

DEFEAT RICHMOND IN A LOOSE GAME

Springfield Reds Profit by the Errors of the Local Outfit.

GOOD CROWD WAS PRESENT

PITCHER BOYD WORKED NICELY FOR RICHMOND BUT MADE ONE MISPLAY WHICH CONTRIBUTED TO DEFEAT.

Errors by the local infield allowed the Springfield Reds to achieve their first victory of the season yesterday, at Athletic park, defeating the local aggregation 6 to 5. Warfel at third for Richmond had a particularly bad day. Second Baseman Driscoll, First Baseman, Jocko Weaver and others were also far from being in good form. The only feature of the game was a one-handed catch, while running back of third base, by Shortstop Kelley. There was a good sized crowd present.

Boyd, the local pitcher, twirled a fairly good game at times. He would have won easily had it not been for his support. It was his own negligence in not taking advantage of a long outfield fly to left which prevented Richmond tying the score in the ninth inning. Score by innings and batteries:

R. H. E.

BASEBALL NOTES.

In the preliminary game at Athletic park yesterday afternoon, the Waldorf team defeated all over and rubbed it into the X. Y. Z's, both of the Sunday afternoon league, by the score of 22 to 0. The vanquished were unable to hit Hiatt with the exception of four times. The Waldorfs stole twenty-two bases. Batteries—Waldorfs, Hiatt and Frauman; X. Y. Z's, Shute, Dadisman and Zeyen.

The Swatikas, a local amateur baseball team defeated the best team of Hollandsburg yesterday afternoon, at that place, by the score of 5 to 2. The locals hit safely nine times and erred but once while Hollandsburg secured but 6 hits and erred 3 times. Batteries—Swatikas, Barker and Elstro; Hollandsburg, Hamilton and Beatty.

The Rosenbloom-Buntin team was easy money for the Williamsburg team in the game at that place, being defeated by the score of 16 to 1. (The "Commoner" please copy.)

In a well played game at the Beallview park yesterday afternoon the Beallview club defeated the Richmond Business College aggregation by the score of 9 to 6. Score and batteries:

SCHATTEL LEADS RALLY

Cambridge City, June 7.—In a ninth inning batting rally, the local team defeated the Kreil-French baseball club of New Castle yesterday afternoon by the score of 3 to 2. The locals were one of the largest of the season and thoroughly enjoyed the best contest seen here this season. The Grays had it on the visitors in almost every way, out batting them and also fielded better.

In the ninth inning with two men down and the score a tie, 2-2, Schattel, the Richmond shortstop, pounded out a two-bagger and subsequently scored on hits by Hamilton and Bolin, the next two up. Score:

EDWARD AND THE DERBY.

Hall, Edward, Rex!
Minor wins
In this the king of equine apins, And you're the first of kings to be The owner of a rag
That led the ponies in the race And took the Derby rag.
Oh, say,
Don't you feel gay?
Don't you want to cut loose
And kick up your heels
And cavort 'round the pasture,
To show how it feels?
Wow!
What's a throne now?
And a scepter and crown
And a long-tailed robe
And boss of the sea
And drum-beats 'round the globe?
Piffle, ain't they?
Tommyrot?
Your kingdom for a horse—
That's what!
A man may be a king by birth,
No competition's in it.
But Derby winning? Well, now that
Take more than birth to win it!
And say, Ed,
On the dead,
Drops the cope
Work the drops
On the shed?
Or did they let you lay
A pound or two your way?
No?
Yes?
What?
Well,
Don't tell.
We love a closed shed—
But, oh you, Ed!

DELEGATES GENEROUSLY VOTE TO BUILD NEW A DEACONESS HOME

the following resolution this morning, which was adopted:

Whereas, the boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Church Extension, Education and Publication are now located in the cities of Baltimore, York, and Philadelphia, and

Whereas, All of these boards, except the last, occupy offices, and

Whereas, Some of these have recently considered the advisability of purchasing office buildings, and

Whereas, The Board of Publication will probably be compelled, by the opening of a great boulevard, to abandon its present site, and

Whereas, The right of some of the boards to invest funds in permanent buildings without the express authorization of the General Synod has been doubted, and

Whereas, Many of our sister denominations have found it desirable and practicable to concentrate the work of the various boards in one great building, adapted to their several purposes and conveniently located, therefore be it

Resolved, That the president of the General Synod is hereby instructed to appoint a committee of ten, each board having a representative, which shall take into consideration, first, the propriety of concentrating the work of the boards into one place and in one building, and, secondly, any other matters cited or implied in the above preamble, and offer at least a partial report of its findings at the present convention.

