CUBS OUTPLAYED.
Chicago, April 17.—Chance and his champion Cubs fell again today before Brenahan's rejuvenated tailenders. This time the score was 4 to 1, the Cubs being lucky to get one, and luckier that St. Louis did not get a corner on all the runs in the world. The Champs simply were pitched to death by a fast youngster named Rhodes. Score:

R. H. E.
Chicago . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 3 1
St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 3 1 0 4 7 2

TIGERS ARE UNSTOPPED.
Detroit, April 17.—Cleveland was unable to stop the American league champions' winning streak here today. The Tigers counting their fourth straight victory over the Naps by a score of 6 to 5 in an exciting, hard fought game. Score:

R. H. E.
Detroit . . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 4 6 10 5
Cleveland 0 0 1 3 0 0 0 0 1 5 8 2
Willett and Schmidt; Rhoades, Jones and Clark. Umpires—Kerlin and O'Loughlin.

SOX TAKE THEIR FIRST.
St. Louis, April 17.—A batting rally in the tenth round led by Tannehill, clinched the first game the Sox have won this season on any big league diamond. The count was 3 to 1 when Chicago let up on Waddell. Smith pitched a gallant combat, holding the enemy to four hits, two of which in the tenth knocked over the line bucket. Score:

R. H. E.
St. L. . . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 4 1
Chicago 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 3 10 0

BASEBALL SCORES ON Y. M. C. A. BOARD

Association Recognizes Popularity of Game.

In line with its policy to stimulate interest in all kinds of sport, the Y. M. C. A. has made arrangements to secure the returns from the National and American league games during the baseball season. While the association tries to promote amateur athletics primarily the advantage of presenting to the young men, who frequent the place, with the returns from the professional games is appreciated. Further competition is offered places of poorer environment for the boys and young men, also, and this is an item of important consideration.

CONTINUE WAGE SCALE.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 17.—By a vote of 2,125 to 350 the members of district No. 5 of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees have directed the officers of the Pittsburg Street Railway System to continue the present wage scale which expires Monday.

AMBLAZE: Mother says "they can't say anything too good about Gold Medal Young." Chicago.

SLAGLE IS SOLD.

Chicago, April 17.—James Slagle, who has been a member of the Chicago Cubs for the past eight seasons, was today sold to the Boston National League Club. When Slagle joined Chicago eight years ago he came from the same club that bought him today.

NO FARMER'S WIFE

To Cut Off Tails, So Rats Scampered Through Crowd Of Jersey Women.

CROWD WAS DEMORALIZED

New York, April 17.—While hundreds of people, including many young women, crowded Newark avenue, Jersey City, during the commutators' rush hour there, the ferries today, a score of scurrying rats scampered around the corner from Cooper Place. The rats plunged into the crowd. A panic followed.

Several women in the crowd fell fainting to the sidewalk. Others started on the run for the ferries and didn't stop until they were safely on the boats. Many men were badly frightened, but others chased the animals and killed a number.

SPRING TRAINING FOR PAT. M'Coy

Makes Jump Landing Behind City Jail Bars.

Patrick McCoy budged with the spring time yesterday. Pat is getting in spring training and has managed to make three jumps into the arms of the law within the last few weeks. He has been stimulated each time by John Barleycorn, who has proved himself an efficient starter on the police court course. Unless someone comes to his assistance tomorrow, his next coming out party is not likely to occur for about twenty days.

WIN BIG PRIZE.

Vincennes, France, April 17.—The hurdle race for the Prix Porte today, 2,500 francs, 3,100 metres, was won by David Torpila, Norway up. De Larsson's Mon Pays, was second. Flash-off's Citra was third. Ten horses ran.

Providence, R. I., April 17.—George E. Diapen, the old time gambler, died in Pawtucket today at the age of 75. He ran a gambling house on Park street, Providence, for thirty years after the close of the Civil War.
