PATROL WAGON IS TO HAVE A COVER

Commissioners Decide on a Needed Improvement.

The city patrol wagon is to be covered. An order that this be done was issued by the board of police commissioners last evening. The uncovered patrol wagon has been a thing of shame tolerated by the city for years. It has been a common sight to see fifty men and boys chasing down the street in pursuit of the wagon in which was seated a policeman and some drunken sot or kicking, screaming woman. Previous boards were all heedless to the demands of decency that the wagon be fitted with a top, so that the occupants would be concealed from public gaze.

The swiftest of the smaller birds is the Virginia rail, which has accomplished measured flights of 7,000 yards in a minute.

DEPAUW LIST OF ENTRIES BIG ONE

Greencastle Institution Expects to Make Good Showing in Meet.

CONTEST THIS AFTERNOON

DEPAUW ROOTERS FLOCKED IN TO THE CITY LAST EVENING AND THEY ARE CONFIDENT TEAM WILL BE WINNER.

Athletes of two of Indiana's secondary colleges are contesting for honors on Reid Field this afternoon. The dual meet is between the thinly clad runners, jumpers and weight men of DePauw University and Earlham college. It is the first contest of the kind held by the two colleges for several years. There is rivalry of an intense nature. Conditions are such that splendid results are anticipated. The Quaker athletes are in fine fettle and the men from Greencastle have been in hard training for so long they are expecting to win today.

Enthusiasm High.
Enthusiasm is at its top notch. There is not as large a gathering of spectators from the city as such affairs deserve, but the De Pauw boys brought with them a delegation and the Earlhamites have rounded up their friends from the state and the crowd is fairly large. Coeds are bedecked with ribbons and banners of their favorites. Piercing screams are heard as the runners dash across the mark. There is joy for the winner and sympathy for the defeated.

The Earlham entry list was published yesterday. The boys from De Pauw and the various contests are:

Color Blindness.
Forty men and four women in a thousand are either wholly unable to perceive certain colors or can recognize them only with difficulty. All attempts to overcome color blindness by educating the color sense have failed. There are three theories of color vision, all of which are based on the workings of the sensitive fibrils of the inner eye.

ALOYSIUS KUTTER HAS GOOD FIGHT

Reached into Sack of Tobacco, Rat Jumped Out.

CASE WAS HEARD TODAY

Fright, such as he has not experienced since a bull dog attacked itself to the seat of his trousers several months ago, almost overcame Aloysius Kutter, an employee at the Engelbert cigar store this morning. He reached into a sack of tobacco after a bundle of Sumatra wrappers. He pulled his hand forth and in it there was a large rat wriggling and squirming for freedom. It kicked, scratched and attempted to bite, so that Kutter was quick to drop it. He was almost incapacitated for work the rest of the day.

DRUNK PINCHED: HE THROWS A FIT

Proceedings in Police Court Interrupted.

J. J. Dillon, who was addicted to the use of the word "south," was arrested this afternoon for public intoxication and in police court an hour later, found guilty and fined $1 and costs. He claimed to have a brother living south of the city; that he himself was a resident of South Bend and that he came to Richmond via South Kokomo and South Illinois. During the time he was in police court he had an attack of delirium tremens.

John McConnell, colored, testified that his wife liked to gad around too much when they were married and after he had objected seriously she deserted him for keeps. He was granted a divorce on the ground of abandonment. He claimed his wife would be away from home at meal time and that angered him, so words followed.

FIND MRS. BOYLE TO BE GUILTY OF THE CHARGE MADE

In evidence had been presented against the woman and pointed out that the commonwealth as yet had produced no evidence to contradict the woman's statement that she had expected to get money from her father. "Why," he exclaimed, "They might as well have left it to the mob which tried to attack Mrs. Boyle Thursday afternoon, as to ask the jury to guess at their viewpoint and find accordingly. The Commonwealth wants you, as members of this jury to guess at the guilt of Mrs. Boyle. No evidence has been produced to connect her with any crime in this state and this court has no jurisdiction against her."

Woman is Arraigned.
The commonwealth Attorney Gordon pointed out the heinous character of the offense and said that James Boyle was smart enough to concoct the plot, but that it was planned by the defendant.

"You have her statements," he said, "to the mother of Jas. Boyle in Sharon. You also have her statement that she made to the police in Cleveland, that she was the