New committees were appointed as follows this morning: To nominate deaconess board, Revs. G. W. Enders, J. S. English, S. W. Owen, W. W. Hanna, R. B. Peery, Frederick Bretnick and A. Homigshaus and Messrs. Z. D. Zerick, J. S. Strawn, Allen J. Heresch, D. E. Mack and Cyrus Van Matre; on memorial from the East Pennsylvania Synod, Revs. D. H. Baughin, J. J. Young, M. F. Troxell, Wm. Schueltzke and S. T. Hines and John L. Zimmerman and D. A. Harman; to nominate a board on church extension, Revs. J. A. Clutz, W. M. Baum, C. B. Etter, G. W. Snyder, L. P. Ludden, Luther Kuhlman, W. L. Rutherford and G. B. Young and Messrs. E. S. Lockenbach, J. E. Downing, A. D. Houck and E. O. Weaver.

Reports on the laymen movement in the church, which was originated two years ago, were made by the Rev. S. S. Waltz, and H. L. Hess. The Rev. Mr. Waltz showed by his report that the committee has been active in investigating the work which men's organizations have done in other churches, and as a result of this and also as a result of the sentiment in the Lutheran church, the moved that a committee of five be appointed to take the work in hand of forming such men's organizations, of federating them, and doing all necessary work connected therewith, and that such committee should report at the next biennial synod. Such motion carried.

Already, the report of Dr. Waltz said, 205 organizations for men have been formed in the Lutheran church with 8,500 members enrolled.

Mr. Hess pictured the financial work that the laymen have been doing. In order to get the laymen of the church interested in the movement, the committee of which Mr. Hess was a member, sent out 5515 first class letters, 60,000 circulars to members of the church, and 40,000 statements. Their work resulted in 703 organizations in church congregations whose purpose is to assist the pastor in raising money. As a result of what the laymen did, the benevolences of 1908 exceeded those of 1907 by $23,000, and this even in the face of the financial stringency. The apportionment per capita has been raised 90 cents to $1.16.

SYNOD NOTES.
The Rev. John A. Bright, the well-known evangelist and children's missionary of Campus, Kansas, who is attending the Synod as a delegate from Kansas, spoke to the children of the First English Lutheran church, yesterday morning. The Rev. Mr. Bright had an active career, and is still doing great good, especially in his chosen field—among the little children.

According to the Rev. C. W. Keller, of Roaring Spring, Pa., who is chairman of the Committee on Absences, a local option election is not sufficient cause for a delegate to absent himself from the synod. Two such requests came to Dr. Keller, but he turned a deaf ear. The lay delegates pleaded that it was the work of God which called them home, but Dr. Keller answered that the work of God kept them here, and here they must remain, or less go home without synodical mileage. The delegates are still taking part in the deliberations of the synod.

German tradition refused to give way before the more sanitary method of the modern church during the communion service in St. Paul's church, Sunday, and the delegates attending from Nebraska and New York synods, (both of which are German in their character) took communion out of individual cup, and not from the single service as is now generally used in the Lutheran churches. Their orthodox belief caused these good Germans to wait till the last table, but they did not mind that in the least.

MORE BODIES ARE RECOVERED TODAY

Seven More From Ill Fated Steamer Are Still Being Searched For.

ALL PLEASURE SEEKERS

WHEN FRAIL BOAT CRASHED INTO WHARF AT MANDEVILLE, LA., PASSENGERS WERE HURLED INTO THE WATER.

Mandeville, La., June 7.—Bodies of five more victims were recovered this morning, of the disaster to the steamer Margaret, making ten already recovered. Search is progressing for seven more known to be missing. All were residents of New Orleans.

The Margaret attempted to land at a frail rowboat wharf instead of her regular landing place, and jerked the entire platform into the river, with sixty-five persons.

Reports at first were very meagre, and great excitement prevailed when it was rumored that the steamer Margaret, a pleasure boat between New Orleans and Mandeville, had been wrecked.

Crowd Films Wharf.
As is the custom of the people, when a boat is making a landing, all the pleasure seekers crowded down on the flimsy wharf to get aboard. As the vessel came closer the crowd from the rear pushed heavily on the mass until there was no room to move about. Then the vessel struck. The platform first swayed and the apron broke, pitching the entire crowd into the lake.

So great was the confusion at first that nothing could be done and it was with the greatest work on the part of the men of the party that many women were saved from drowning.

It was later discovered that four young girls had been killed outright, and the body of a young boy was found crushed between the fallen structures.

Many women and children were injured, but it has been impossible to obtain a list of the names. Many are missing.

Pigeons were employed in early Egyptian days, navigators taking them on their galleys and liberating them when they arrived at their destination in order to announce their safe arrival to their friends. The Romans utilized them in communicating with each other in wartime.

EVERYTHING IS READY FOR THE LOCAL EXHIBIT

Pictures Have All Been Hung And the Works of Art Displayed Are the Best Ever Exhibited in the City.

