What Is Doing in Social, Club and Art Circles.

Miss Elizabeth R. Thomas

PHONE 1121

The last number of the artist recital series will be given at the Gennett theater May eighteenth, by Bruno Steindel, the first cellist of the Theodore Thomas orchestra of Chicago, assisted by Ferdinand Steindel, the pianist of the Steindel Trio. This will without doubt be the most interesting recital of the artist series, although each recital of the series has given excellent satisfaction. The program for the Steindel recital follows:

Beethoven—Sonata, Opus 69.
Allegro, Scherzo, Adagio, Allegro
Bruno Steindel, Ferdinand Steindel
(a) Bach—(1) Aria, (2) Courante.
(b) Bocherini—Rondo.

Bruno Steindel
(a) Pergolesi—Siciliano
(b) Schubert—Moment Musical
(c) Glazounov—Serenade Espanol
Bruno Steindel

Liszt—Rigoletto Phantasia
Ferdinand Steindel
Fopner—(1) Harlequin, (2) Gavotte,
(3) Spanish Dance.

Bruno Steindel
Sapellnikoff—Elfen Dance
Ferdinand Steindel

Mr. Justin Leroy Harris who has managed the artist recital series asserts that Ferdinand Steindel will create as much of a sensation among Richmond musicians as did Jeannette Durno at the opening recital of the series. At the age of seven Ferdinand had toured Europe and been given medals and honor by the kings and queens of the old world. The greatest critics agree that in a few years he will be one of the greatest pianists.

Miss Jessie Mann will go to Cincinnati Wednesday to attend a concert to be given in the evening. This affair is being looked forward to with anticipation by musicians of that place.

Mr. W. H. Kelsker and son Master Earl Kelsker have returned from an extended visit with friends and relatives in St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Ethel Patton will leave next week for the west for a stay. The latter part of June, her marriage to Mr. Harry Doan will take place at the home of her grandfather, Mr. Henry Loring, 63 South Fifteenth street.

Mr. Thomas Graham and Miss Marian Graham of Madison, Ind., who have been guests of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas J. Graham have returned home. Mrs. Graham and daughter have been spending the winter in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Andrew have returned to their home in Haughville, after having visited in this city.

Miss Louise Millikan of New Castle was a recent guest in this city.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Marie Louise Leckner of Indianapolis, to Dr. Herman G. Morgan, of Brooklyn, Ind. She is the daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Leckner, who at one time had a large number of piano students here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hutton of Logansport, Ind., were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Rhodes of South Ninth street. At a six o'clock dinner given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes for their house-guests, Miss Sabina Hutton of Earlham College, was among the guests.

The wedding of Mr. George Herbst and Miss Mary Bebelman took place Saturday evening. The Rev. R. J. Wade performed the ceremony at the First Methodist parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Seamore were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Herbst will reside at 324 North Fifteenth street.

Wednesday evening, May twelfth, Miss Margaret and Miss Nellie Conroy will entertain with an informal whist company at their home on South Seventh street.

The spring luncheon, supper or wedding breakfast will afford the most pleasing effect if it suggests the golden sunshine and the fresh green of out of doors. Daffodils and smilax make a delightful combination, the stiffness of the flowers being counterbalanced by the pliability of the vine. Daffodils look best treated somewhat simply in vases or bowls of dull green or yellow pottery. A good looking oval centerpiece can be had by masking an oval meat steamer with green paper over which trail ferns or smilax. Fill it with wet sand and stick daffodils of different lengths close enough to make a graceful yet comparatively solid effect.

The luncheon here described was given last year at about this time. The table was all snowy white in china and linen. From the center of the chandelier was suspended a child's parasol inverted. The handle was of white enamel and the parasol was covered with white lace. From each spoke hung narrow white ribbon in different lengths. To the bottom of each ribbon was fastened a lily with the head down to resemble a swaying bride bell.

