

CATHOLIC BISHOP RUN OUT OF TOWN

Action Taken Against Church Dignitary Follows a Fierce Feud.

TWO PRIESTS ALSO LEAVE

TRIO WAS THREATENED WITH MOB VIOLENCE IF THEY REFUSED TO TAKE THE WARNING GIVEN THEM.

Ulysses, Neb., June 19.—A mob last night drove Catholic Bishop Bonacum of Lincoln and two priests who accompanied him out of town and threatened them with violence.

The action of the mob is the outcome of the long standing Bonacum-Murphy feud.

The bishop and his priests had come to Ulysses to formally take possession of the church here over which Father Murphy has held charge. Sympathizers of Father Murphy, both Catholics and non-Catholics, joined the mob and would have done violence to the bishop and party had it not been for the strenuous efforts of Father Murphy, who counseled the mob to do no violence and who requested that the visitors be let alone.

Enemies Make Him Walk. So threatening, however, was the aspect that Father O'Brien secured a livery rig and, taking Bishop Bonacum and Father Cline, left in the direction of David City. This rig was followed with an automobile with church enemies of the bishop.

The rig was overtaken three miles from town and the bishop and priests were forced to get out and walk and the liveryman was made to drive back to Ulysses without his charges. When last seen the bishop and his party were walking north along the road toward David City. They were not harmed, but threats were made to "egg them," "mob them," and to treat them to various indignities.

Marked by Turbulence. Bishop Bonacum has been in charge of the see of Lincoln ever since its creation twenty-three years ago. His career has been marked with turbulence and by an iron determination on his part to ride down all obstacles. He came to Lincoln from St. Louis, where he was a priest of high rank.

Ordinarily the priests of a diocese are permitted when the bishop is to be chosen to suggest three names, from which the selection is made at Rome. For some reason this procedure was not followed here and thus the new bishop found himself in a hostile atmosphere from the beginning.

Has Clash With Murphy.

One of the most sensational actions of the bishop was the barring of the gates of heaven to the Rev. Father William Murphy of Harvard, Neb. This action was taken after a quarrel of ten years' standing in which the prelate and priest had been embroiled many times with sensational results. The bishop's action was a revival of a new almost obsolete power assumed by the hierarchy of the church of Rome.

BODY AT XENIA, OHIO.

Xenia, O., June 19.—President Dovey of the Boston National League club died at 4:10 this morning on the Pennsylvania train between Columbus and this city. The body was taken off the train here. Dovey was apparently healthy when he boarded the train.

A Lucky Illness.

It was owing to an illness that Sir Laurence Alma-Tadema became a painter. He was educated with the intention of making him a lawyer, but sickness cut his studies short. When confined to his bed he relieved the tedium by making little sketches. These showed so much ability that when he was well again he readily obtained his mother's permission to devote himself to painting.

The Music Department of The Earlham College Summer School opens Monday, June 21st. Miss Francisco will offer work in Piano and Voice. Miss Mary Teas will have a class in Public School Music.

Proceeds Will Go to the Wernle Orphans' Home.

A large number of tickets have been sold for the benefit game for Wernle Orphans' home which will be played tomorrow morning between teams composed of local butchers and bartenders. The butchers promise to slaughter the bartenders, while the latter are expecting to treat the butchers to an awful defeat. In the bartenders lineup will probably appear several faces familiar to local teams in the years past. Justice will be at his old post at second base and "Bud" Lally at third or short or possibly pitcher. The butchers likewise have a strong lineup.

Deep Breathing and Character. We are beginning to learn the value to health and lungs of the habit of "deep breathing." To throw our windows wide open, breathe in fresh air so deeply that not only the lungs, but the whole of the body right down to the hips, is expanded, exercised and bathed with clean air, prevents chest weakness and consumption and helps to cure anemia and bad temper.—Exchange.

COURT DOUBTFUL ABOUT THE YARN

Crosses His Fingers at Freeman's Fish Story.

"Now, down on my farm there is a bayou and it is chuck full of fish. Why it is so full that they crowd each other out of the water. Go along the pond in the evening and you can hear them feeding along the banks. The noise resembles a hog pen. They have eaten all the grass and green stuff as far back from the water as they can reach. Found one spot where the grass was all nibbled off about ten feet from the water. My tenant says he saw a carp leap out of the pond, eat until he was satisfied and then flop back. Bet he ate as much as a cow. Why, down there they shoot fish. A man shot a bass in my pond weighing six pounds."—P. J. Freeman, in circuit court room.

Judge Fox and Tom Study don't believe it.

HARD TO DECIDE ON THE PICTURE

Art Association Board Ponders as to What Action It Will Take.

NO DECISION IS REACHED

SOME FAVOR BUYING ONLY ONE CANVAS, WHILE OTHERS INSIST THAT TWO PICTURES SHOULD BE BOUGHT.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Richmond Art association at the Garfield building last evening, the question of purchasing one or more pictures, now on display at the art exhibit, with the $1000 fund, was considered at some length but no definite decision was reached. The secretary of the board is now in communication with several of the painters of the pictures which seem to be the most popular, endeavoring to obtain their lowest price for their works. Another meeting will be held Monday at which time the question will probably be settled.

