

SENSATIONAL WAS FINISH OF RACE

With Car Aflame and Mechanic Senseless, Chevrolet Was Winner.

WINNING CAR WAS A BUICK

BOUQUE IN A KNOX CAR FINISH-ED SECOND, WHILE ROBERT-
SON IN LOCOMOBILE WAS THIRD PLACE WINNER.

Crown Point, Ind., June 19.—Louis Chevrolet, driving a Buick car, that was a mass of flames for fifty miles, with his mechanician lying unconscious on his seat beside the driver, won the Cobe cup auto race this afternoon by a margin of one minute and five seconds. Bouque in a Knox car was second, and Robertson, in a Locomobile, was third.

A. Wright Davis, of New York, was injured, perhaps seriously, in the rush for the course today when a hired car driven by Martin Dees crashed into the rear of the Davis machine, throwing Mr. Davis into a barbed wire fence. Mr. Davis is declared to have sustained internal injury.

A small wooden stand, situated on the course near the Cedar Lake dip gave way at one corner, causing a panic among the men, women and children crowded into the small space. No one was seriously injured. Several women fainted and were carried down from the stand.

HE WANTS A WINNER

President Ebbets of Brooklyn
Team Ready to Spend
$20,000

SEARCHING FOR PLAYERS

Chicago, June 19.—President Ebbets of the Brooklyn club, says that he has $20,000 to spend for ball players if he can get men that will strengthen his ball club. He says that he is not looking for stars or world-beaters, but if anybody can show him a few good reliable ball players he will gladly give up any sum within reason to land them.

Mr. Ebbets isn't sitting down and waiting for these needed ball players to come and show themselves, either. He is studying the minor league dope and doing all the scouting that he can. Upon an open day in the schedule he was in Milwaukee, where the Brew town team was playing Minneapolis as he wanted to look over both teams and see if he could find a man or two who would be a help to him.

AN EATING SCHOOL

Budapest, Hungary, June 19.—It was thought that this city had schools of every description, but it remained for an enterprising lady named Holker to establish a school to instruct our citizens in the gentle art of eating. Practical demonstrations will be given in table manners, but the chief aim of the establishment is to teach the ignorant how to deal successfully with such dishes as they never heard of before.

Examinations will be held at the end of each term, when the students will be required to attack an array of unknown delicacies set before them. Those who undergo the ordeal successfully will obtain a certificate from Frau Holker which will enable them to face any banquet without flinching.

WANT HARVARD MAN FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Chicago Police Making a Thorough Search.

Chicago, June 19.—Jas. Francis Horton, forty years old, said to be a Harvard graduate, formerly of New York and Pittsburgh, but more recently of the Greenwood Inn, Evanston, is being sought by Central station detectives on a charge of embezzlement. He is accused of having obtained $1,400 from Charles H. Canode and $2,500 from Frederick Canode, through a plan to promote the Bronson-Canode printing company's business.

NATIONAL LEAGUE SUFFERED A LOSS

President Expresses Regret
Over Death of Dovey.

New York, June 19.—When apprised of the sudden death of President Dowdy of the Boston National League baseball team today, Acting President John A. Huydler, of the National League, said: "The entire National League, as well as the Boston team, suffers a heavy loss in his death. His game and of late, winning fight against the handicaps of a losing team, stamped him as one of the best sportsmen in the organization. His last official act was the claiming of Thomas, released by Pittsburg, for Boston."

T. P. A. Notes

(By T. C. Harrington.)
Keep on boozing.

Wear a T. P. A. button.

From the appearance of our exchanges, there are a few other "upstarts" scattered over the state of Indiana.

Harvey Gard, now with the Moore Oil Co., of Cincinnati, is home for a short vacation, having come direct from Asheville, N. C. "Harve" missed the convention only a few days, which he regretted very much.

Sam Ford, Newton Jenkins, J. B. Hegger, Phillip Twigg, Harry Wooster and several others represented the T. P. A. of Richmond at the Dayton celebration Friday.

Has any one found Hegger's return ticket from Dayton? A liberal reward is offered for its return.

Don't neglect to pay your dues. To neglect to do so might find you in a rather embarrassing place if an accident happened to you. It is just as easy to be prompt, so hand your dues to Secretary Hasty or mail it direct to W. D. Chambers, Terre Haute, Indiana. $5.50 pays your dues to January 1, 1910. You can not afford to let your membership lapse, because when you are least prepared something is sure to happen. Always be sure you are in position to receive all the benefits of your organization.

Why can't we have more active press chairmen? Of the entire twenty-four posts in Indiana only seven or eight are maintaining news columns. These papers, we notice, are very much in demand by our post and are read with a great amount of pleasure and interest.

It is an excellent means of keeping in touch with what other posts throughout the state are doing and aids materially to hold our interest in the T. P. A. organization. So let us have more of these press men busy. Chairman Ryan should get out his little stick—or big stick—as the case may be, and line up every post in Indiana with a live chairman of the press committee.

David Sands, formerly with Pogue, Miller & Co., has accepted a position with Hibberd, Spenser, Bartlett & Co., wholesale hardware, and will be employed to Chicago. He will be employed in the house.

