

SENATOR BAILEY TAKES THE FLOOR

He Addresses the Senate This Afternoon on the Tariff Question.

HE WAS NOT SENSATIONAL

TARIFF AND NOT COST OF PRODUCTION STANDARD BY WHICH PRICE OF MANUFACTURED GOODS IS FIXED.

Washington, June 24.—Senator Bailey of Texas delivered an address before the senate today on the tariff question that lasted several hours. There was nothing sensational in his remarks. He reviewed the situation as he sees it and declared democrats favor no tariff and that republicans are responsible for existing conditions.

He said in part: "Even if we had a moral right to exempt the manufacturer from taxes in order that he might exempt his customers from excessive charges, the plan proposed would not accomplish the object which its supporters have in mind; or at least, it could not accomplish that object if the democratic party has been right on this tariff question. We have always claimed—and I believe that we are right in claiming it—that no matter how much or how little it may cost the manufacturer to produce his goods, he will charge the American people as much as he can without subjecting himself to foreign competition."

Tariff is Standard. We have always insisted that the tariff, and not the cost of production, is the standard according to which the price of manufactured goods is fixed. Every democrat in both houses of congress who has spoken on this question during this long debate has predicated his opposition to the pending bill upon the ground that its high duties are levied for the purpose of excluding foreign manufactures from our markets, and thus enable the domestic manufacturer to obtain unconscionable prices for his goods. We have repeatedly and expressly contended that the manufacturers are not content to reimburse themselves for the cost of producing their goods and adding a fair profit to that; but protected from foreign competition by high tariff duties, they will prey upon the American consumer without conscience and without remorse.

FARWIG MAY ENTER

Reported He is Considering Making Race for the Mayor's Office.

OTHERS ARE MENTIONED

Henry Farwig, formerly of the baseball promoters in this city and a well known citizen, is mentioned quite frequently as a candidate for the democratic nomination of mayor. Mr. Farwig himself has broached the matter to friends and is said to be considering the matter very seriously.

As opponents, it is said he will have C. B. Beck, former county chairman, and C. E. Merrill, city clerk. Friends of Jacob Lichtensfels are also urging him to make the race.

The democratic primary has not been set. It is probably that it will be held during September. The candidates will be selected at a mass meeting of the party.

Elinor Glyn Finds That The American Women are Stylish

New York, June 24.—While Elinor Glyn doesn't think much of our men as love makers, judging from her latest book, "Elizabeth Visits America," which has just been brought out in America, she says some nice things about our women, but in wading through the compliments we find this hidden thorn:

"It appears that Elizabeth was informed that the high standard of morality among American women is not so much their fault as it is through fear of gossip among intoxicated members of the clubs for young men."

Mrs. Glyn gives the American women credit for adopting the latest fashions, and admits their clothes are perfectly made, while their hair is done exactly as it is worn in Paris.

"Their figures," she says, "have the 'last' look and their jewels are simply divine. With all this beyond criticism it is very difficult to say whether they are beautiful or not, the general effect is so perfect. They, so far as grooming and superlative 'turned-outness' is concerned (I had to make a new word) are the counterpart of our guardsmen."

As to the appearance of American men, the author of "Three Weeks" thinks they lack an "outdoor" expres-

LEAVE RIDGEVILLE

Epworth Society Delegates From Richmond Had a Good Time.

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

The Richmond delegation in attendance at the twentieth annual convention of the Richmond district of the Epworth league of the North Indiana M. E. conference, returned home last evening from Ridgeville after the adjournment of the session. The convention was well attended and a success from every standpoint. Dunkirk was the place selected for the meeting of the convention next year. The officers elected at yesterday's session include Roscoe Thomas, of Cleveland, president; Miss Carrie Moffett of Ogden, first vice president; Miss Gertrude Fraze of Ridgeville, second vice president; Miss Addie Lewis of Mechanicsburg, third vice president; Miss Effie Cooper of Middletown, fourth vice president; George Linville of Salamonia, secretary; M. E. Barrett of Dublin, treasurer and Miss Leora Lloyd of Spiceland, junior league superintendent.

MEETS PICKPOCKET.

New York, June 24.—Herman Helmarich of Pittsburg, accompanied by his wife, two daughters and a party of friends, were returning to their hotel early today on a trolley car, from a visit in Harlem when Helmarich discovered another passenger trying to steal his watch. He set up the cry of "theft and aprang for the pickpocket who jumped off the car. All the men passengers left the car and joined in the chase for the man who escaped after dropping the watch.

BAPTISTS ARE NOW HOLDING SESSION

Whitewater Valley Association Opens Meeting at Cambridge City.

A. PARKER IS MODERATOR

AT NOON TODAY IT APPEARED PROBABLE THAT THE PROPOSED DISTRICT DIVISION WOULD BE ACCOMPLISHED.

