

A GREAT SUCCESS NOW ANTICIPATED

Entries of Three of Six Colleges in Big Meet Breaks Record.

MORE WILL BE RECEIVED

EARLHAM, ROSE, POLY AND WABASH ARE EXPECTED TO FIGHT IT OUT FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE LEAGUE.

Fifty-two men have up to the present time been registered with Manager Hancock of the I. C. A. L. track games, to be held on Reid Field, next Saturday. The entry lists of Wabash, State Normal and Hanover have not yet been received, however the entries of Earlham, Rose Poly and Franklin total a greater aggregate than is usual for the entire entry list. Indications now point to the greatest meet ever held on Reid Field. In 1903 the meet was held on Reid Field with good success, however, there were only four colleges entered. All six colleges of the league are entered in Saturday's meet and all but Hanover and State Normal will enter full teams.

Three Corners Fight. The meet promises to be one of the prettiest contests ever witnessed in Richmond. The fight is expected to be between Wabash, Rose Poly and Earlham with Franklin and State Normal runners up. Hanover is not expected to show particular strength. Wabash is sending out bear stories, but the Quakers are taking no stock in them. Jones, the scrappy Wabash Coach, is sure to put a husky bunch of athletes in the field and the Quakers are expecting to have to fight it out with the Little Giants for the coveted championship. Last year the Quaker athletes only lost the meet by losing the last event in which Blair of Wabash beat out Conrad for the 220 dash. The Quakers are expecting revenge in the coming contest. The entries for Earlham, Rose Poly and Franklin follow:

100 yard dash—Rose Poly, Smith and Shaw; Franklin, Bryan, Constable, Sellick, Nichols; Earlham, Conrad, C. K. Jones, Francis R. Jenkins. 120 yard hurdles—Rose Poly, Smith and Darr; Franklin, Babcock (capt.), Constable, Milligan; Earlham, White (capt.), Wright, Brown.

220 yard dash—Rose Poly, Smith and Shaw; Franklin, Bryan, Constable, Babcock, Sellick, Nichols; Earlham, Conrad, C. K. Jones, Sanders, R. Jenkins.

380 yard run—Rose Poly, Coffey and Shepard; Franklin, Branigan, Martz, Sellick; Earlham, Winslow, L. Nanney, Regan.

1 mile run—Rose Poly, Coffey and McWilliams; Franklin, Branigan, Jewett, Yount, Martz; Earlham, J. Furnas, J. Jones, Regan, D. A. Haworth, Cleveland.

EXHIBITION POOR.

Prof. J. Gerstel's exhibition of fancy pool and billiard shots at the Simmons parlors last evening was not as good as expected. A large crowd was attracted to the scene, but few staid until the finish. It was long past three-year-old Norton's bedtime, but he still stood in his crib, looking out of the window and talking to the people below, when a lady living next door called up to him: "What! Aren't you in bed yet?" "Esa," he called back; "my feet is, but my head isn't."

HORSE RAN OFF; MEN THROWN OUT

James Grimes and Harmon Sitloh Are Hurt.

While returning from Sheridan street, where they were employed by the city as teamsters, James Grimes, and old man, and a companion, said to be Harmon Sitloh, were thrown out of the gravel wagon at Fourth and D streets and sustained several bodily bruises and other injuries. The team became frightened at a switch engine on the C. C. & L. railroad and ran away. It was stopped near the Y. M. C. A. building by John Daudt. In making the turn at Seventh and Ft. Wayne avenue, one of the horses fell and was badly skinned. The team belonged to Charles Piehl.

PLUCKING BATS.

A French Industry That Is Linked With the Restaurants.

"I plucked bats in Paris once at 4 francs a day," said a sailor. "Bats hibernate in the winter. What I mean to say is that they fall into a kind of drugged sleep. In this here sleep, clings together in big, black, soft bunches, they hang from the roofs of caves or the inside of chimneys. Seein' I was down on my luck—I was studyin' art in them days—a restaurateur over in the Latin quarter, or Cart-shay, as we used to say, giv me a job of bat pluckin'."

"He showed me the ropes the first day. I soon got on to it. It was dead easy. Just go into a cave, you know, locate a bunch of bats and then pluck 'em one at a time like grapes and drop 'em in your burlap bag. All that winter I'd set out from the Cart-shay with my big bag in the mornin', and on toward night you'd see me staggerin' back along the Boulevard Michel, loaded down with hibernatin' bats."

"You don't feed these to your clientele, Jacques? I said to the boss one night."

"Maybe—oh, yes," said he. "They always figure in our farmed one franc dinner."

"I gave him a reproachful look. 'Bat's meat is excellent,' he said. 'The meat is pink and very fine. Fried in butter with a parsley sauce, the gourmets in the Cafe Anglais could never, never tell it from venison.'"

"You wouldn't catch me eatin' it," says I.

"He chuckled and nudged me in the ribs. 'No?' says he. 'No? And yet, mon vieux, the bat largely figures in our excellent five sou' navaarin that you so dearly love!'"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

LINCOLN'S IRONY.

His Reply to a Petition for a Dishonest Jury's Pardon.

The Hon. Alexander H. Rice once paid a visit to President Lincoln on behalf of a Boston boy who had been imprisoned for robbing his employer's letters. After reading the petition, signed by many citizens of Boston, the president stretched himself in his chair and asked Mr. Rice if he had met a man going downstairs. "Yes, Mr. President," replied Mr. Rice.

"His errand," said the president, "was to get a man pardoned out of the penitentiary, and now you have come to get a boy out of jail." Then, with characteristic humor, Mr. Lincoln continued: "I'll tell you what it is, we must abolish these courts or they will be the death of us. I thought it had enough that they put so many men in the penitentiary for me to get out, but if they have now begun on the boys and the jails have roped you into the delivery let's after them!"

