gone into the Hoschour house north of Masonic hall. Omar Manlove west of Milton will sell farm, stock, etc., and move to Cambridge City early in March where he will engage in the automobile business selling the Cadillac car.

Henry Benninger who has spent six weeks with his relatives here has returned to his home at Quincy, Ill.

Laban Johnson will spend Sunday at Forrest, Ind.

Kodol For Indigestion. Relieves sour stomach, palpitation of the heart. Digests what you eat.

Suits Overcoats $10

No More. No Less. Positively $15 Values.

Fred's 710 Main

SMOKED FISH.
WHITE HERRING.
HALIBUT, TROUT.
MUSSEL, STURGEON.
HADLEY BROS.

Just Received. Several Cars of

$3.50 COAL

"Try It."

H. C. Bailewick & Son

529 South 5th St.

Phone 1235

For your supper or breakfast, try

PURITANA MUSH
A delicious new health food; 6¢ cents for a two-pound roll.

Made at ZWISLER'S.
Ask your Grocer for it.