

Why Syrup Pepsin is Free

For more years probably than the life of the person reading this, Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., has practiced medicine, and the one thing that forced itself on his mind was the urgent need of the human body for something that would scientifically regulate the digestive organs—the stomach, liver and bowels. Years of study developed Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, now recognized by the national safeguard of health in the United States of America. For many years it has been gaining friends, and it is today, as it always has been, the best laxative tonic for women, children and old folks, for these especially need a gentle, safe laxative tonic that is sure in results and does not gripe.

It is because the doctor has watched its good work for all these years and believes in the merit of his remedy that he offers a free trial bottle at his own expense to anyone who writes him. You need simply send your name and address. On the strength of what these free trial bottles have done—and thousands have been given away—Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is today more widely used than any other American remedy for indigestion, liver trouble, flatulency, biliousness, indigestion, sour stomach, dyspepsia, heartburn and similar disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. It can be obtained of any druggist at 50 cents and in a bottle, and a bottle will do you a hundred times the amount of good it costs you.

People like Mrs. M. L. Graves, 533 Oakwood ave., Toledo, O.; G. B. Houston, Bessemer, Ala.; William Redd, Goodman, Mass., once sent for a free trial bottle and now have their entire family using it as needed.

PROVIDENCE HAS MURDER MYSTERY

Body of a Young Woman Was Found Today in an Old Hebrew Cemetery.

WAS STRANGLED TO DEATH

WOMAN WAS DIVORCED AND, IT WAS UNDERSTOOD, WAS ABOUT TO BE MARRIED AGAIN—NO ARRESTS MADE YET.

Providence, R. I., May 11.—Brutally beaten and choked to death, the body of Laura E. Register, daughter of a respected citizen, was found in an old Hebrew cemetery, on the outskirts of the city this morning. The victim's clothing was torn to shreds, and besmeared with blood, which evidenced the girl's desperate struggle for honor and life. The prints of a man's thumb and fingers were plainly visible on the throat, indicating final strangulation. The body was discovered by a man driving through the cemetery with a cart of ice.

Mrs. Register was thirty-two years old and divorced from her husband. It is understood she was about to marry again.

TO HOLD ELECTION

Trustees and Directors of the Y. M. C. A. to Be Selected May 18.

OLD OFFICERS ENGAGED

The annual election of the board of trustees and directors of the Young Men's Christian association will be held May 18, at the association building. This will be the second annual election and all active members of the association are invited to attend the meeting. A nominating committee, including Arthur L. Smith, Dr. Brankamp and Richard Sedgwick, has been appointed to prepare tickets for trustees and directors.

The present officers of the association, including George L. Goodwin, secretary; Orville Brunson, secretary of the boys' department; and R. J. Horton, physical director, have been re-elected for another year. They will also make their annual reports as will the treasurer of the association.

Butter and Bacon.
The Bennett boys enjoyed camping. Their people were glad to have them outdoors, but were badly puzzled to know how three boys managed to eat such amazing quantities of butter—much more, indeed, than the entire Bennett family consumed at home. At the first opportunity Mrs. Bennett inquired into the matter.

"Boys," asked she, "how in the world did you manage to use six pounds of butter on only four loaves of bread?"

"It's the cooking," explained Frank. "It takes such a heap of butter to fry the bacon."—Lippincott's Magazine.

INSURGENTS WAR FIERCELY -- BUT WITHOUT RESULT

As the Russian Generals Wrote "It Was a Sad But Glorious Day" for the Outlawed Statesmen.

WHIPPED BY ALDRICH IN A LEAD SKIRMISH

Beveridge Is Routed at the Head of the Insurgents So The Metal Barons Get the Desired Protection.

Washington, May 11.—"Yesterday was another sad but glorious day," for the Republican senatorial insurgents and their democratic allies.

Fast and furious they fought all day under the leadership of Albert Jeremiah Beveridge, of Indiana, and Albert Baird Cummins, of Iowa.

Repeatedly, likewise valiantly, they charged the republican regulars who were under the command of Nelson Wilmarth Aldrich—since this will rank as one of the greatest conflicts of the tariff war of 1909, the heroes' names are given in full, as is the custom in writing the history of all notable engagements—but every onslaught was successfully repulsed.

Cohesive Power.
The cohesive power of local self-interest—a pessimistic legislator once called it "cohesive power of public plunder"—by which Commander-in-Chief Aldrich is holding together his compact organization, was the determining factor in the result.

The lead bullion schedule was the bone of contention, and wool stood by lead, so did coal and oil, and hides, and lumber and iron ore, and pottery, and silk and cotton, and all the other articles of commerce which are the objects of the tender solicitude of the regulars.

The Postponed Stunt.
The engagement was the one which actually was billed for last Saturday, but did not come off. The patriotic folks in the Ohio Valley probably would have to employ artificial stimulants to get excited over the lead schedules, but to the people controlling the lead mines in Idaho, Utah, Missouri and Colorado, and, perhaps to the miners employed there in, they are of considerable importance, just as the wool schedules are of paramount interest to the sheep raisers of Ohio. The Metals Trust, so-called, is also extremely solicitous.

The Dingley duty on lead bullion is 2½ cents a pound. The house reduced it to 2½ cents. The senate committee on Finance restored it to 2½ cents.

"Insurgent" Cummins offered an amendment fixing it at 1½ cents, a reduction of ½ cent. He contended that the "trust" needed no more protection. The regulars defeated this amendment by a vote of 44 to 35. Then Beveridge proposed to make it 2 cents and his amendment also was lost, 43 to 37 being the vote. Thereupon, upon motion of Aldrich the 2½ cents duty was adopted.

