WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN AT MEET

The world's record and one league record were broken at the fifth annual field and track meet of the Indiana College Athletic League on Reid Field yesterday afternoon. The world's record in the standing hop, step, jump was broken by Ben Grave, of Earlham, and John Hopkins. It was a free-for-all entry in an exhibition. The league record in the 120 yard hurdles was reduced 2-5 of a second by Delman, of Wabash. The record will not be allowed to stand, however, as Delman turned over his last hurdle.

The main feature of the meet was the terrific downpour of rain that interrupted the contests after four events had been completed. A veritable cloud-burst deluged the field. Torrents of water poured from the clouds and the track became a mill pond on which a canoe race would have looked more in keeping than a quarter mile run. Spectators were huddled into the grandstand like sheep in a pen. They gathered in the most remote corner, but this precaution was not enough to prevent several pretty coeds from ducking. A cold wind sprang up, but there was nothing to do but brave the elements and there was no reason to complain.

Good for Water Sports.
The track suits of the athletes made their appearance in keeping with the conditions, but a swimming race or game of water polo might have been anticipated by an unexpected visitor, who did not know what all the fuss was about.

Such a thing as record breaking became an absolute impossibility. The runners had to splash about in the mud and water. The weight men put the shot into puddles and splashed a muddy spray over the officials. Attempts were made to dodge the showers but Jupiter Pluvius was not to be denied his day. He gave the greatest exhibition of any contest and was awarded the medal, although not the cup that was bestowed upon the Earlham team. In order that all events might be completed, when the field was inundated, the track was dug up. Takeoff boards for the jumps were planted on the cinder path. Barrels of sawdust were dumped about to provide a soft landing place for the vaulters and high jumpers. The wind that howled across the field picked up huge pieces of sheet iron that had been used to cover the whitewash rings of the hammer throwers and shot putters and blew them about the field. The lightning zig-zagged back and forth across the heavens and the thunder roared while now and then a coed sighed audibly and wished she were in Earlham Hall with her head under the pillow.

Good Meet Spoiled.
It was a good meet that would have been had not the same weather man that spoiled the inauguration ceremonies mixed his dose again. The crowd was not as large as the meet conditions had been responsible for that fact.

The meet soon resolved into a dual contest between Wabash and Earlham. The State Normal Team had entered and several good athletes were expected from Terre Haute. The team did not appear, however, and no word assigning a reason was received. The time of beginning was delayed in the hope of the late arrival of the Normalites but they staid away. Earlham showed up strong in the dashes, mile, hurdles and discus. Wabash men fell down in some of the contests they had expected to win.

In his feature exhibition Grave broke the world's record by more than seven inches. The previous record for the standing hop, step, jump had been thirty feet four inches. Grave equalled this on his first trial. On another trial he cleared 31 and eight-hundredths feet. It was a remarkable performance. The athlete tried several other times but failed to equal this mark. Grave is a member of the Earlham faculty. When a student at Earlham he was one of the athletic stars. After leaving Earlham he attended Johns Hopkins University. His work yesterday won for him a place in the athletic hall of fame.

A Pretty Race.
For the first ninety yards the hundred yard dash was a pretty race. Conrad was pulling ahead by a few inches and with a splendid burst of speed pulled out to a safe distance and then slackened his pace. By this way of running he saved his strength, but added at least 2-5 of a second to his time for the distance.

The 120 yard hurdle offered one of the prettiest contests of the meet. The hurdles had to be blocked with bricks as the wind toppled them over like a row of dominoes. Delman made fast time but his race was marred by the way in which he knocked down the hurdles. White took the obstacles in beautiful form. He knocked over the next to the last and Delman put down the last four. He overturned fully half of the hurdles. He is a remarkable runner in this event.

The 80 yard run was the first event to be pulled off during the rain. Brangan won Franklin's only first by a magnificent sprint from the 200 yard mark. He had been trailing in fourth place up to this point. He went around the three men ahead of him and by a display of magnificent nerve and excellent running drew away from the whole bunch. Winslow fought hard for Earlham but could not draw up.

Conrad Stars Again.
Conrad again appeared in the leadership when he took the 220 yard dash with ease. Adversity arose between the judges and it was announced first that Brown of Earlham had finished second and Johnson, of Wabash third. Wabash entered a protest as it appeared to officials who were not judges of the finish, but were watching the tape, that Johnson beat Brown out by a few inches. Upon the protest the judges reconsidered their action and gave the Wabash runner second honors.

