TEN GREAT BARGAIN DAYS

Extraordinary values in First Class Merchandise. Read the statement we make herewith and take advantage of the opportunity to supply your requirements in our line

The quotation of prices gives no intelligent idea of values, except it be on staple brands of merchandise. These we could name and challenge comparison, but believe it unnecessary, for we have the goods, and the prices will speak for themselves when they are quoted to the buyer. Sufficient it is to say that we expect to make these 10 days a Bargain Buying Opportunity, and the prudent buyer will take advantage of it.

In this department, we also carry our Table Linens, Napkins, Towels and Towelings. Among these we have some of the choicest values ever put over our counters, and if anyone has immediate or prospective need of anything in this line—here is the opportune time to buy.