Second Triumph.
It was Aldrich's second triumph over the insurgents in less than a week, his first being when the orange mineral duty was assailed. The high tariff chieftain was so happy he wanted to turn a few handspins or kick at the ceiling, which is not to be wondered at.

The vote yesterday afternoon possessed a significance which should not be underestimated. It means that Aldrich has the republican insurgents beaten, that his organization is riveted together so tightly it will be impossible to disrupt it without use of dynamite or some other powerful and dangerous explosive. The vote last Wednesday on orange mineral, a bi-product of lead ore—41 to 35—indicated this, but the outcome of yesterday's fight emphasized it.

HURSTS ARE HAPPY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hurst of New Castle are the parents of a baby boy, born last week. Mr. and Mrs. Hurst formerly resided here. Mr. Hurst being employed as an operator at the Western Union company's office. He was transferred to New Castle from here.

ARGUMENT HEARD.

Argument on a demurrer in the case of the Krell Piano company vs the Auto Grand Piano company was heard in circuit court this morning. Reuben Conner of Connersville, represented the defense and T. J. Study of this city the plaintiff. The suit involves a contract between the two companies. The court intimated he would overrule the demurrer.

THE THEATER

THEATRICAL CALENDAR.

NEW PHILLIPS.
All Week—High Class Vaudeville.

GENNETT THEATRE.
Week of May 10.—Cook Stock Co.

Cook Stock Co.
A special feature of all the plays given by the Carl W. Cook Stock Co. at the Gennett theatre this week will be the attention to detail at all times.

Believing that it is the little things that develop the greater things, the management of the company has spared no effort or expense to have their productions complete in every way, even to the most minute detail. A visit to the theater during their engagement will convince the most skeptical that it is possible to give first class performances at small prices of admission.

The New Players.
The Clayton Drew players were all that was predicted for them. Their playlet is based upon the murder of Caesar by Brutus and Cassius and is a burlesque upon the coming of Caesar's ghost to haunt Brutus for his horrible deed. Instead of carrying the story throughout in the serious vein the leading man puts humor of the rarest sort into his lines, moderating the lines, and the house is in a continuous uproar while the playlet is on. There are many provincialisms and localisms worked and woven in and the burlesque is carried out admirably.

You can swear on oath and bet your last cent that the Bannan Troupe of jugglers is the best company of its kind on the road. One thing that will amuse you is the way those men throw their Indian clubs at each other without injury and a real sham-battle takes place which is very pleasing to the audience.

Miss Caroline Pulliam has a voice that is as rare as a rose on the Sahara. She is a charming young lady, too, and this adds to the great hit she makes.

At the Arcade.
Tuesday, "Chinatown Slavery." Strange as it may seem to the average citizen of these enlightened times, slavery still exists, and a traffic in human beings is carried on today, in open defiance of our laws.

True the perpetrators are heathens, and never have, nor will they ever acknowledge the laws of the government under which they gain their livelihood. How our laws are thus openly defied is clearly set forth in this picture story of an instance of slavery, recently unearthed by the efforts of a Presbyterian minister.

The picture is rich in the life of the Chinese in underground San Francisco. It's a thriller from start to finish, the scene in the river running beneath the opium den being especially fine. A Jones house is reproduced in every detail, even to the heathen worshippers and their idols. Taken as a whole, the picture is one of the classiest of the year.

For those who like to laugh there will be a side tickler called "The Adventures of a Keg," that will bring the tears of joy everytime.

"In Dreamland."
The big presentation of the delightful fairy spectacle, "In Dreamland," which is to be given at the Coliseum Friday night and Saturday afternoon, for the benefit of the Penny club, gives every promise of being a great success. The large number of tickets already sold warrants the belief that the Coliseum will be filled to its capacity.

That the pupils of the schools may be able to see the play, a price of fifteen cents has been made for them for the matinee and every boy and girl in town should witness the performance.

The Penny club is working with great zeal and enthusiasm to make the affair a success and we have no more deserving charity in our city than this band of unselfish women.

who do so much to alleviate the suffering of the poor.

Tomorrow morning the sale of reserved seats will open at the rooms of the Starr Piano Co. and the sale should be a large one.

Thursday night, at 7:30, weather permitting, the illuminated trolley parade will take place. The City band will furnish the music for the parade.

A WOMAN SENTENCED

Mrs. Abbie Cross of Warren, O., Guilty of Attempted Poisoning.

WAS SHE MERELY A TOOL?

Warren, Ohio, May 11.—Judge Wilkins, in sentencing Mrs. Abbie Cross to the penitentiary for two years on her plea of guilty to a charge of attempted poisoning, declared a belief that another than she instigated an attempt to remove Mrs. Ida J. Maynard, wife of Alonzo Maynard.

Mrs. Cross has been in jail since the middle of January, a day after she had visited Mrs. Maynard, wife of the man who once eloped from Jamestown, N. Y., with Mrs. Cross, and who only a few months before had affected a reconciliation with his wife. She left a jar of milk, a drink from which made Mrs. Maynard sick. Arsenic was found in the milk. It is alleged Mrs. Cross sought to remove the obstacle to her plan to recapture Maynard's affection.

NUMBER "15,000."

"No. 15,000" was written on a complaint filed in circuit court this morning. Case No. 14,000 was filed Jan. 5, 1906. The docket has been three years and five months acquiring 1,000 cases. The case filed today is a suit for partition of real estate. No. 14,000 was a divorce action.

SUIT IS FILED.

Suit was filed today in the Wayne circuit court by Aut L. Ward vs. Florence Webster et al for partition of real estate.

THE ANSWER

Aside from that same black or grey suit, what has a man to wear when he wants to dress up?

A Shirt is the answer. And for one-fifteenth the cost of a suit we can make a shirt. Think it over.
