

DRYS WON FROM WETS LAST NIGHT

TEAM WORK WAS LACKING

RICHMOND BUNCH COULD NOT GET TOGETHER AND IN THE LAST PERIOD MARION RAINED IN GOALS—LANCASTER FAST.

Marion 8; Richmond 4. After the first period, interest as far as Richmond was concerned in the polo game at the coliseum last evening, lagged. The game started out with Houghton in the game and it appeared as though the locals would have a Marion scalp to hang to their belts but Houghton went to sleep with the rest of the Richmond quintet and Quigley and Parry for the Marions made the "necessary" for their team. It was a victory of the "drys" over the "wets."

Lancaster Was Star. Lancaster at goal for the locals played a very good game. He did not have an extraordinary number of stops but nearly everyone was hard, whether it was a drive near or far away from the cage. He saved Richmond the game in the first two periods but in the third period became less effective. However the fans gave him credit for his preventing an earlier defeat. On many occasions he was left at the cage all alone with Quigley and Tibbits in front of him ready to disturb the draperies behind.

Richmond had a little hard luck during the game making two in and out goals. However defeat should not be attributed to this but to the team itself—there being some obviously weak point or points in its make up. Jones was at center for the locals in place of Petzer and he was no improvement, probably a little worse. Oosting did not play as good a game with Jones as he did with Petzer. Houghton at second rush in place of Bulla played a better game as should be expected because of his experience but he was knocked and cheered intermittently by the fickle fans. In the last period when Jones broke his skate, Houghton went to center and Bulla to second rush, but whether this combination was effective could not be determined as there was little time for the experiment.

Houghton Was Sassy. Although but one foul was called during the contest, it was rough and "bantam" Houghton had several spats with his "dry" friends. Parry and himself tried to pick the same home on several occasions while Bulla and Martin had a wrestling match at one time during the contest. The first period started out with Houghton driving the ball through half back Martin's legs for the first marker, in 51 seconds. Five minutes and 24 seconds later Sharp scored by driving a rebound shot behind Wilson. Marion got together and ended the scoring for the first period by Tibbits putting Quigley's pass behind Lancaster in 2:53. It was a very pretty goal and the Richmond fans cheered the play.

The second period started off with Quigley making a lucky goal in 1:31. His drive struck the bar and glanced into the cage. The next point of interest about the period was Houghton, who fouled by holding a Marion stick. Then came Parry's drive through the bunch which the timer caught in 4:37. Sharp and Houghton worked together sufficiently long for the former to cage a pass from Houghton. Quigley again ended the period's scoring by driving from behind Jones. The time was 3:59. The score at this time was 4 to 3 in Marion's favor.

Marion Rubbed It In. It seemed to be Marion's desire to rub it in in the third period. The scoring was as follows: Quigley 7:54; Quigley 2:49; Houghton 1:50; Quigley 1:12 and Quigley .07. Lineup and summary: Richmond Marion Sharp..... Quigley First Rush Houghton, Bulla..... Tibbits Second Rush Jones, Houghton..... Parry Center Oosting..... Martin Half Back Lancaster..... Wilson Goal

Stops—Lancaster 28; Wilson 22. Rushes—Quigley 14; Sharp 1. Referee—Williams. Attendance—500.

Entre Nous Takes Fall in Fast Style.

The Carmans, the leading team in the City Bowling League was defeated two games in the series last evening by their nearest rivals, the Entre Nous. With the exception of the score in the first game made by the Entre Nous, the results were probably the best that have been made this year. There were several good scores made, Waldrip, Runge and Roberts making the best. Team scores, Entre Nous 712; 877 and 857. Carmans 863; 801 and 844.

Last Night's Scores.

Yale 25; Chicago 13. Yale presented a revised lineup in its game against Chicago in the Y. M. C. A. basketball league last evening but managed to win out. It was the second victory for the easterners from the midway players. The game was unusually scrappy and nearly all of the players were somewhat bruised. The first half was slow and rough. It ended with the score 8 to 4 in favor of Yale. Both teams seemed more intent on battling the ball around than in throwing for goals.

In the second half Yale came back strong and gained a commanding lead. Spangler scored repeatedly on passes from Compton, for the full length of the floor. Wiechman received a jolt on the cheek bone that put him out of the contest for a few minutes, but he pluckily resumed play. Summary: Yale, Spangler..... Taggart Forward, Gilchrist..... McConaha Forward, Wiechman..... Marlatt Center, Compton..... Ferling Guard, Farlow..... Ackerman Guard.

Goals from field—Spangler 6, Welchman 4, Taggart 3, Gilchrist, Marlatt. Goals from foul—Spangler 2, Welchman, Marlatt, 2, Ferling 2. Points awarded—Chicago, Referee Peakcock. Time-keeper—Genn. Score—Thornburg. Time of halves—20 minutes.

A Tonic or a Stimulant?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic. It does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. Is No Mean City.

Secretary Haas stated: "The Commercial club should have credit for things it did not do. It has not asked the citizens for a single donation. It has not thrown its citizens into a panic by loading upon them large obligations for defunct factories. As a result of this course, its own factories have prospered, and greatly expanded; its business interests increased; confidence was unshaken in local financial institutions, and the town enjoyed an enviable reputation for the strength of its institutions, the conservatism of its citizens, and the stability of its manufacturing plants. The city's products are known in all the markets of the world as of the first quality. It produces no second grade articles. The town has never lost its head, but patiently and deliberately plodded along, with a healthy conservatism manifest in all its enterprises, until it has gained a reputation for itself second to none of its size in the middle west. And every man and woman is proud that they are of its citizens."

KNOUFF PRAISED QUAKER SCHOOL

Spoke Yesterday at Earlham Chapel and Gives Students a Jolly.

SAYS THEY BEHAVE FINE

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL REMARKS THE FACT THAT THE COLLEGE ATHLETIC TEAMS ARE NEVER ROWDY ONES.

Principal C. W. Knouff, of the High School, spoke to the Earlham student body yesterday in chapel. He talked very interestingly on "My Impressions of Earlham as a Student of Wabash college." He said the athletic teams of Wabash never came home from a trip to Richmond but they told of most courteous treatment at the hands of the Quakers. This was not always the case with athletic trips, he continued, mentioning some football trips which he had taken down the Monon railroad as a rooster with the Wabash football team.

Compliments Earlham. As chairman of the state high school committee, which has under its care the relation of high school athletics to the colleges, Earlham was the one college, said Mr. Knouff, which has not had complaints lodged against its tactics, in inducing athletes, who were not eligible, to compete in high school athletics, to enter college. This loyalty of the alumni whom he had met over the state and the absence of rowdiness, at least the absence of newspaper reports of such occurrences, were also spoken of by the Richmond principal.

BRING HALF A MAN

Bible Class Members Have Pledged to Do This Remarkable Feat.

WHAT ARE REQUIREMENTS?

Whether the fifty members of the short term Bible class of the Y. M. C. A. will live up to their promise to bring half a man to the meeting this evening remains to be demonstrated. At the meeting last Tuesday evening, the members pledged to bring half a man to the next meeting. It was not specified in their pledges whether a boy 10½ years of age constitutes a half of a man or whether it is necessary for two of the members to club together and by hook or crook bring one man who is of age. Prof. Russell will lecture on the life of Paul.

It is possible, on the other hand, to look well dressed in last season's clothes if they are not too extreme in style and if they are well enough made of good material, and if you have taken good care of them.

When you buy clothes, buy the latest styles, of course—but them good enough to last, and take care of them with brush and hangers. Then you will find the economy of such clothes as these.
