What Is Doing in Social, Club and Art Circles.

Miss Elizabeth R. Thomas

PHONE 1121

A charming whist company was given this afternoon by Mrs. E. R. Beatty at her home on East Main street, in honor of Mrs. Edward F. Towne, (nee Miss Maud Hogan) of Holyoke, Massachusetts; and Mrs. Carolyn Kelsey of New York City. The rooms where the game was played were attractively arranged with garden blossoms. At the close of this most delightful function a dainty luncheon was served. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Beatty will again extend hospitalities. The affair will be in the nature of an informal tea.

Mrs. Mary Mitchell of Bowling Green, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Dill of North Twelfth street.

Mrs. Jeff Wilson gave a prettily appointed dinner company last evening, in honor of Miss Lulu Likens, a June bride. The table was beautifully appointed with flowers and ferns. There were places arranged at the table for six guests. A neighborhood company in the nature of a shower will be given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Caroline Kibbey, and Mrs. Frank Kibbey, at their home on South Eleventh street. Thursday afternoon the teachers of Warner school will give a picnic at the Glen for Miss Likens. The St. Agnes Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will entertain Friday.

Miss Edith Tallant will give a morning party for the bride-elect, Saturday and in the afternoon Miss Margaret Mooney will entertain. The wedding will be celebrated Wednesday morning, June sixteenth, at nine o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church.

In connection with the commencement exercises at the local high school there will be a number of enjoyable social functions. Wednesday evening the seniors will present the "Merchant of Venice" at the Gennett theater. Thursday the students of the school will receive their parents at the Garfield building. Several picnics have also been arranged for by the various classes of the school. Friday morning the senior class will be graduated. In the evening the alumni will give a dance for members of the senior class.

Mrs. Edward Hill will attend the wedding of Miss Helen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Smith, and Mr. Heister Willis Michoff of Muncie, which will be celebrated this evening at the home of the bride. The ceremony will be performed at eight o'clock. A large number of out-of-town guests are expected to be in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Draver, Mr. Robert Draver, Miss Dorothy Draver, Miss Florence Draver and Mr. Rodney Foulke motored to Indianapolis Saturday to witness the balloon ascension.

Mr. and Mrs. Bid Jones entertained recently at their beautiful country home, near Williamsburg. An elegant dinner was served at midday. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Enos Warfel of near Hagerstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Asa Pitts of Fountain City. After dinner the time was spent socially. An excellent musical program was given.

Mrs. Judson Rupe of South Fourteenth street, is out of the city for a few days.

The wedding of Miss Hazel Pitman and Mr. Edward Geier will be celebrated Wednesday morning at St. Andrew's church.

A shower will be given the latter part of the week for Miss Laura Thomas, a June bride.

Mrs. Edward Towne of Holyoke, Massachusetts, is in the city for a visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Carolyn Kelsey of New York City is the guest of Mrs. Elnora Likens, of South Eleventh street. Mrs. Kelsey will be a guest at the Likens-Rosenberry wedding.

While almost everything that looks inviting tastes good at a picnic, here is a batch of timely sandwiches whose proof lies in the eating. An appetizing one for the anemic child whose doctor says "all the bacon she can eat," consists of thin slices of bread and butter, between which is a layer of hard-boiled yolk of egg sifted through a ricer, and over this a thin, crispy slice of bacon.

Another good sandwich is made of finely grated or chopped pineapple and cream cheese. Cut thin slices of white or whole wheat bread, spread thinly with cheese, then add a layer of the pineapple drained free from juice and press the slices together. Cut in thin strips or triangles, but do not cut off the crumbs. If they are delicately browned and tender as they should be. Spinach boiled and chopped fine mixed with cream cheese and moistened with lemon juice and mayonnaise, makes an appetizing filling for sandwiches, as also a roll of Neufchatel cheese, creamed and mixed with a cupful chopped or pounded nuts, the whole flavored with a little salt and paprika. Brown or rye bread makes the best foundation for this sandwich.

The picnic dance to be given Monday afternoon and evening, at Jackson's park by the Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity, will probably be one of the most attractive features of the week's social schedule. The party, which will be composed of twenty couples, will leave the city about three o'clock in the afternoon. The fraternity is one of the most popular social organizations of this city. The affairs given by the members are always greatly enjoyed by those invited to attend.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated this morning at six o'clock in St. Andrew's church. The bride was Miss Rose Weiss and the groom Mr. John Bussen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Roell. The church was arranged with palms and ferns. The bride was becomingly attired in a beautiful gown of white silk batiste, elaborately trimmed with cluny lace. She carried a white prayer book. Her hat was a large picture one. She was attended by Miss Mary Bussen of Mountainsburg, Missouri. Miss Bussen wore a blue silk gown with hat and gloves to match. She carried a bouquet of carnations. The groom was attired by Mr. Leo Weiss. After the ceremony the guests went to the home of the bride, where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served. About thirty guests were served. Flowers and ferns were utilized in arranging the bride's table. Mr. and Mrs. Bussen left for a wedding trip. They will go to Mountainsburg for a visit. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends in this city, after July first.

Miss Edith Duke of this city attended a pretty miscellaneous shower given Saturday afternoon by the Misses Marie and Hazel Batty, at their home in Indianapolis, in honor of Miss Helen Nash, who will be married Wednesday. The decorations for the house were in pink and white. There were sixteen invited guests.

