

COMMISSION TO REFUSE TO SLEEP ON PROPOSITION

Advocates of Tariff Reform
Declare They Are Disgusted With Attitude of Congress on Tariff.

CRITICISM ADDS FUEL TO FIRE OF INDIGNATION

Manufacturers and Owners of Various Industries Grow
Rampant and Will Make Pleas Heard.

Indianapolis, Feb. 19.—Spurred on by the words of John Barrett the head of the Bureau of South American Republics in Washington is that the movement of the tariff commission convention is the work of fools the convention has become more determined than ever in the work of camping on the trail of congress.

The leaders are fully determined to try to force congress into granting the petition for a commission to gather data for the tariff revision at the special session.

This determination on the part of the manufacturers means a fight right down in the trenches of every congressional district of the country where the factory has strength.

Barrett, who has been minister to half a dozen countries and who is an authority on South American trade said:

"I was going into a theater in Washington when I met Congressman Dalzell. I remarked that I was coming out to Indianapolis to the convention and he said: 'Yes, it's going to be a great gathering of crazy men.'"

In regard to South American trade Barrett said:

"The share of the United States in this total does not exceed five hundred and sixty millions of dollars, including both imports and exports, and the balance of trade is overwhelmingly in favor of Latin America. If we would modify these conditions and would gain our share of the business which goes to other sections of the world, but which ought to be ours, we must study the situation in all its bearings, make reasonable concessions, and if necessary, negotiate reciprocity treaties and apply the maximum and minimum tariff as may be demanded."

Discuss Ways and Means.

Last night Mr. H. E. Miles who is in a way the father of the whole movement and a live wire in agitation called a meeting of the executive committee at the Claypool hotel and discussed the way in which the campaign is to be carried on.

"It is our intention to get the tariff commission bill through at the extra session if possible," said Mr. Miles after the convention had adjourned. "It will take us about ten days to get our organization started, but we shall be on hand when the extra session convenes. Congress evidently does not realize the change of public sentiment as to the tariff. Up until a few months ago the textile interests were solidly stand pat. Now a considerable portion of that interest is strongly for the commission since interpretation as to schedules is seriously threatened. Then there are the zinc men of Missouri and other states who allege that an industry valued at $100,000,000 is threatened with ruin because of an interpretation obtained by the Guggenheim and Steel Trust interests by which Mexican zinc is now being admitted free into the country. Mexican zinc is taken from the surface by peon labor. American zinc mining requires shafts and costly hoisting machinery. A few months ago the zinc people were as happy as could be, but suddenly the industry is thrown into panic by a little manipulation as to classification, etc.

Country in an Uproar.

"This country is in an uproar as to this tariff business and I look for a mighty stormy time when the ways and means committee of congress publishes the new tariff bill. Seven years ago the public was not especially interested in tariff schedules, but now there has been so much education that a violent uproar is bound to come when the new bill is offered to the country. So as I see it, while the manufacturers of the country may be 'crazy' as congressmen have seen fit to call us, yet I am confident that congress will gladly wash its hands of the whole tariff proposition before the new tariff becomes a law and in the future trust the whole difficult problem to a commission of experts. The tariff commission is coming. There is no way of stopping the movement and I predict such a commission will be authorized before many weeks have passed."

GAMBLERS RAIDED

Police Broke Up Game in the Basement of Building
Of Councilman.

OVERCOATS WERE LEFT

New Castle, Ind., Feb. 19.—The police yesterday morning raided a full-fledged Monte Carlo in Broad street and arrested seven men for gambling. In the last year it had come to be believed that gambling was dead in this city, following numerous raids by the police and heavy fining of men caught. With daily expectancy of captures of "bling tigers" the citizens had almost forgotten about gambling houses and it seems the gamblers, taking advantage of the situation, again began plying their profession. The police raided the two-story brick building located at the corner of Broad and South Fifteenth streets, where the game was in progress and made seven arrests in the cellar, which had been fitted up for gambling purposes. The building is owned by J. S. McQuinn, president of the city council. The same place was raided a year ago and a number of arrests made and the paraphernalia destroyed. The officers were compelled to use a crowbar and break down several doors. A number fell through a trap door and the police captured their overcoats.

STOP DRINKING!

Orrine Destroys the Craving for Drink. Cure Effectual or Money Refunded.

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then —Break it.

But now it is gradually drawing on the world that pledges do not stop drunkenness. When a man takes a pledge voluntarily, he expects to keep it. Every man expects to keep his word and every broken pledge costs the drunkard many a heartache. But he cannot help it. He fights as long as he can, then succumbs to the craving. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is diseased and he must have treatment that will cure this condition.

Orrine is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the drink habit or the money will be refunded. No other treatment for the liquor habit is sold under such a liberal guarantee.

Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1 a powder, perfectly tasteless and colorless, which can be given secretly in any food or drink. Orrine No. 2 is in pill form, for those who wish to be cured of the habit, and it should be taken by every one who swears off.

No matter which form of Orrine is used the guarantee is the same. The price of Orrine is $1.00 per box, mailed in plain sealed wrapper upon receipt of price. Write for free booklet on "How to Cure Drunkenness." (mailed in plain sealed envelope.) by The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C. Orrine is sold by A. G. Luken & Co., Richmond, Ind.

SUMMER COTTAGE FOR PRESIDENT

Suitable Residence Proposed
At West Point.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Representative Landis proposes an appropriation of $250,000 to build a "summer white house" for the President and his family. Mr. Landis, in his bill introduced today, provides that "there shall be erected within the United States military reservation at Westpoint, N. Y., upon a site to be selected by the secretary of war, a suitable residence and office building which shall be available for the use of the President of the United States as an official summer residence and executive office and which shall be designated 'the country White House.' The said building shall be constructed and furnished in accordance with plans and specifications prepared under the direction of the secretary of war, and, when ready for occupancy, shall be held in the custody of the War Department."

A land agent in the great northwest had just described the incredible riches of the region. Some one protested, and he defended himself with a paradox:

"The truth is so wonderful that it takes a whopper to express it!"—Outlook.