TUESDAY NIGHT IS ONLY FOR MEMBERS

After That the Exhibit Will Be Thrown Open to the Public, No Admission Charge Being Demanded.

All will be in readiness by night for the opening of the Thirteenth annual exhibition of the Richmond Art Association, at the Garfield building, tomorrow evening, which evening will be devoted to members only. On Wednesday the exhibit will open to the public at large, and will remain intact until June 22. Judging from the favorable comments made by local artists who have inspected the exhibit, the local public has the rarest treat in store for them. All positively state that the exhibit is the best selected and choicest, also the most complete and illustrating almost every branch of art work, ever displayed in this city.

The program for the opening night will be as announced in the Palladium Sunday morning. Probably of the most interest to the association membership will be the awards of the jury for the Mary T. R. Foulke and the Richmond prizes. These awards will be announced the first thing in the evening, following which, there will be several short talks, and music by the high school orchestra. The jury of awards, includes, Walter Marshall Clute of Chicago, George Julian Zolnay of St. Louis, and E. T. Harley of Cincinnati.

Best Is to Be Seen.

Only by visiting the different departments and making a close inspection of the displays can one obtain a conception of the worth of the exhibit. While possibly not as large as formerly from the standpoint of numbers, the exhibits are more valuable than any heretofore given by the association. This is true of all the departments and the committees in charge of each have made a special effort to call all inferior exhibits, for others more valuable.

The exhibitors in arts and crafts work are too numerous to mention, but include several of the most noted artists in the world. This department, which particularly fascinates the women, will be located in the southwest corner room on the first floor of the building. This room will be used for this one particular department alone. There are displays in this department, which, according to the catalogue, are valued as high as $50 and more, and vary down to 25 cents.

The first three are members of the board by law and the last two were appointed by the court. Mr. Bayer is a democrat and Mr. Bradbury a republican. The board will be in session thirty days.

The county assessor is made president of the board by virtue of his office. The board will deal altogether with corporations this year. The real estate of the county was not appraised this June and no complaints will be made against the tax imposed on it. After organizing this morning the board adjourned until tomorrow, when it will take up the work. The auditor acts as secretary of the board.

RICHMOND PEOPLE SAW THE BALLOON

Several Got Caught in Automobile Blockade.

Postmaster and Mrs. J. A. Spenhier, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Murray, M. C. Henley and family, E. R. Draver and family, Lee Ashley and a number of other Richmond persons witnessed the ascension of the balloons entered in the handicap and National endurance contest, starting from Indianapolis Saturday afternoon. Several of the Richmond delegation went to Indianapolis in their automobiles and secured such a position as to be in the jam of machines near Riverside park where the event was held. There were thousands of machines near the park and it was practically impossible to get through because of their numbers. Omar Murray entered the ascension business. He purchased several toy rubber balloons and attached tickets to them, good for one performance at the Phillips theater.

JEFFERIES MISSING

Familiar Face of Deceased Veteran Missing From Chester Memorial.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDED

One man was missing when the memorial exercises were held at Chester yesterday, who had been present since the first service of the kind was held. He is Capt. W. C. Jefferies, who is believed to be on his death bed at his home in this city. The captain heretofore has always been one of the most conspicuous figures at the Chester memorial services.

Yesterday's exercises were attended by a large crowd. The number of rigs was so many that all roads in the vicinity of the Friends church were blocked for a quarter of a mile in each direction. The address was delivered by the Rev. J. W. Zerbe of Fountain City. It was a splendid effort. Among those who spoke were three veterans of the Civil War, Joseph Bennett, of Middleboro, Timothy Hart, of Chester and a Mr. Chenoweth from Hollandsburg. O. Music was furnished by a local choir and the Nett quartet from Greensfork.

GRAND JURY IN REPORT DID NOT GIVE INDICTMENT

The grand jury reported to Judge Ford of the Wayne circuit court this afternoon a few minutes before 3 o'clock. No indictment was returned against Joel Raliback, the young man who shot and killed Alexander Meek and his son, Raymond in a dispute over a line fence between their farms, two miles west of the city. Raliback's release probably will follow immediately. It was the consensus of opinion among the jurors that Raliback had shot in defense of himself and parents and brother.

Legends of Wallenstein.

It is told of Wallenstein, duke of Friedland, the celebrated Austrian general, that he had ordered an officer to be put to death for appearing at his levee with the clank of spurs and that he had hung a valet de chambre for presuming to wake him without orders. It was said that his palace was built on the ruins of a hundred houses, that his stables were of the most sumptuous description, that each horse had a rack and manger of polished steel and that the stalls were divided by intercolumniations of Bohemian marble.—W. B. Davenport Adams.
