

BALL PROMOTERS RAISE MORTGAGE

The Re-organized Richmond Amusement Company Regains the Park.

FAREWELL LEAGUE GAMES

MEANS RETURN OF THE DAYS OF THRILLING BATTLE ROYALS WITH THE PINHOOK AND PODUNK OUTFITS.

With the liquidation of the debt on Athletic park, today, the Richmond Amusement company paved the way for the organization of a base ball team that will represent Richmond during the summer. The company was able to raise sufficient money to pay the entire claim against it, but it secured sufficient surety to prevent the sale of the property on South Twenty-third street.

A meeting of the directors will be held this evening at 7 o'clock at George Brehm's store, 519 Main street, at which time a manager will be elected and plans for the season discussed and outlined. If possible a team will be secured for a game at Athletic park Sunday, April 25.

Amateurs Get Jobs.

It is the plan of the company to give available local talent, including a number of youngsters who made good in semi-professional company last year, an opportunity here. As their strength or weakness becomes evident they will be retained or replaced by stronger players.

It is expected that the success of the company in lifting the debt on the property, will be followed by an agreement or consolidation with the South Side Athletic club which organized Sunday, and which was ready to put a team in the field.

Back to Bush League.

Now that the stockholders of the reorganized Richmond Amusement company have secured the park by lifting the mortgage, held by several local men who were anxious to place Richmond in a fast base ball league, the fans will be delighted to know that there will be a return of the good old days, when battles royal were fought with the Williamsburg Speeders, the Pinhook Demons and the Podunk Ramblers.

that the union men were watching carefully that no non-union brick layers are employed. The union has reason to believe that one of the contractors will attempt to employ such labor, as he has done so in other cities. If such happens, union men will take action.
