They vary from six to eight inches long and three or four wide, are handsomely carved and fashionable. Some are provided with slides, but the majority have prongs through which the belt is drawn.

To avoid making the belt ragged where it is pulled through it is well to punch eyelets and overcast them.

The program is a strong one, having two films of 1,000 feet each and the illustrated song. It requires one hour to put on the entire program. The program is repeated twice every evening and is changed every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The singing of Mrs. Henshaw is good, she having a very fine voice for outdoor singing. This performance begins every evening at 7:45 and continues for two hours.

MODJESKA SILVERS IN THE LOTZ CASE

Portland Girl, Well Known in Richmond, Placed in The Limelight.

ATTACKED BY MRS. LOTZ

IS ALLEGED THAT IRATE WOMAN DROVE HER FROM THE OFFICE WHERE SHE WAS EMPLOYED BY THE POLITICIAN.

The name of Miss Modjeska Silvers, a Portland, Ind., young woman, who is well known in Richmond, where she has visited a number of times, has been brought into the Lotz divorce sensation at Muncie. Miss Silvers formerly was a stenographer in Mr. Lotz's office. She succeeded a Miss Dawson to the position. Miss Dawson was attacked in her employer's office by his wife and an umbrella handle broken over her head by the irate wife. She claimed the woman and her husband had been too good friends. It is alleged that when Miss Silvers was employed the attorney's wife pursued the same tactics finally driving her from the office. Miss Silvers was one of Portland's most attractive young women.

The case at Muncie is exciting interest throughout the state. Lotz gained great prominence by his candidacy for the office of attorney general on the democratic ticket during the last campaign. He was in Richmond frequently.
