OUR SOCIETY EDITOR TELLS ABOUT AFFAIR

She Is Sorry Because the Sheriff Got Cracked on the Pin, and Thinks Wilfred Jessup Is Funny.

(By the Society Editor.)

One of the most delightful balls of the summer season was that given yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Meredith at his summer home, the athletic park. Assisting the sheriff were one or two members of the legal profession and others including Mr. "Red" Ireton and the Hon. "Tacks" Bradfield. The Rev. "Jack" Coyle and Magistrate Chas. Potter presided at the punch bowl. They were quite efficient and were particularly generous in the way they ladled out the refreshments to the guests, who consisted of the newspaper men of the city.

As a departure from the usual custom, baseball was played instead of whist. A team captained by the host was not the least bit hospitable and when the gates were closed in the seventh round the hand painted score cards showed the sheriff had eight punches in his card and the journalists but three.

Three Tried Men.

The newspaper men encountered more than they expected in the opposition. Wilfred Jessup and Ray Shiveley, Charles Ladd, Bob Study, Will Reller and Fred White constituted the legal team.

Of course "our boys" were surprised at the antics of Mr. Ladd, who I heard somebody say was the pitcher for the Meredith team. Mr. Ladd very much resembles a fishing pole but when he ties up before throwing the ball he looks more like a long binder whip about to reach out over the patient horses. He must have been real mean, because it seemed the men from the newspaper offices could not bat when he threw. He seemed to become fatigued after about four innings and then our boys hit the ball more frequently.

It was really too bad when the sheriff was hit on the leg by a foul ball. Everybody liked the sheriff and when he was hit women in the grand stand were heard to cry. He had received a blow on the finger a short time before and it took two men to put it back in place. My they must have pulled hard. His limb swelled until it was with difficulty that he walked.

She Thought Him Funny.

One of the funniest things was to see Wilfred Jessup run down to first base and his younger brother try to throw him out. Each step taken by the Centerville Sycamores carried him ten feet nearer the bag and Jessup, Jr. had no chance in the world to beat him with the ball. That was a nice little red cap he wore. Why didn't other players wear them for good luck? Ray Shiveley caught one ball and persons near me were heard to say he didn't know he had it.

I thought it real kind of Mr. Parry, who was on our nine, you know, to throw the ball over Mr. Warfel's head and lose it in the grass. That let three men get home. Afterward I learned the game was to try and keep them away from home instead of helping them there. I presume Mr. Parry didn't mean to do it. My goodness, but didn't Mr. Craig make a brilliant catch out in right field? Bet his wife likes him for that. Mr. Poundstone couldn't find the ball once, the weeds were so high, but after two men had come home, he picked it up from right between his feet. I don't know why he didn't pick it up sooner.

Real Laughable.

It was real laughable to see the way the opposition scampered around the bases whenever our boys lost the ball. Along near the last of the game, Mr. Potter, whom they told me was an umpire, took sides against the newspaper men and played with the sheriff's nine. That left the game unprotected as the other umpire, Mr. Coyle, who plays on the fire department was busy up near home plate keeping the crowd off the grounds. The city editor told me to be sure and get the score, but I forgot it.

This is the way they said they lined up:

A SOUTH AMERICAN WAR IS PROBABLE

Argentine Republic Has Given The Bolivian Minister His Passport.

ARBITRATION THE CAUSE

ARGENTINE PRESIDENT RULED UNFAVORABLY TO BOLIVIA IN DISPUTE WITH PERU AND TROU- BLE FOLLOWS.

Buenos Ayres, July 21.—The long threat of war between Bolivia and Argentine Republic over territory claimed by both nations is today on the eve of fulfillment. The Bolivian minister Dr. E. Villozon, stationed here, has been given his passport and has left the city. The cause of this action was the decision of the Bolivian government to submit to the Bolivian government the arbitral decision of President Alcorta, of Argentine, in the Argentina-Peru-Bolivia embroilie. The Argentine government feels insulted at the declarations made by President Montes of Bolivia and the diplomatic break is looked to proceed a more serious breach.

Progressive Republic. Argentine is the most progressive republic of South America. She is rich and well equipped in arms and the contest with Bolivia would be unequal. Argentine pays her president $30,000 a year. Her revenues from minerals and agriculture is $100,000,000 annually. Her fighting strength is 250,000 men. Bolivia would be hard pressed to put an army of 100,000 in the field.

SPRANG A SURPRISE

Eaton Grand Jury Charges Sid- ers With Second De- gree Murder.

