All in the Mind.

On the opening day of one winter session the late Professor Tait of Edinburgh university entered the natural philosophy class room in the midst of the uproarious applause common to those occasions.

Presently he looked up at the tumultuous benches above him with the smile of one who had known the ways of students for a lifetime. At last, when a momentary lull came, he remarked, his gray eyes twinkling: "Gentlemen, I must remind you that there is really no such thing as noise. It is merely a matter of subjective impression."

No Flies on Him.

Two Irishmen, just landed, stopped at a private boarding house on one hot July night. Retiring early, they left the window open and the light burning brightly. The mosquitoes swarmed into the room and began biting. Mike, awakened, called to Pat to put out the light. Pat got up and put it out and crawled back to bed again. Pat awoke about an hour later and found the room full of fireflies and said: "It's no use, Mike. They are coming in with lanterns!"

Pleasure Trips.

"Going to the north pole is no pleasure trip," said the sympathetic friend. "Well," answered the arctic explorer, "It reminds me somewhat of the average pleasure trip. Everybody is so anxious to start and so glad to get home." — Washington Star.

They never taste who always drink. They always talk who never think.—Prior.

The Isthmian Games.

The Isthmian games were celebrated on the isthmus of Corinth every alternate year from prehistoric times. These games included a variety of athletic performances, horse and chariot racing and contests in poetry and music as well. The prize was a simple wreath of parsley, ivy or pine, but it shed lustre not only upon the victor, but his family and city also. — New York American.

MRS. GITHENS DEAD

Was Wife of Former Proprietor of Arlington and Huntington Hotels.

WAS WELL KNOWN WOMAN

Mrs. Emma Meek Githens, wife of Joseph Githens, formerly proprietor of the Arlington hotel and the old Huntington hotel, and well known throughout the middle west as a very successful hotel man, died at her daughter's home in Indianapolis yesterday afternoon. Local friends and relatives have not received any word as to the cause of her death. Mr. and Mrs. Githens since his retirement from active business, have been living in this city, but a few months ago when their daughter and son-in-law went South to spend the winter, Mr. and Mrs. Githens went to Indianapolis to live in their residence, during their absence. Mrs. Githens was prominent in local society and was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal church. No word has been received by the local undertakers regarding the funeral arrangements.

SUITS FILED IN CIRCUIT COURT

In the Wayne circuit court,
