

SEND 7 MILLIONS TO ARGENTINA AS A CAMPAIGN FUND.

Liner Verdi Sailed From New York Today With the Money And War Rumors Are Heard Everywhere.

BUILD GOLD RESERVE UP TO 30 MILLIONS

No Danger of the Bullion Ship Being Captured as Bolivia Has No Navy and Has No Privateers.

(American News Service)
New York, July 22.—Carrying nearly $7,000,000 in gold to swell the war treasury chest of Argentine Republic the liner Verdi, of the Lamport & Holt line, sailed today for Buenos Ayres. Not the slightest fear is felt for the safety of the money through the warlike attitude of Bolivia, because Bolivia has neither navy nor privateers, and so cannot molest the Verdi and her burden.

The United States has shipped more gold to the Argentine Republic this year than the combined amount during the past ten years. This progressive South American republic has been steadily building up a gold reserve until it now aggregates $30,000,000. Bankers have felt for months that the steady flow of gold was not needed for trade balances and the diplomatic break with Bolivia has confirmed their suspicions.

Argentina's preparations for war have been carefully made. While building up a war fund Argentina has not neglected her fighting machines and now has a half dozen staunch warships and a score of lesser war craft with which to protect her merchant marine.

GASOLINE BLAZE IN AUTOMOBILE

Dr. Frank Harold by Stepping On a Match Damages His Machine.

PREPARING GO TO DAYTON

MATCH THREW A SPARK AS HE WAS POURING THE "JUICE" IN—PUTS FIRE OUT WITH AID OF GARDEN HOSE.

With a crack of a match and a flash of flame, the new automobile of Dr. Frank Harold became encircled by fire as he was filling the gasoline tank last evening. Dr. Harold was anxious to join the local delegation to Dayton today. His machine had been nicely cleaned and oiled, so the run could be made in record time. As the gasoline was being poured into the tank, the doctor stepped on a match which chanced to be on the floor. The match threw a spark and the gasoline fumes immediately ignited.

The machine appeared to be in danger of destruction, when with great speed the physician ran into the yard and grabbed the garden hose, which happened to be attached to a faucet. A stream of water was turned on the machine and the flames extinguished, but not until the front of the car had been damaged badly.

HELD THIS MORNING

City court was held this morning as the city judge desired to leave the city this afternoon. Two cases were over, both public intoxication offenses. William Moorman drew $10 and costs as he had been up before. Although the hour was later than formerly, it seemed like a return to old times when court was held in the morning. The court room was without the usual crowd of spectators, as few persons knew trials were in progress.

A SPEED FANATIC LANDS IN TOILS

Chauffeur for Harry Starr Ran Amuck Last Night and Was Pinched.

TRIED BURN UP STREETS

AFTER SHOWING VILLAGERS "BIG CITY" ANTICS HARRY PASCHKE WAS ESCORTED TO POLICE HEADQUARTERS.

It wasn't a merry oldsmobile that Harry Paschke, chauffeur for Harry Starr was sending down Main street at a merry clip last evening but Paschke seemed to be having too merry a time at too fast a rate and accordingly he got pinched. Now if the Starr chauffeur had not sought such an inopportune moment for this burst of speed, he is charged with having displayed, he might have avoided arrest. But he came bowling along the pavement just a few minutes before 7 o'clock and at the accustomed time for the night patrolmen to make their evening march to their beats.

Released on Bail.
Paschke has been released on bail and will appear in city court tomorrow afternoon to enter a plea to the charge of violating the motor vehicle law. It is alleged Paschke is one of the worst offenders against the speed laws in the city. He has been warned by the police to show some care in observing the law, but from what the police say has disregarded everything.

The police have given repeated warnings to automobile owners against too fast driving about the city. Some of the machine owners who are solicitous in the matter and try to cooperate with the police, have notified the superintendent of offenders. They claim they try to observe the laws and want other machine drivers to do the same. The police have visited the men reported against and told them personally they must be more observant. Starr's chauffeur is said to have been one of the men warned. It is claimed that last evening he was coming along Main street like as if the town were on fire and he was fleeing for his life. He was seen by the group of policemen as they passed along and later patrolman Hebble located him.

