Business.SALOONS REFUSE TO PAYConnersville, Ind., April 7.—Strange, isn't it, but the water wagon will not run at Connersville this summer, because the county went dry. It might be expected that a dry town would mean an extra big water wagon, but not so at Connersville. A number of saloons were on the route of the street sprinkler and as some of them will be out of business when the dust period arrives and other owners will want to save their money, the operator of the wagon has announced it is hardly probable his wagon will be doing business. He says if all the saloons fail to pay him, there will not be enough money in the business."TREMONT"—while possessing

MUST BE STOPPED*Chief Staubach States That Motorists Are Getting Careless.*GIVES TIMELY WARNING.*STATES THAT BEGINNING TO-MORROW, ALL DRIVERS SEEN SPEEDING THEIR MACHINES WILL BE ARRESTED.Automobilists would do well to take warning. Supt. Staubach has notified the members of the police force that drivers of autos are to be made to comply with the speed limitations.
The edict is to become effective tomorrow, the chief preferring to give warning by means of the newspapers.
Complaint has been made to the department and the chief has seen fit to issue his instructions."There is getting to be so many of those things about town, that something must be done," remarked the chief. "They dodge about from one side of the street to the other, in and out behind street cars, so that it is impossible for a person trying to cross the street to know where to step. And then when they get on the side streets, they have been in the habit of cutting loose, knowing they are not likely to meet a policeman.
All of this must stop and the laws are to be obeyed."Carelessness Charged.It has been charged that drivers of machines have been very careless.
The charge is made that they usurp the right of way requiring bicyclists and private conveyances to make room for them. Sunday the operator of a machine was seen to follow a little boy on a bicycle along Main street. The lad would turn out to avoid the heavy car and immediately the car swerved to follow him. The boy crossed into the street car tracks and the machine followed. The boy tried to avoid an accident and the automobilist appeared to seek one. Finally the boy was forced off the street, riding to South A street in order to escape the automobile.The autoists claim there is not nearly as much danger as there appears from a spectator's viewpoint. They say their machines are kept under control and they can stop them within a very few feet, and the chances of danger are much less than they seem.Shield Sale, 3 days. Thurs-the illness of his wife, could not be present. He is an old soldier and is one of the most entertaining and best versed speakers in the state on subjects concerning the civil war.One of the members of the executive committee stated today that the decoration of the graves would take place in the morning, as usual. There are a large number of graves of old soldiers in all of the cemeteries near the city.

The afternoon exercises at the Colise-way, But Escapes Without Injuries.*AFTER FALL CHASES TEAMGood fortune was with Walter Test yesterday afternoon and after a fall from a dirt wagon in a runaway accident on the Main street bridge, he escaped uninjured. Test was driving east, when an automobile going in the same direction whizzed by. Test's team took fright and began to run.

The wagon was empty and the horses had no difficulty in their downhill flight. Test reached for the brake handle, and a lunge of the wagon threw him to the pavement.He struck on his shoulders and rolled over in true football style free from the wheels. He arose at once and began to run after the team, which continued across the bridge, the wagon barely missing two other vehicles as it passed. Just under the C. C. & L. bridge, one of the horses slipped and fell. The wagon ran up onto it and the other horse stopped. The horse
bruised, but it is not believed to be seriously injured. It was able to get to its feet, when the wagon was pulled away and did not appear much the worse for the accident.TO ATTEND CHURCH*Whitewater Lodge, I. O. O. F.

classes will compete for the Dan Mc-these examinations. The cup is not and Its Results.A colored woman was being examined at a conference at Tuskegee. "Do the people in your community own hogs?" came the query from Mr.

Booker Washington."I think they's fixing to own 'em, sah."

"But do they own them?"

"A heap of times you can't jest tell, sah. But they's holding 'em down."

"Do you own your home?"

"Yes, sah, I do," proudly. "And I can tell you jest how I got it. I swapped a puppy dog for it."

"Tell us about it."

"Well, it was this way. When I started I didn't have anything at all but jest a little yaller puppy dog.""I took the dog over to my brother-in-law's. He had eight little bits of pigs, oh, jest so little, and I swapped the puppy with him for one of the pigs. It was such a little pig that it didn't look like it would live, but I nursed it good, and I prayed to the Lord to make that little pig come forward to do me good, and the pig lived and grew.""The first year I turned her out, and when she came back in the fall she brought me seven little pigs with her.
That was my start. I've never had to buy any meat since. This winter I've killed three hogs, and I've got another at home now ready to kill. I've got forty acres of land now, all paid for, and a house, and it all come from that one little puppy.""Do you hear that," exclaimed Mr.
Washington, "you men? Some of you'd better go back home and swap your dogs for pigs!"—Philadelphia
