

THE HOOSIER STORE

THE EXTERMINATION OF THE A. F. MARTIN STOCK

which began last Saturday morning and which must be completed in 10 days (for we must have the room) will be beyond all doubt the biggest sacrifice of good, clean Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoes that will be offered this season. We have started to convert this stock into cash and cash it must be, for we are over loaded, if we don't.

ARE YOU GETTING YOUR SHARE?

We feel a sort of a responsibility to our customers to keep them posted about what's going on here. We urge you to buy and buy now, for we have something good, something we worked hard to get, something that would be to your advantage as well as ours, and we want you to have your share, for the values going in this Martin Stock Sale are really unusual. We must say it is a matter of real satisfaction to us to be able to put them up to our many friends, and while we are turning this stock and getting the much needed room, we're also giving you real value for your money.

Come Saturday, or sooner, if possible. Don't delay, but come and buy, it will pay you.

NEW WESTVILLE, O.

New Westville, O., March 18.—W. A. Bond, a lawyer of Richmond, gave us recently, by invitation of our young people, an able and interesting address on "What Are Our Liquor Laws, and How Are They Enforced." He had an appreciative and most attentive audience, and we shall all be glad to hear from him again at any time that he may be announced as a speaker.

Mr. Wm. Myers is still at Reid Memorial hospital. His friends here sent him some flowers recently as a token of their thought for and interest in him during his severe illness.

Our pastor and his wife visited Spiceland recently and attended the Friends Quarterly meeting there. They were delighted with the warm-hearted hospitality extended to them, and interested in the many proofs of kindly thought and Christia love manifest during the course of the business transactions of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Shinkle and family have bought a farm half a mile north of here. We are very pleased to have them come amongst us.

Our Christian Endeavorers will soon have their new reading room ready for occupancy. Thanks to many friends it will be quite comfortably furnished and we hope to make it a center of usefulness for the whole neighborhood.

A Religious Author's Statement

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." A. G. Luken & Co.