Next Saturday night is the regular monthly meeting, and as this session, in all probability, will be the last until cooler weather, a large attendance is desired. We expect this meeting to be a real live one, with plenty of fireworks, and a great display of oratory is looked for. A few things have happened recently, to which the "knocker" department has taken exceptions, and they promise to appeal their case to the highest tribunal. Don't fail to be on hand and help make this meeting the best ever.

The regular meeting of the board of directors was held last night. G. A. Mendenhall was elected by the board to succeed J. H. Thomas, resigned.

One consoling thought—Missouri had come to Indiana for her presidential candidate.

Chairman Tooker of the arrangements committee, and Chairman Hegger, of the social committee, have started a good thing, and now let everybody push it along. "Picnic," shouted "Took," and "Picnic" came the response from the little German band.

And it looks as if a picnic is coming from everybody, so picnic it must be. This picnic start is just the proper thing, and every member of the post would be tickled to death to have chance to get out in the country for a day. Of course, lots of good things to eat would be the order, with lots of genuine Plymouth Rocks, or some other good brand, as the main show. With "Took" looking after the chicken and all the other side line edibles, Hegger would be on the job with a complete line of amusements. He might arrange a game of ball between the "Knockers" and the "Boosters," or between the fats and the anti-fats, or if that failed, a game between the Dutch and the Irish could not fail to draw at the box office. Other heavy attractions, such as climbing a greased pole, in which Quigley would shine, or doing a double flop, or a long distance race; in such event Lebo could be able to show everybody how to run some. A new game of criss-cross, or double-cross, could be tried with O'Brien leading one side and Hegger the other, with O'Meara, if he cared to be present, acting as official referee—rules for this game being revised by Pat himself. Thatcher would show us how to go out of one door and come in another and never miss a drop. With all these attractions the day could be wound up with a grand balloon ascension by "Shorty" Shreve, because "Shorty" is sure long on balloons and balloon races. This picnic would be one continual round of pleasure, and would go down in T. P. A. history as one of the greatest ever.

It seems that Sam Ford, Tooker and Hegger were conducting a side attraction at Dayton in opposition to the Wright celebration. "Took" and Hegger got Sam started by telling him a line of funny stories, and they soon had a crowd around them in the lobby of the Phillips House that bid fair to break up the doings outside. The same game was pulled off in the Beckel Hotel, with a much larger crowd present. All the time this was detracting from the parade and other official attractions. Finally Sam ran short on money in the future without the price of a ticket. "Boys," said Sam, "you run on ahead and get the train and hold a seat and I will step in and get three chicken sandwiches." So run ahead the boys did to find no train scheduled at the time Sam said. Back the boys came, looking for Sam. "Well," said Sam, "you are dandies.

You ran away and let me order these chicken sandwiches and I had to pay the whole bill—$1.50. Now give me 50 cents each so I can go in and get them." Up came the 50 cents from Hegger and "Took," and Sam went after the chicken, but it was gone. "Well, boys," laughed Sam, "I am now ready for Richmond at 9:23." Now everybody wonders whether Sam ever ordered the chicken, and some think he even stole Hegger's return ticket.

Elmer Lebo was in Indianapolis yesterday attending a meeting of the state board of directors. He returns with the information that Indiana will go to Ft. Wayne next year one thousand stronger in membership than at the present time. This sounds like business, and a little like Lebo. We hope it is no joke he is trying to spring on us.

Don't forget the meeting next Saturday night.

THE THEATER

NEW PHILLIPS.
All Week—High Class Vaudeville.

The New Phillips.

Combination action, music and comedy, the New Phillips will have a bill commencing tomorrow that promises great things. The Otoro Troupe of acrobats have the head liner, and it is very evident that they are good or they would not be given the head liner in preference to good comedians and musicians. They furnish the action.

Miss Gladys Marion Hill, a pretty little girl, is representing a gypsy girl violinist and is a wonder both in good looks and ability. She furnishes the music.

Henning and Morelle are there with the comedy and come across with a fine line of it. All told, the bill is extraordinary.

At the Arcade.

The Arcade is always ready to pay high prices for the acts they believe will please the public. For this reason the management contracted with Signor Desmond, the celebrated Italian baritone, for the summer months, as a figure hitherto deemed impossible for a five cent theater. Desmond is a member of one of the best musical acts (3 man) ever booked by the Theatrical Trust in this country. They played the Orpheum circuit at $600 a week all last winter.

At the close of the season two of the singers returned to Italy and one remained in this country for the summer. It was for this reason that the Arcade was fortunate enough to secure Signor Desmond, one of the sweetest singers ever heard in Richmond, for a few months. On October first he joins his act in New York. The audiences at the Arcade last week were the most enthusiastic ever known in that popular little theater. The public most certainly has a treat within their reach for the warm months to come.

Carloota Grisi complained to Rossini that Giulia Grisi's success as a singer obliged her to fall back upon the dancer's profession.

"What would you more, my child?" he replied. "Giulia has stolen the nightingale's voice, but she has left you its wings."