Beneath the improvised floral canopy was a centerpiece made from an old garden hat painted white and formed into a basket. The handle was of wire wound with white tulle with a great bow of tulle on top. Concealed in the basket was a dish of water and in it were plunged white spring flowers in variety—hyacinths, tulips, narcissi, sprays, lilacs and violets.

Tall colonial candlesticks in glass shades made of crepe paper to represent a lily cup. At each side of the centerpiece were tall crystal baskets filled with white grapes and at every plate were squat glass pitchers, bought for 10 cents apiece, filled with short-stemmed white lilacs.

CLUB NOTES

Mrs. K. D. Coffield will entertain the members of the East End aid society of the First Christian church Tuesday afternoon at her home, 112 North Fifteenth street. Members are urged to become prepared for work.

The West-side aid society of the First Christian church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. A. Ellis at her home, 313 Richmond avenue.

An open meeting of the Music Study club will be held Tuesday evening, May twenty-fifth in the Starr Piano parlors. This will be the last meeting for the season.

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Beck will entertain the members of the Lutheran League of Trinity Lutheran church Thursday evening at their home, on South Seventh street.

The ladies' aid society of the First Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the church.

A feature of the opening session of the general Lutheran Synod will be the large chorus under the direction of Mr. Lee Nusbbaum.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of Grace church will meet Tuesday evening, May eleventh at the home of Mrs. E. S. Likins, 31 South Eleventh street. Mrs. T. A. Mott will be the leader. The paper for the evening will be read by Mrs. A. G. Comp-ton.

The members of a whist club will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. O. E. Allison at her home, 211 North Fifteenth street. She will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Spangler.

Mrs. T. H. Kuhn will be hostess for a meeting of the young ladies mission circle of the First Christian church, this evening at her home, 30 South Thirteenth street.

The Indianapolis Browning society gave its annual banquet and entertainment Friday evening in All Souls' church in celebration of Robert Browning's birthday anniversary. Miss Charity Dye presided at the meeting and the program consisted of the singing of a group of songs by Fritz Krull which he had set to music. Miss Mary Nicholson gave a number of interesting reminiscences of the Browning society, and Rev. Frank S. C. Wicks gave a talk on "Browning and Darwin." Prof. Jenkins of the State University gave an article on "Browning's Relation to Science." During the evening the annual election of officers took place, which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Charles F. Doney; vice president, the Rev. Frank S. C. Wicks; secretary and treasurer, Miss Anna J. Marshall.—Indianapolis Star.

The Jenny Wren club will not meet again until next season.

A meeting of the Bible Study class of St. Paul's Lutheran church will be held Thursday evening at the church. The monthly business meeting of the teachers' association will also be held at this time.

JAP CELEBRATION
WILL BE FAILURE

Vancouver Will Not Gush Over Little Strangers.

Vancouver, B. C., May 10.—The Vancouver's celebration of the visit of the Japanese training ships Aso and Soya, is likely to be a failure, which was shown in the marked opposition to the celebration arrangements in certain official circles.

DAMAGE BY TORNADO.
Bombay, May 10.—A tornado accompanied by high winds and excessive rains has done much damage and cost many lives. It is reported from Calicut on the Malabar coast that fifty native vessels have been sunk.

COUNCIL TO HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

Several Important Matters Will Come Up for Its Consideration.

NEW MILK ORDINANCE READ

COUNCILMEN WILL ALSO PROBABLY TAKE SOME ACTION REGARDING PURCHASE OF WEST SIDE HOSE HOUSE SITE.

At the meeting of the city council this evening, several matters delayed for several weeks will be given attention. The milk ordinance which has been before council since January and delayed from time to time, has at last been completed and ready for this body's approval. The inventory of the city light plant will also be read at this evening's meeting.

Hose House Question.

The matter of purchasing ground for a West Side hose house is still another question which the city fathers will act upon. It is very probable that two lots will be purchased at the option price, $525, even though council decides not to erect a hose house on the site. The lots are located at Lincoln and West Fifth streets, and are regarded as a good investment at the figure quoted, but not as the most desirable location for a hose house. Several councilmen believe that the hose house for the West Side should be located on West Second street.