Mrs. John Mitchell of Sanford, Florida; formerly of this city, was a guest here today. Mrs. Mitchell will visit in Ohio and Michigan before returning home.

An especially attractive feature of the week's social calendar is the reception which will be given this evening at the Garfield school for members of the Art Association. The High School orchestra will furnish the music. Several addresses will also be given. Wednesday evening, the Earlham students will be invited to attend the exhibit. The members of the High school faculty and students of the school will receive Thursday evening. The guests will include the parents and friends of the students.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Reynolds will be at home after July first, at 519 West Second street, Dayton, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds are spending their honeymoon in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bowman and Mrs. Martha Bowman were guests of relatives at Hagerstown, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pullinger have returned home, after a week's visit in Milwaukee.

Nothing is more refreshing at the summer luncheon than grapefruit just off the ice and served with just a soupcon of maraschino. In service of several of several covers it is difficult to have all sections of grapefruit as thoroughly chilled as is necessary and every hostess will appreciate the sectional glasses, which make it possible to serve this refreshing fruit ice cold. The half section of grapefruit fits into a shallow glass cup and between this cup and a tall glass which stands at each place may be placed finely chopped ice. The tall glasses stand on plates to match and there are various sorts, ranging from inexpensive glass sets to most costly ones of Bohemian or finely cut glass.

The public is most cordially invited to attend the musical which will be given Friday evening at Earlham college under the direction of Miss Lucy Francisco. Pupils of Miss Kirk and Miss Edwards will also appear at this time. One of the attractive features of the program will be the appearance of the college chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jessup of Madison, Indiana, will come this week to spend the summer in this city. Mr. Jessup will have charge of the department of education in the summer school at Earlham college.

An informal company was given last evening by Miss Harriet Thompson for members of her class who will enter Garfield in the fall. The affair was held at the Warner school. Music and games were features of the evening. Luncheon was served.

If It Disappears, It's Eczema.

How to Tell Whether a Skin Affection is an Inherited Blood Disease or Not.

Sometimes it is hard to determine whether a skin affection is a sign of a blood disorder or simply a form of eczema. Even physicians are often puzzled in their diagnosis. The best way for any one afflicted is to go to W. H. Sudhoff's or any good druggist who handles pure drugs and obtain 50 cents' worth of poslam. Apply this, and if the itching stops at once and the trouble is cured in a few days it may be set down as having been eczema, as this is the way poslam acts in the worst cases of eczema, and in curing acne, herpes, blotches, tetters, piles, salt rheum, rash, barber's and other forms of itch, scaly scalp, and all surface skin affections.

Those who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York, can secure, by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion overnight and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment known as the "Old Maid's Convention" will be given at the Christian church, Wednesday evening, June 9, at 7:30 o'clock. Grotesque costumes, thrilling experiences and a demonstration of the "rejuvenating machine" with some lively music will constitute the program. Admission, 10 cents.

A Mighty Ruler,

Who Wisely Rules Himself

Curious what a scrap you have now and then (maybe two or three "nows" and several "thens") with what the old Scotchman called the "devilish part" of your make-up.

It's safe to say "you" and not miss the mark, for we all belong to the same lodge, and it seems to be a part of some great plan to try us out and see if we can thus earn the right to rule greater things. Most every day some one of the many "warriors of the enemy" comes across your pathway and puts up a scrap to see if he can rule.

You must be well trained and alert or he will make you bend the knee or, perhaps, break a leg or permanently cripple you.

There are several of these "enemies" which can be named over, but for the purpose of this article let us speak of the narcotics, the family which includes morphine, whiskey, coffee, cocaine, tea, tobacco, etc., all the same family, each member having a different degree of strength.

Now, coffee is perhaps one of the most plausible and deceitful of them all.

It has many friends, but coolly and cunningly knives them, and they don't know where the blow comes from.

Many and many a poor nervous wreck with a weak heart, suffers by day and lies sleepless at night without suspecting that his "dear old friend," Mr. Coffee, is quietly pushing him along towards the silent city. No, coffee don't hurt everyone by any manner of means, but it does pick out the highly organized individuals and wrecks them by the score.

Perhaps the victim realizes it, but has fallen time and again in the battle and been whipped so often that he has given up and bowed the head to the chain of his master.

"I simply cannot give up my coffee," is the wail, and so day by day he grovels and the master stretches him a few turns tighter on the rack of suffering.

Make sure of one thing. Once you become conscious of the fact that a fight is on, suffering follows steadily until you are able to rule.

Then comes the reward—comfort, health and happiness for the victor.

It is good work to stand right up and smash away with a "mailed fist," but it's much more comfortable to whip Mr. Coffee by throwing him "right over the side of the mountain" and give his place to Postum.

A steaming, fragrant cup of this famous beverage has the clear seal-brown color which changes to a rich golden brown under cream.

Of times, remarkable changes quickly follow the victory of one's better self over a known enemy. Peaceful sleep, balanced nerves, stronger heart, and all the joy which comes after the removal of a drug and its replacement with natural food elements which old Dame Nature is only too glad to seize upon for the building material so badly needed and so long denied.

Well, here's best wishes to you, reader. Hope you don't get "licked" to often, its weakening. Postum Cereal Company, Limited, Battle Creek, Michigan, U. S. A.
