CRIME HAS SEQUEL

St. Louis, Mo., July 10.—Mrs. Fred R. Mohrle, widow of "Yellow Kid" Mohrle, who shot and killed Constable Sam Young, and who was in turn killed herself, by one of Young's friends, attempted suicide this morning, with the same pistol which "Yellow Kid" killed Young with. She is in the hospital with a bullet in her left breast, and her recovery is doubtful.

FULTON MODEL IS LAUNCHED TODAY

Steamer Exact Replica of the First Craft Made by The Inventor.

FOR USE IN CELEBRATION

VESSEL WAS CHRISTENED BY GREAT GRANDDAUGHTER OF ROBERT FULTON, MRS. ARTHUR TAYLOR SUTCLIFFE.

New York, July 10.—The Clermont, an exact model of Robert Fulton's first steamboat, which will be used in the Hudson-Fulton celebration, was launched today in the presence of the Hudson-Fulton celebration committee. Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, president of the commission, made a speech and the vessel was christened by Mrs. Arthur Taylor Sutcliffe, great granddaughter of Robert Fulton. The United States steamship Wasp boomed out a sixteen gun salute during the ceremony.

To Go to Albany.

The newly built Clermont is an exact replica of the first steamboat, and was built by the Hudson-Fulton celebration commission to play an important part in the celebration in the fall. The boat is 150 feet long, 18 feet wide, 7 feet deep and draws two feet of water. Its sides are almost straight up and down and both ends are wedge shaped. It will be equipped with a replica of the original engine and will make the trip up the river to Albany under its own steam.

This Will Soon Be Released, Says Bond.

With the exception of one smallpox case on Ft. Wayne avenue the city is free from contagion, according to a statement of Dr. Charles Bond today. It is probable that this case will be released from quarantine the early part of next week. Dr. Bond is very hopeful that the long siege of contagion is over. There have been no other contagious diseases reported this month.

ALICE AND WRIGHTS

Aeroplane Inventors Show Mrs. Longworth Wonderful Machine.

SHE MAY BE A PASSENGER

Washington, July 10.—It is believed here today that Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, who is showing much interest in the flights of the Wrights will ask to be a passenger on one of the trial trips. She went to Fort Myer in her runabout and when the Wright brothers were informed of her presence, the taciturn Wilbur advanced, cap in hand, with a smile on his face.

Mrs. Longworth skipped nimbly over the rope stretched around the shed and greeted the aviator with cordiality. Orville met them at the entrance to the shed, and for half an hour the young inventors vied with each other in explaining all the intricacies of the machine to Mrs. Longworth.

GRAND DUKE WAS GIVEN A PARDON

Nobleman Married Sweetheart: Czar Got Sore.

St. Petersburg, July 10.—With the arrival here of the Grand Duke Cyril, oldest son of the late Grand Duke Vladimir, it became known today that the Czar has forgiven Cyril for marrying the Grand Duchess Victoria of Hesse, who was the divorced wife of the Russian Emperor's brother.

The Grand Duke Cyril has taken up his residence at Czarskoe Selo with his wife and two daughters. After his marriage he and his family were denied access to the Russian court. Cyril was recently permitted to return to Russia to attend the funeral of the Grand Duke Alexis. The permission granted his wife to appear in court circles was due to the intercession of the Grand Duke Boris, his brother.

CONTINUE CRUSADE

The crusade against train jumpers is being continued. In city court this afternoon Walter S. Lowe was fined $1 and costs. Lowe said he caught a train at the Thirteenth street crossing and rode to the Glen. He said he never thought about violating the law and took the ride only as a means of getting to his work. It was the first trouble he has been in.

IS OVERCOME TODAY

Overcome by the heat while working in the boiler shop at Gear, Scott & Company's plant this morning, James Wilson was rendered prostrate. It was necessary to remove him to the hospital in the city ambulance. He is expected to recover quickly.

Dr. S. O. Markley was named by the board of county commissioners today to succeed Dr. Minnie Hervey as physician at the home of the friendless. Dr. Hervey has resigned to leave the city. Dr. Markley has held the position before.

BURGLARS FACING SERIOUS CHARGE

Believed to Be Men Who Killed Man Whose Dismembered Body Was Found.

New York, July 10.—Convinced that the two burglars who shot down and killed Mrs. Sophia Staber in her home, 455 East Eighteenth street, Flatbush, are the slayers of Samuel Bersin, the young painter whose dismembered body, wrapped in oilcloth, was found in Oliver street nearly two months ago, the police today are to bring Joseph Totaro, the boy with whom Bersin's body was left, before the prisoners in an attempt to identify them.

Inspector McCafferty is so positive that the baffling mystery has at last been solved that he said today he intended to formally charge the two burglars of Bersin's murder.

The theory of the police is based on the finding of a piece of oilcloth identical to the same as was wrapped around the dismembered body in the room of the Flatbush burglars. Other articles found in the room, including a picture of a beautiful young girl, the police say, strengthened this new theory. Robbery, it was said, was the motive for the crime.

Jonh A. Conkey, the Main street druggist, was acquitted of the charge of selling liquor without a license in city court this afternoon. Harry Roach was the prosecuting witness.