HEAVY STORM HIT THIS CITY TODAY

Like the Tail End of Galveston Cyclone.

One of the heaviest rain and wind storms of the season broke over the city this noon. It was very much like the tail end of the Galveston cyclone. The water poured down in torrents and was driven in sheets by the wind. Gutters overflowed and streets became impassable. Limbs were blown from trees and bark was scattered all over the streets. Loose shingles were carried high into the air. No serious damage was reported, not even to the telephone companies.

CUPID IN BAD WAY

Won't somebody please get married? The receipts at the clerk's office from marriage licenses has fallen away rapidly this month. Not a license has been issued since last Friday. If the matrimonially inclined do not hurry up and urge matters a little, July is likely to be one of the poorest months in the year so far as the number of licenses is concerned.

HOME CONTRACTORS HAVE OPPOSITION

Firms in Dead Towns Anxious to Get Slice of Pie In Richmond.

MAKES BIDDING LIVELY

THIS CITY HAS GAINED AN ENVIABLE REPUTATION FOR THE WAY PUBLIC CONTRACTS ARE PROMPTLY PAID FOR.

Outside contractors are making it difficult for local bidders to secure contracts for public improvements this season. So few cities in this part of the country are doing any improvement that there is a far greater supply of bidders than ever before. Until this year the local field has been almost entirely in the hands of local contractors. But the outsiders have broken in now and carried away a large number of contracts. These men say they have come to stay. Cement is cheaper this year than for several years and as the result the bids are much lower.

A Good Reputation.

The city has gained an enviable reputation among contractors because of the way in which public improvements are paid for. This reputation has followed principally upon the completion of the southwest sewer system, which was put in last year. This job amounted to more than $55,000. Contractors have expected to take such big jobs with a loss of $3,000 to $4,000 because of failure of property owners to pay the improvement assessments. Contractor Hipskind of Wabash, took the work after he had been practically coaxed to do it and has now received all his money with the exception of $8.40. This sum is owed by the owner of a lot which was cut in two by South West D street. The street was laid out, so that it left a few feet of the lot on each side. If the owners of the adjoining lots can be induced to buy these few extra feet and pay the sewer assessment there will be no loss at all.

One contractor said a few days ago he had been trying to break into the Richmond improvements. He said he had come here to land jobs and intended to do so. He failed in his first two attempts, but since then has been awarded two contracts. Other contractors have had similar experiences and today Richmond is recognized as the most desirable city in the state for contractors to bid on public improvements.

Pressed Steel Company Making Preparations to Resume Operations.

TROUBLE NOW PROBABLE

SHERIFF GUMBERT HAS GREATLY INCREASED HIS FORCE OF DEPUTIES TO PREVENT POSSIBLE RIOTING.

(American News Service)
UPPERMERE, July 22.—The Pressed Steel Car Co. will endeavor to start its works on Friday whether any of the six thousand striking employees return to work or not. This information comes from a dependable source. Box cars tightly closed and sealed and marked "scrap iron" are being daily run into the plant under police protection and the strikers claim the cars contain supplies for strikebreakers, including cots, bedding, etc. The game is an ancient one during disputes in the steel industry.

Supplied With Guns.
Sheriff Gumbert increased the force of deputies at the works today and the railroad gate, heretofore guarded by eight men will now be taken care of by twenty-five. More runs have been sent to the works and every guard will have a riot Winchester rifle. Notices of eviction have been served on six hundred men living in company houses in Schenerville or "Hunkerville" as it is better known. These men were in the vanguard of the strikers and are given until August 2 to vacate their houses.

The American strikers have entered into their first official union with the foreign strikers and will sink or swim with the rest.

The saloons have been opened under close restrictions. President Hoffost of the car company still maintains his defiant attitude and will meet nothing but unconditional surrender and even then absolutely refuses to re-employ the six hundred men who first went on strike.

The latter refused to pay and according to the story, Conner thereupon undertook to collect personal satisfaction. But he found a clever opponent and the two had a clever little sparring match. Conner is said to come off second best. In spite of this, he has been arrested on the charge of assault and battery. He is accused of having been the instigator and struck the first blow. Conner was in an escapade at Cambridge City some time ago that brought him considerable notoriety. He will be arraigned in city court tomorrow afternoon.
