Pittsburg, Pa., April 24.—Pitcher Fromme was the stumbling block to the Pirates today. He held them to two hits, a triple by Wilson in the sixth and Abstein's single in the eighth. Besides pitching a fine game, he pasted a triple over Clark's head, one of the longest hits seen on the local grounds for years. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburgh 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 2 3 Cincinnati 0 1 0 0 0 0 2—4 8 0 Maddox and Gibson; Fromme and McLean. Umpires—Klem and Kane.

CUBS GET REVENGE.

St. Louis, April 24.—Chicago took full measure of vengeance upon those cocky Cardinals this afternoon and, before a huge congregation of their friends, trimmed them 5 to 1. Brown pitched, and although not in top form, the terror of his name was enough and the Cardinals surrendered at discretion. Meantime the Cubs were hitting Bebe merrily and the Cardinals defenses were crumbling until their error column looked like Fort Arthur after the bombardment. Score: R. H. E. St. Louis 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—1 7 5 Chicago 0 1 0 0 3 0 0 2—5 9 0 Bebe and Brennan; Brown and Moran. Umpires—Emslie and O'Day.

DODGERS USE BRUSH.

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 24.—Johnny McGraw's Giants from Manhattan and the trolley dodgers came together this afternoon in the final game of the present series, and the dodgers put it over 2 to 0. Score: R. H. E. Brooklyn 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 x—2 5 3 New York 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 7 1 Rucker and Bergen; Raymond, Durham and Schlei. Umpires—Rigler and Truby.

BOSTON SHUT OUT.

Philadelphia, April 24.—The Phillies shut out Boston in the final game of the present series at the National league grounds in this city this afternoon by the score of 4 to 0, before 9,733 people. The whole story was quickly told on the excellent pitching, fielding and batting of Foxen, of the local team and the pounding of Lindeman, the first of the Boston pitchers in the first two innings. For six long innings Foxen held the visitors down to three hits. Score: R. H. E. Phila. 2 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 x—4 6 1 Boston 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 5 0 Foxen, Dornier and Doolin; Lindeman, McCarthy and Bowerman. Umpires—Johnstone and Cusack.

American League

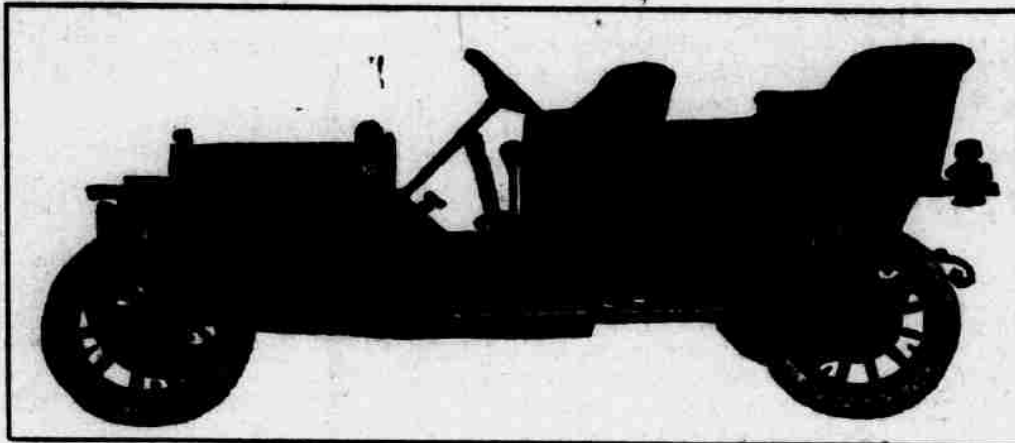

Boston, Mass., April 24.—Kid Baker, the youngster who Connie Mack says is his "find" won the game for the Athletics today by sending a ball over the right field fence in the first inning, with the bases full. This inning was the only time the Athletics had a chance, as Arellanes could not be touched, only three hits being recorded against him. The Red Sox could not hit Plank at opportune times, this causing their defeat. The score: R. H. E. Boston 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 9 1 Phila. 4 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—4 3 1 Arellanes and Spencer; Plank and Thomas. Umpires—Egan and Connolly.

ROUGH ON PITCHERS.

New York April 24.—Everybody was running over with old fashioned enthusiasm when the Highlanders and Washingtons went to the bat this afternoon and the Highlanders won by a score of 17 to 0, after the fiercest kind of slugging. Two Washington pitchers, Johnson and Keeley were batted out of the box. The score: R. H. E. New Y. 4 0 5 0 1 0 7 0 x—17 15 1 Washington 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 5 4 Lake and Kleinow; Johnson, Keeley, Blankenship and Street. Umpires—Evans and Hurst.

The damage to bridges by earthquakes is due generally to the banks of valleys being drawn together, according to Mr. W. H. Hobbs, whose conclusions are based on a study of earthquakes in the United States, India and Japan, extending back to 1886. Moreover, it seems to be the general rule that a fissure or a series of parallel fissures opens during an earthquake along the banks of rivers parallel to their courses.