Winslow proved the candy mudlark and took the mile run without much trouble. It was slip-slop every step of the way and the four trips around the track seemed like a race with death. The Earlham runner was there with the goods, however, and delivered the package so well wrapped up he could not be tagged. Kingery made a pretty finish for Wabash but did not have the stamina to overtake his fleet footed pace maker.

A surprise came in the quarter mile, when Deming, the Wabash star defeated Brown of Earlham by a very close margin. The Earlham runner has shown form this season that stamps him as one of the Quaker's most valuable men. Deming had expected an easy victory but had to do his utmost to take the ribbon.

But One Contestant.
There was but one contestant in the 220 yard hurdle. There were others entered in the race and they covered the distance, but White was so far in the lead that the others could not be seen coming.

justified, but the threatening weather Earlham made a big killing in the discus throw. The Quakers had not expected anything so good as the first place and there was a big surprise when they took first and second. Brown, of Wabash, who holds the league record did not succeed in qualifying. He could not hold the discus to make even a fair hurl. There was nothing spectacular, although the event was completed before the rain fell.

After Conrad and Maier had cleared 5 feet 6 inches in the high jump, none of their opponents went that distance. Thereupon the Earlhamites split the first and second place points. Hargrave and Hessler tied for third with Root, of Rose Polytechnic and Babcock of Franklin for third. The Wabash entries were given one-half of one point and the other men each one-fourth.

Wabash's strong man, Brown, had no difficulty in taking first in the shot put. He made his points and mark in the qualifying rounds. After doing poorly in the early rounds, Sandaw, of Rose showed up well in the finals. Pennington, of Earlham, had no trouble in taking third.

Once more Conrad showed his ability as an athlete in the broad jump. The Earlhamite was the only man to pass the 20 foot mark. Cohee secured first in the hammer throw without breaking a record. The wet ground impaired his throwing. In the pole vault, Starbuck of Wabash was in a class to himself.

WHIRLWIND STYLE
WINS FOR PAPKE
San Francisco, May 15.—Papke knocked out Kelly today in the first round, after one minute and forty seconds of fighting. It was a big surprise as the men were considered evenly matched. Papke was an 8 to 10 favorite. The attendance was fifteen thousand. Papke forced the fighting from the start in a cyclone style. Papke landed fierce rights and lefts to the jaw, putting Kelly to the floor for the count of nine, with a deep gash over his right eye. Kelly came up groggy and Papke felled him like an ox with a right hand to the chin. Kelly's head struck the floor with a hollow sound and he lay silent until counted out. Meanwhile blood flowed freely from the cut over the eye.

New York, May 15.—The Germans beat the Giants today but they failed to make them like it. The worthy Admiral Schlei tossed out all the sand bags and gave a wonderful exhibition of how not to play the catcher's position. He had five or six chances to throw the ball to second base. Twice he threw into centerfield and the other times he merely broke Larry Doyle's heart. The Germans hit the ball when hits counted and with the kind assistance of their old team mate managed to nose out in a close finish. It was a hard game for Ames to lose. Score: R. H. E. Cincinnati 10 0 2 0 1 100—5 12 0 New York 3 0 0 0 0 1000—4 7 2 Fromme and McLean; Ames, Raymond and Schlei and Meyers. Umpires—Rigler and Truby.

MADE GREAT RALLY.
Brooklyn, May 15.—After making one run in the second, the Dodgers made a great rally in the eighth that brought in four runs and tied the score, but it was not enough and the Pirates won six to five. Pittsburg broke the tie in the ninth by putting across a run through some timely hitting. It was enough to win as Brooklyn went out one, two, three in its half. Both Camnitz and McIntyre were touched up rather freely. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburg 2 0 0 2 0 0 100—6 8 1 Brooklyn 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 40—5 8 2 Camnitz and Gibson; McIntyre and Bergen. Umpire—Kane.

