MINISTERS MAY HOLD MEETINGS

Open Air Sessions Planned for The Summer.

It is probable that the Ministerial association will arrange to hold open air meetings on Sunday afternoon in the different parks of the city same as they did last summer. The matter was discussed but no final action taken at this morning's session of the association in the Y. M. C. A. chapel.

Owing to the small attendance nothing of importance was taken up. Rev. E. G. Howard pastor of the First English Lutheran church read a paper the subject of which was "The Pastor and the Sunday School."

COUNCILMEN WERE MUCH IMPRESSED

Return From Heating Plant Franchise Junket.

Claiming to have been impressed favorably by what they saw, the members of the committee of council appointed to inspect hot water heating systems in other cities, have returned home. It is proposed to install a system in this city. The committee visited Terre Haute, Lebanon, and Frankfort as the guests of the promoters of the local project. At Lebanon the company heats the city building free and pays 2 per cent of its gross earnings to the city.

BOARD OF REVIEW MEMBERS CHOSEN

A. W. Bradbury and John Bayer Are Appointed.

Albert W. Bradbury of Cambridge City and John C. Bayer of this city, were named as members of the board of review by Judge H. C. Fox today. These men will act in conjunction with the county assessor, auditor and treasurer. It will be but a short time until the board takes up its annual work.

Sound Absorbers.

Objects and materials in an auditorium absorb sound in a striking degree. The standard of perfect absorption taken is an open window, through which sound passes and does not return. A large audience absorbs 96 per cent of the sound; a Persian rug, 29 per cent of the incident sound; upholstered furniture or oil paintings, 23 per cent; curtains, 23 per cent; linoleum on the floor, 12 per cent; plate flooring, 6 per cent; glass, 3 1/2 per cent; brickwork or plaster, 2 1/2 per cent. This explains why it is necessary to speak louder to a large than to a small audience; also why a hall with unpleasant echoes when empty, may become easy to speak in when filled.

"And is this man to come into court with unblushing footsteps, with the cloak of hypocrisy in his mouth, and to draw fifteen bullocks out of my client's pocket with impunity?" asked a barrister.

There was no reply.—London Telegraph.

HEAVY DAMAGES WERE DEMANDED

Chicago Woman Says That Pastor Slandered Her.

Chicago, May 10.—Mrs. Mary A. Lavender today, through her attorney, filed suit against the Rev. E. B. Crawford, pastor of the Woodlawn Park Methodist church, claiming fifty thousand dollars damages. She charges slander because she alleges he connected her name with that of the Rev. John D. Leek, in a recent church scandal.

LEPROSY.

After One Ravage the Disease May Lie Dormant For Years.

The leper in the settlement at Molokai is far better off than the leper who lies in hiding outside. Such a leper is a lonely creature, living in constant fear of discovery and slowly and surely rotting away. The action of leprosy is not steady. It lays hold of its victim, commits a ravage and then lies dormant for an indeterminate period. It may not commit another ravage for five years or ten years or forty years, and the patient may enjoy uninterrupted good health. Rarely, however, do these first ravages cease of themselves. The skilled surgeon is required, and the skilled surgeon cannot be called in for the leper who is in hiding. For instance, the first ravage may take the form of a perforating ulcer in the sole of the foot. When the bone is reached necrosis sets in. If the leper is in hiding he cannot be operated upon, the necrosis will continue to eat its way up the bone of the leg, and in a brief and horrible time that leper will die of gangrene or some other terrible complication. On the other hand, if that same leper is in Molokai the surgeon will operate upon the foot, remove the ulcer, cleanse the bone and put a complete stop to that particular ravage of the disease. A month after the operation the leper will be out riding on horseback, running foot races swimming in the breakers or climbing the giddy slides of the valleys for mountain apples. And, as has been stated before, the disease, lying dormant, may not again attack him for five, ten or forty years.—Jack London in Contemporary Review.

A Composer's Blunder.

Some years ago the following apologetic explanation for a composer's blunder appeared in a leading weekly literary journal published in London: "In our last number, as we discovered unfortunately too late for correction, we announced that Mr. John Stuart Mill's inaugural address lately delivered before the University of St. Andrews had since been republished by him in the form of a five shilling elephant." Even today the breakers of Mr. Mill's powers among our readers will probably have received this announcement with some incredulity. The fact is that by an error of the press the word "elephant" was substituted for "pamphlet," and the mistake, although