Have a Big Fund.

The board, owing to the magnificent gift of Daniel G. Reid of New York and also because the Richmond public raised a similar amount has a larger purchasing fund than ever before. Among some of the members it is considered advisable to pay the entire amount for one picture while others believe that two or more pictures should be purchased. There is also a strong following of supporters of local artists who are urging that the pictures be selected from their exhibit.

The pictures from which, it is understood, the board will most probably select one or more are:
Landscape by John Alexander, No. 21, price $750; The Glass Bowl, by John Alexander, No. 22, price $2,500; Cloudy Sunset, by Charles H. Davis, No. 46, price $1,000; Peonies, by Robert Reid, No. 118, price $1,200; The Bath, by Hugh Ballin, No. 23, price $2,000; Girl in Yellow Satin Dress, by Robert Henri, price $2,000; At Play, by William M. Chase, No. 36, price not quoted.

THINK A BURGLAR TRIED BREAK IN

West Richmond Man Tells of Experience.

Would be burglars or a Peeping Tom are believed to have visited the home of William Mowery on Richmond Avenue, Thursday night. Mr. Mowery was awakened by the barking of a fox terrier dog, which seldom barks when in the house. The little dog seemed frantic and Mr. Mowery could hear him scampering about in the rooms below. Mr. Mowery looked from an upstairs window and saw a man standing at a window to a room on the lower floor immediately below him. He turned on the lights and immediately the nocturnal visitor disappeared.

The Mather Bros. company was awarded the contract for coal for the court house and jail. The bid of $2,774 per ton for coal at the court house and $3,224 at the jail was the lowest of the four received. The bid of one of the coal dealers was invalid because of failure to submit check.

CLAIMED A NEGRO ASSAULTED WHITE

John Green, Colored, Placed On Trial in the City Court Today.

MADE PLEA OF NOT GUILTY

PLAINTIFF ALLEGED HIS ASSAILANT TRIED TO STRIKE HIM WITH KNIFE—DEFENDANT DENIED STORY.

John Green, colored, was tried in city court this afternoon on the charge of assault and battery on William E. Brannon, a young white man. Green pleaded not guilty and put up a defense aided by an attorney. Brannon claimed the defendant attempted to strike him with a knife.

Brannon said he was seated in the doorway at the office of the Starr coal company, when Green, a former employee came along last evening. Green asked a number of questions about the business and if he could get a job. After parleying a while he told Brannon, according to the latter, that he had come to get him and intended to cut him to pieces. Brannon arose and Green is said to have drawn a knife. He made a slash at Brannon's stomach, but he jumped back and avoided the knife blade. Brannon secured a couple of stones from the gutter and after throwing them at Green, the latter fled. Brannon claimed Green was under the influence of liquor. Mrs. Brannon, who was a witness to the affair testified.

Fog Filters in London.

"All London fog buildings are now erected with fog filters," said an architect. "They are essential. London's yellow brown fog, made of the smoke of a million soft coal fires, smells of sulphur, irritates eyes and throat and causes headache. It penetrates houses. Walking on a winter morning, you can't see across your bedroom for it. So now all public buildings filter it. The air is drawn in one orifice only, and fans hurl it against curtains of cotton six inches thick. It is forced through these curtains. It comes out on the other side for distribution through the various rooms a fairly clean, pure, transparent air. But the white filter curtains! Every day they must be changed. It takes only an hour to gray them, and by nightfall they are as black as ink."

Scottish Impartiality.

Color sergeant of highland company (in which were one or two English) calling the roll:

"John Jones?"

MRS. GOULD SAYS SHE IS CONFIDENT

Expects to Contradict All the Evidence Her Husband Introduced.

GOULD MAY BE WITNESS

IT IS THOUGHT PROBABLE THAT HE WILL GO ON THE STAND MONDAY—FARNUM GETS INTO THE LIMELIGHT.

New York, June 19.—"I never doubted the outcome of this trial," said Mrs. Katherine Clemmons Gould today, in speaking of her suit for separation from Howard Gould before Justice Dowling in the Supreme court. "We will have many witnesses in rebuttal who will contradict every bit of testimony given against me."

When her suit is continued in the supreme court before Justice Dowling on Monday, the defense will continue with witnesses to swear that the former actress was given too much to drink and to also tell of the attentions paid to her by Dustin Farnum. Mr. Gould himself may testify.

Looked Peculiar. For a time Friday it looked as though Mr. Gould was getting evidence in his suit for divorce and was the plaintiff instead of the defendant in the present action. Not a chance was missed by Delancey Nicolli, of counsel for Gould, to show that Farnum was devoted in his attentions to Mrs. Gould.

All this will be denied, however, when Mrs. Gould calls her witnesses in rebuttal, which may not be until late next week. It was expected that Howard Gould would be called to the stand last evening, but the long-drawn-out testimony of other witnesses prevented it.

FUNERAL IS SUNDAY

Her father was at that time judge of the Randolph circuit court. Later he removed with his family to Centerville, then the county seat of Wayne county and soon afterwards was elected judge of the Wayne county circuit court. It was while he was living in Centerville that he was elected secretary of state under Governor Oliver P. Morton. Judge Peelle died but a few years ago.