CUBS FINISH WELL.
Philadelphia, May 15.—Chicago's world champions celebrated pay day.

the return of summer and Secretary William's birthday by beating Philadelphia in a whirlwind finish today, scoring three runs in the ninth inning and winning 3 to 0. Besides the fierce volley of hits, with which they broke down the superb defense of the Phillies, they took partial vengeance upon three Quakers for what the said Penalties did last year. The game was a brilliant duel of the pitchers up to the finish and all the way Lew Moran had something on big Jeff Overall. Score: R. H. E. Chicago ..0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3—3 7 2 Phillies ..0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 6 3 Overall and Moran; Moran and Dooin. Umpires—Emslie and O'Day.

CARDINALS TRIM DOVES.

Boston, May 15.—The Cardinals opened the season here today by defeating the Doves. The local team's errors were costly and were the cause of at least one of the runs. Mattern, for the locals, was not in his usual form and gave eight bases on balls, three of which proved costly and netted three runs for the visitors. Boston had a chance in the ninth but the substitutes were unable to overcome the lead attained by the Cardinals. The score: R. H. E. St. Louis 0 0 1 2 0 0 2 00—5 8 2 Boston ..0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 2—3 8 3 Sallee and Brennan; Mattern and Smith. Umpire—Johnstone.

American League
St. Louis, May 15.—Washington lost the second game to St. Louis today. Score 7 to 1. Four hits, two errors, allowed the St. Louis boys to score six times. Another run came in the seventh when McAlee doubled and scored on Hartzell's single. A base on balls to Street, a passed ball and Conroy's single resulted in a run for Washington. Score: R. H. E. Washon 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—1 6 3 St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 6 1 0 2—7 8 1 Hughes and Street; Powell and Stephens. Umpire—O'Loughlin and Ferrine.

NAPS STILL LOSING.
Cleveland, May 15.—Errors behind Addie Joss put the Yanks in the lead early today. Then Joss, by poor base running, threw away a chance to at least tie the score and the game ended, New York 4, Cleveland 3. Warhop pitched good ball and outside two errors by Laporte, was given fine support. Score: R. H. E. New York 0 1 0 0 2 1 0 00—4 9 2 Cleveland 0 1 0 0 0 0 2 00—3 9 3 Warhop and Kleinow; Joss and Clarke. Umpires—Evans and Hurst.

PLANK VS. SMITH.
Chicago, May 15.—Plank outpitched Smith in the first game of the Athletic series and trimmed the Sox three to two. Hard hitting put the visitors in the front. The locals tied in the fifth and lost it again in the sixth; on one pass, a double by Barr and Barry's single, after two were out. The Sox threw a scare into the camp of the enemy in the ninth, counting one run in a howling stage snow storm. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 1 0 0 0 0 2 0 00—4 9 2 Chicago ..0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—2 5 1 Plank and Thomas; Smith and Owens. Umpires—Connolly and Egan.

Richmond finished second with 35 points. Anderson was third with 32 points, while Marion finished a poor fourth with only 10 points. T. P. A. Notes

The quarantine has been lifted. Elmer E. Lebo President Indiana Division Travelers Protective association of America. How's that for our new official title.

Nothing in local T. P. A. circles has given the boys more real pleasure and enjoyment than the smoker tendered the post members by the Commercial club in honor of President Lebo. Every member present reports an enjoyable evening well spent. The members of Post C. are grateful to the Commercial club for having entertained them so royally. The spirit displayed by the Commercial club is commendable. Being in a sense kindred organizations more meetings between these two bodies might promote more interest in local affairs.

The badges furnished by the Post at the state convention attracted a great amount of attention. Almost everybody in Evansville wore one. Any member wishing to procure a badge as a souvenir can obtain one by calling on Secretary Hasty.

President Quigg after weeks of careful search and much worry has finally found the proper person to serve as chairman of the lunch committee. Mr. Charles Tooker has been selected to act as the above chairman. "Took" always was long on lunch and some of the boys are now predicting a lunch every Saturday night.

The post will tender the members a smoker Saturday night, May 22. All members are urged to be present as this will be the last social affair given until the cooler months set in. Chairman C. O. Tooker has promised a mighty good lunch.

Has anyone failed to see the sketches published in the Evansville papers during convention days? O'Brien and Lebo have at last been able to see themselves as others see them.

President Quigg has appointed his standing committees but seems to want to keep the matter a secret.

State President Lebo was in Indianapolis yesterday to attend the first meeting of the state board.