"They deserve the worst fate," he went on, "because, according to the evidence that comes to me, they pick out the very best men and send them to the penitentiary, and this present petition shows they are playing the same game on the boys and sending them all to jail. The man that you met on the stairs affirmed that his friend in the penitentiary is a most exemplary citizen, and Massachusetts must be a happy state if her boys out of jail are as virtuous as this one appears to be who is in."

"Yes, down with the courts and deliverance to their victims, and then we can have some peace!"—Boston Post.

"This cartoon you read concerning Lincoln's error in pardoning a thief, and the fact that the man who was pardoned was a most exemplary citizen, and Massachusetts must be a happy state if her boys out of jail are as virtuous as this one appears to be who is in."

FURTHER PROTEST ON IMPROVEMENT

Remonstrators Against North Eighth Street Walks Before Board.

A PETITIONER WAS HEARD

DR. KINSEY STATES THAT HE BELIEVES THE IMPROVEMENT IS A NECESSARY ONE—NO ACTION YET TAKEN.

Further protest against the proposed improvement of North Eighth street by the construction of cement sidewalks, curbs and gutters was made at today's session of the board of public works. The complaint against the improvement was made by John D. Vaughan, Edward Vaughan, John J. Harrington and Richard Van Zant. It was claimed the improvement is not needed. Dr. Joseph H. Kinsey appeared for the remonstrators. He made the statement that he believes the man who is opposing the improvement would not suffer if it were made.

John Vaughan Opposed. John Vaughan said he owns 70 feet of ground on the street and that he does not believe the improvement is necessary. He has a hard brick pavement in front of his properties but the pavement is very uneven and water stands in puddles after each heavy rain. Edward Vaughan owns from Main street to Sailor street on the east side of Eighth. Hard brick pavement is in front of his building. There are depressed places in the surface. He said he does not believe in standing in the way of public improvement but it might be advisable to delay this one.

John J. Harrington Speaks. John J. Harrington wants the matter indefinitely postponed. He owns forty feet of land between his whole-sale house and the Y. M. C. A. building. Soft brick is there now. Its surface is very far from level. Last winter snow two feet deep was permitted to remain on this section of the walk several days. Harrington believes the present sidewalks are all right. He contemplates the erection of a building on the lot some time in the future and anticipates trouble in the work if a cement walk be laid at the time.

Mr. Harrington said he was authorized to ask for the removal of the name of C. C. Cain from the petition. He said Cain had told him he signed the petition because he believed it was favored by "the bank people." Mr. Cain is a stock holder and president of the Richmond Candy company. A hard brick pavement is in front of the company's building, but it is so full of depressions that after a heavy rain puddles of water have to be waded through. Dr. Kinsey said Cain told him he consented to have his name removed from the petition to please "his neighbor," Mr. Harrington.

Improvement Needed. Dr. Kinsey said he presented the petition because he believed the improvement needed. He said North Eighth is one of the principal streets of the city. It is used more by outsiders probably than any other street in the city and a direct route to the Pennsylvania station. He said he believes the business men whose property is concerned, can well afford the cost. He said he thought if they can build three story flats they can lay cement sidewalks, also. He claimed the walks are not in as good condition as those in other parts of the city. He represented he had been told by Mr. Gennett that the latter heard frequent complaints about the poor condition of the walks to the theater, patrons claiming they suffered from wet feet while walking on Eighth street to the Main street car line.

The board of works did not decide upon the matter, but took it under further advisement. This was the second session at which remonstrators had appeared. In both cases the same objections were made by the same men. The board will be guided somewhat in making its decision by public sentiment, actual conditions and the ability of the property owners to pay the assessment.

STEWARDS' MEETING

Northern District M. E. Church Officials Hold a Session Here.

VISIT REV. WADE IN A BODY

At a meeting of the district stewards and pastors of the Richmond district of the Northern M. E. Conference at the Grace church this morning, the question of raising the presiding elders salary was discussed but no final action taken. The ministers and stewards passed resolutions of sympathy for the Rev. R. J. Wade of the First M. E. church and afterwards visited him in a body.

Among the minor things taken up at the meeting was the holding of missionary conventions next fall, for one day, at each of the churches in the district. The appointment of the benevolences to the different charges was also made.

The district Epworth league convention will be left in the hands of a committee. Raymond Wehrley, elected president of the league last fall has been unable to attend to the duties of the league and has resigned.

SECRET TRIAL IS MADE BY ENGLISH

Experiments With Military Airship a Success.

Aldershot, England, May 12.—A secret trial was made at daybreak of the new military airship upon which the British government is basing its hopes for future practical use. It was announced that the experiments were successful. So sanguine have the government experts felt over the success of the aeroplane that they did not even take the pains to investigate carefully the flying machine of the Wright Brothers.

The French Schoolboy's Hard Day. French children are often on their way to school a little after 7 o'clock in the morning. If they have concluded their lessons by 9 o'clock in the evening it is only by dint of great application. In all branches of art the labor of the type is immense. At the conservatory the strenuous life is carried to a point which provokes the astonishment even of laborious German students.—Fall Mail Gazette.

Now High a Tiger Can Jump. For the benefit of the prospective big game hunters a correspondent finally disposes of the theory that a tiger is unable to jump to any height from all fours. He records that he took refuge in a tree from a particular tiger. The beast, however, jumped up to him. "His an india rubber ball, a good seven feet," and it was only "by letting go with my right and ramming both barrels down his mouth that I did not have a very bad time of it."

The moral evidently is that when avoiding a tiger it is necessary to find a tree with its lowest branch at least sixteen feet from the ground.—India Field.