RESULT OF STREET FIGHT

Eaton, Ohio, July 21.—The grand jury sprung a surprise on the public, when it returned an indictment today, charging Samuel Siders with second degree murder. A few months ago, John Mann, who was a large and powerful fellow, picked a quarrel with Siders about moving a house. Mann assaulted Siders with a club. Siders was much smaller but after he had been severely beaten, managed to take the club from his larger opponent and struck him over the head with it. The skull was fractured and Mann died a few days later. Mann had been regarded as the instigator of the affair, and in his verdict the coroner absolved Siders by stating he acted in self-defense. Mann has been always held as the instigator of the quarrel and the jury's action in returning a bill against Siders is unaccounted for.

MATTHEWS HURT AND OUT OF GAME

New York Fans Tearing Their Hair Now.

New York, July 21.—New York fans saw their hopes for the pennant go glimmering today, when they read in their morning papers that "Christy" Mathewson, the Giant's best and most trustworthy pitcher had broken his finger. With the Chicago series starting tomorrow, the chances of the Giants pulling ahead in the first division were dissipated. Matty broke his second finger of his left hand in picking up a hot grounder in the seventh inning of the St. Louis game yesterday. It will be two weeks before he can again perform upon the diamond.

Mathewson up to yesterday, had not lost a game since May 24.

THOUGHT BE KILLED

Eaton, O., July 21.—Word was received here today that George Rich, of West Manchester fell from a threshing engine on the road and was run over and crushed to death.

Particulars of the accident are lacking.

A Musical Tyrant.

Gluck as a conductor is said to have been an unmerciful tyrant. Frequently the musicians would have to repeat a passage twenty times before he was satisfied. The members of the Vienna court orchestra complained of this hard usage to the emperor, Joseph II, who appeased them by agreeing to give them 2 ducats instead of 1 ducat for every performance at which Gluck should conduct.

"Mary, after the week is out I shan't need your services." The boarding house keeper told her cook. "Your cooking doesn't suit me."

"But the boarders seem to like it, ma'am."

"Yes; that's why I must get another cook."—Bohemian.

JESSE LIVERMORE PLUNGER IS GONE

Speculator in Stocks, Cotton And Wheat Missing from His Haunts.

THOUGHT TO BE BIG LOSER

NOT VERY LONG AGO BY PLAY-
ING BULL HE MADE OVER TWO MILLIONS—THIS SPRING HE TURNED BEAR.

New York, July 21.—Jesse L. Livermore, whose ups and downs as a plunger in stocks, cotton and wheat were widely chronicled in 1907, has been missing from his accustomed place in the office of E. F. Hutton & Co. of 35 New street, for several weeks, and his name has been erased from the door of one of the inner offices in which he used to make his headquarters when his profits were large. Inquiries about him are received with some impatience at the office of Hutton & Co.

It was current gossip today in the brokerage office that Mr. Livermore has been a heavy loser on the short side of cotton and wheat. In August last year he was reported to have been one of the leaders of the bull pool in cotton which collapsed disastrously after fighting the decline for more than a week. When the market finally went to pieces with a drop of $2.50 a bale he was reported to have lost close to a million.

His Profits Heavy.

Before that his profits from cotton and wheat operations were said to have amounted to over $2,000,000 and he was pointed to as the most successful of recent plungers. This spring he is said to have turned bear, and it is on that side of the cotton and wheat market that he is now reported to have met the reverses which account for his recent absence from his old haunts.

On July 1, W. D. Hutton, one of the board of members of E. F. Hutton & Co., withdrew from the firm, forming a new partnership with his father, although continuing to make his headquarters at the New street office of E. F. Hutton & Co.

BEATEN TO DEATH IS CHARGE MADE

Mrs. Sutton Says Her Son Was the Victim of a Conspiracy.

CERTAIN HE WAS KILLED

WOMAN STATES SHE HAS FORM- ED THIS OPINION AFTER HEAR- ING TESTIMONY OF THREE MA- RINE OFFICERS.

Annapolis, Md., July 21.—"My poor boy was beaten to death and then shot," declared Mrs. James N. Sutton, mother of Lieut. James N. Sutton of the Marine corps, before the resumption of the inquiry into her son's death. I am now certain that Jimmy was killed by blows struck by his companions in the marine service. The bullet was fired into his head after it was seen that he was dead. This was done to bolster up the allegation that Jimmy committed suicide, which myself and daughter have long ago declared to be false.

"After listening to the testimony of three men in the government service, who should have been my son's comrades, I am certain that a great crime was committed. Personally I will be satisfied when I have proved that my boy did not take his own life. But what will the government do? It is not the fact that most grave charges against someone must follow an overturning of the original report of the first board? That is the real reason the marine corps is making such a fight in this second inquiry."

This outbreak on the part of Mrs. Sutton followed the sensational testimony of Lieut. Wm. F. Bevan, whose version of the tragedy is so widely at variance with the testimony of Lieuts. Adams and Osterman that it left the impression that Lieut. Sutton, while self-slain, did not commit suicide, as stated by the other two young officers.