BARBERS IN STRIFE

Some of the Union Men Oppose Proposed Raise in Price.

FEAR WOULD LOSE CUSTOM

Not without opposition in their own ranks will the price of shaves from 10 cents to 15 cents, be raised by the local barbers union, according to a statement by one of the union men today. The other matter—that of closing at 6 o'clock on Monday and Friday evenings—which will come up in connection with the raise in price, at the meeting of the union June 7—is not meeting with the approval of some of the bosses and its passage may be fought.

Some of the union men claim that, while they will get more for each shave, yet the weekly profits are likely to be smaller, because of a smaller trade. This argument is being made especially by the shops which depend on trade from employees in the shops. The uptown shops are fighting for the higher prices. Men in these shops contend that such prices are being charged in other cities and why not in Richmond.

Taking all her possessions into consideration, there are six colored persons to every white in the British empire.

TAFT WILL SPANK BAD PORTO RICO

Sends Message to Congress Advising Amendment to Home Rule Act.

NO APPROPRIATIONS MADE

ISLAND HOUSE OF DELEGATES ADJOURNS WITHOUT PROVIDING FOR FINANCES, SO THE PRESIDENT ACTS.

Washington, May 10.—The president sent a special message to congress today recommending an amendment of the Foraker act, which gave Porto Rico absolute power to manage her home affairs. The message was occasioned by the Porto Rico general assembly failing to pass an appropriations bill before the recent adjournment of that body, thus leaving the island without support financially.

Where will he get it?

Dr. Arthur Jones of Whitewater, has served notice on Sheriff Meredith to return to him at his drug store in Whitewater, the liquors and all other personal property taken from there by the city police last August. But some of the liquor is missing and how can the sheriff restore it? If he can't, can he be held responsible on his bond?

These questions are a few that confront the sheriff and place him in a rather embarrassing predicament.

After the case against Jones, charging him with violating the liquor laws, was filed in the circuit court, all the confiscated goods consisting of kegs of wine, jars of whiskey, jugs of whiskey, bottles of beer, empty bottles and empty flasks were placed in the custody of the sheriff. He placed them in a store room. Someone, whom the sheriff says he does not know, had a key to the room and a part of the whiskey was taken. Since then the lock on the door has been changed, but the whiskey is gone. And Dr. Jones wants it back.

Wants It Replaced.

Jones has informed the sheriff he will ask that all the beer in the consignment which was spoiled be replaced or paid for. The beer, the doctor has directed, is to be taken back to the Minck brewery and the other material taken to Whitewater. The sheriff is stuck fast. He cannot

DOES NOT HAVE SYMPATHY WITH MARION COUNTY SUIT OVER ORPHANS.

DIFFICULT TO FIND HOMES

When asked today relative to the proceedings instituted in the Marion circuit court against the county commissioners to prevent them allowing funds for the care of children at orphan asylums for periods longer than thirty days, Judge Fox said he is not in sympathy with the suit. He said attempts are made to find homes for children and it is a much more difficult proposition than many persons believe.

Judge Fox has sent a large number of children to White's institute, one of the asylums which is complained against. He believes children are well cared for there. The county pays 25 cents per day for the maintenance of every child and some of them remain there for several years. The home has agents trying to find homes for the children, but only a few of the Wayne county charges ever were provided for in this way.

lunge forward and knows not which way to turn. If he hires a dray and hauls the stuff to Whitewater, who will pay for it? The goods were dumped into his care by the city police. Meredith says they ought to take it back. But the sheriff has hold of something he can not drop and will seek legal advice. He wants to know if he will be expected to pay for the missing whiskey. Dr. Jones says yes. The Whitewater physician was tried under the "blind tiger" section of the statute. After two disbursements by juries, the state has dismissed the case and the court has annulled the order of the