Cambridge City, June 24.—It was believed at noon today that only two delegations of the seven churches represented in the Whitewater Valley Baptist Association, in session at the Baptist church of this place today would object to the association being discontinued and the churches divided between the Salamonia and the Flat Rock associations. The session opened this morning and the first business considered was that of organization. Rev. Addison Parker of Richmond, being selected as moderator, and Charles Limburger of Cambridge City as clerk.

Action is Certain.

The delegations from the Connersville, Cambridge City, Richmond and Pipe creek churches favored discontinuing the Whitewater Valley association owing to difficulty in communicating with one another. When the association meets, roundabout ways of travel are necessary for some of the delegates to reach the place of meeting. With these delegations controlling the majority of votes it appeared at noon that the change would be made when a vote was taken this afternoon.

It is probable that the Cambridge City, Richmond and Elkhorn churches will be transferred to the Salamonia district which includes Muncie, New Castle, Anderson and other cities. The other churches in the district will be transferred to the Flat Rock district.

AN UNWRITTEN LAW CASE GETS HEARING

Nineteen Year Old Boy, the Defendant, Tells Jury a Strange Story.

SHOOTS TO SAVE SISTER

LAD RESCUES MAN WHO RAN OFF WITH HIS SISTER AND SHOOTS HIM, HE ALLEGES, FOR SELF DEFENSE.

Chicago, June 24.—The first "unwritten law" case to be tried in the criminal court is on trial before Judge Kersten. Michael Pacellani, 19 years old, told a dramatic story of the killing of Frank Serina, who had eloped with his sister to New York. Pacellani and his sister, Mrs. Josie Fresso, were the principal witnesses. Both testified virtually to the same facts.

Lad's Testimony.

"My sister disappeared suddenly in March," said Pacellani. "I found her with Serino at the home of his uncle in New York. He threatened to kill me and said he had my sister and was going to keep her. I told him I would pay all the expenses back to Chicago if he would come home with my sister. He consented and we started back."

"When we reached Chicago he took hold of my sister's arm and called her a bad name. I thought he was going to kill me. I drew my revolver and fired three times. He fell over and I was arrested."

HEARD IN OCTOBER

Option Law Constitutionality Cases Have All Been Postponed.

COURT TO ADJOURN SOON

Indianapolis, June 24.—(Special).—It was announced today that the supreme court will not pass on any of the cases before it concerning the county option law until October. The McPherson case from Hamilton county involving the constitutionality of the law, was set down for ruling before the court adjourned for the summer, June 30, but the attorneys for McPherson asked that it go over the vacation period and the state in consenting asked that all other cases concerning the law be continued till that time. Most interest now centers in the case of Gilbert Williams, Wabash, wherein is concerned the question of the meaning of the phrase, "Passage of this act." The decision concerns all licenses issued between September 26 and November 20, 1908, in counties which have since voted dry. Two additional cases from Crawfordsville and Noblesville attack the constitutionality of the act.

Leaders in Summer Clothing Needs...

There is a swing and a style to our Summer Suits that's compelling. The elegance of the fit, the snappiness of the build, the correct hang of the trousers—that is just what the well dressed man demands. But there is another thing besides the style that you can be sure of when buying clothes with the Krone & Kennedy guarantee—that the clothes are made, to last, that the work is there to make them keep their shape. That's mighty important to know.

A GROCERY BURNS IN FIERCE RAIN

Hissen Store in North End Badly Damaged by Fierce Night Blaze.

GASOLINE LAMP IS CAUSE

LOSS ON STOCK, BUILDING AND RESIDENCE FURNITURE IS ESTIMATED AT $400—RAIN AIDS FIREMEN.

The grocery and residence of Thos. Hissen, Twelfth and North H streets was damaged by fire last night. The loss on the stock, building and residence furniture approximates $400. The cause of the fire is not known definitely. An oil lamp is suggested as the probable cause.

The alarm was sounded a few minutes before 11 o'clock. The fire department had a long run through a downpour of rain. The water was falling in torrents and this fact helped the work of the firemen materially. Had it not been raining it is probable the flames would have secured a start before the arrival of the department that would have caused the building to be consumed entirely. Chemicals were found to be of no avail and a line of hose had to be laid. The furniture that was not burned was damaged badly by the heat and smoke.

WEST SIDERS TO MEET TOMORROW

Will Discuss Street Sprinkling Question.

The West Richmond Improvement association will meet tomorrow evening.

ing at the Baxter school building in adjourned session. The question of street sprinkling will come up for discussion. The National road is in need of immediate attention owing to the great clouds of dust that blow over it.

It is used incessantly and residents along the thoroughfare have exhausted their resources to find some method of putting down the dust satisfactorily. It may be that the street will have to be oiled again.

Do Children Need Alcohol?

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Then ask him about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla as a tonic for the young.
