

COLLECTION WAS GIVEN TO COUNTY

Granville Williams Makes a Present of Curios to Commissioners.

GATHERED ALL OVER WORLD

METEOR WHICH GIVER SAW FALL INCLUDED BELT WORN DURING WAR DECORATED WITH SPANISH BUTTONS.

The collection of relics, including stones, shells, coral, Indian implements and woods which Granville Williams of this city has been collecting for 20 years has been given to the county by the owner with the provision that they remain in the court house as long as it stands. In giving the collection to the county, it is Mr. Williams's desire that future generations may benefit from the collection which is one of the best in the county and state. Mr. Williams is a Spanish American war veteran and during his stay on the island of Cuba collected many of his rarest specimens.

Meteor in Collection.

In the collection is a meteor which Mr. Williams and his brother saw fall about four years ago while working in the harvest field, at twilight. It fell within a few feet of where he and his brother were working. Marking the place, he returned the next day and dug it up. It had fallen with sufficient force to bury itself about two feet in the ground. In recalling the instance this morning, Mr. Williams said that it was a ball of fire when it fell and came through the air with a loud whistling noise. The meteor's circumference is about equal to that of a half dollar. It is perfectly smooth and almost round. He tried to make a watch chain out of it, but the stone was too hard for any tools which he had to drill into it. He has refused $25 for the specimen.

Another interesting exhibit, is his belt worn during the war, containing six and half dozen various kinds of Spanish buttons, all of which were worn by Spanish officers. Most of the buttons are brass while a few are plated with gold.

Came From all Over World.

The specimens of stones, shells and the like given to the county were collected from all parts of the world, many of them by Mr. Williams personally. All are perfect in every detail, especially the Indian relics. The cabinets in which the relics are stored are given to the county also. The finest cabinet contains 50 different kinds of wood, carved in different forms by Mr. Williams. Mr. Williams does not know how many specimens there are in the three cases but it is in all probability nearly 10,000.

Col. C. E. Wiley, president of the board of county commissioners accepted the gift and promised Mr. Williams that his request that the collection be kept on exhibition would be followed by the county officials. The exhibit is now stationed on the second floor, near the entrance of county clerk Harry E. Penny's office.

BOWLERS AT DAYTON

Local Knights of Pin Have a Chance to Get Prize Money.

THEY MUST FILE ENTRIES

Dayton, O., Aug. 4.—Considerable interest is being manifested by the bowlers within a radius of 100 miles of Dayton, in the big free-for-all two men team and individual bowling tournament to be held at the new Arcade alleys, located on Third near Main street, Dayton, September 4 to 11.

More than $75 worth of prizes will be awarded to the winners of each event. There will also be prizes for the best average bowlers, those rolling the highest scores. A special prize will also be offered to the out-of-town team making the best showing. Absolutely no entrance fee is necessary to qualify for either event. The only condition necessary is to file entry on regular entry blank, prior to Sept. 1. Entry blanks are now ready for distribution.

A request was sent to the board of works to make an improvement on South Eighth which street runs through the addition by the construction of cement walks, curbs and gutters and also the grading of the street proper. The street adjoins Beallview park, which will be turned over to the city for park purposes eventually.

COMMISSIONERS TO VISIT BRIDGES

Inspect Those Needing Repairs in Preparation of Report to Council.

JAIL PROBLEM TO WAIT

PRESENT BUILDING TO BE RE-PAIRED SO AS TO MEET THE NEEDS OF PRESENT WHICH ARE ON INCREASE.

Beginning this week the county commissioners will visit every township in the county with the purpose in view of inspecting the county bridges. Following the inspection trip the commissioners will be ready to announce to county council, which meets in September the list of bridges which should be improved or rebuilt during the coming year. C. E. Wiley president of the board stated this morning that the appropriation to be asked by the commissioners for this purpose would probably amount to $15,000 to $20,000 which is considerably less than that expended for bridges during the present fiscal year.

Bridges Washed Out.

There will be but a very few new bridges constructed during the year in all probability. The majority of the new bridges will be constructed in Dayton and Jefferson townships where West River was deepened and widened by dredging. In these two townships it is absolutely necessary that new bridges be erected as the residents have to travel several miles in certain localities in order to cross from one side to the other.

The commissioners will make recommendations for new bridges only where they are necessary. The same policy will be followed in respect to the repair of the older structures.

No Jail This Year.

No appropriation for an addition to the county jail for the accommodation of the insane will be made this year, according to one of the county commissioners. It is only the question of a few years until the county will have to erect a new jail and an addition to the building at the present time would hardly justify the expense.

Instead the present building will be repaired where necessary in order that the sanitary conditions may be improved. In making the improvements several minor details will have to be attended to in order to keep the jail warm in the coldest weather.

BOARD OF WORKS

It was decided at a special meeting of the board of public works this afternoon to pave north and south Eighth street with brick. Bids were received this morning, but the contract will not be awarded until the matter has been carefully considered by the board. The question of paving the street with asphalt was not deemed advisable. It is estimated that the cost of the improvement will be about $10,000. There were several bids submitted. Work will be started immediately after the contract is awarded.

The contract for the improvement of the second alley north of Main street between Seventh and Eighth street was awarded this morning to Schneider Brothers of this city. Their bid was 11 cents per square foot. The alley will be paved with cement.

LOCAL DEALERS MAKE SALE

DISPOSAL OF LOTS LEFT TO REAL ESTATE MEN OF CITY AS OUTSIDE BOOMERS ARE NOT DESIRED.

It was decided at the meeting of the directors of the South Side Improvement association last evening to put the sale of lots in Beallview addition in the hands of local dealers. The lots are to be sold for the purpose of raising a bonus of $30,000, to give the National Automatic Tool Works of Dayton for locating in this city. Foreign realty companies fail in many respects to accomplish the desired result. Several other matters of routine business came to the directors' attention but for the present the association will give its entire attention to the sale of lots.

The architects in charge of the planning of the new factory building broke the first ground yesterday. The building is to be made entirely out of reinforced concrete and will be modern in all respects. It will be patterned after the buildings of the National Cash Register Works of Dayton, O., which company probably has the best factory buildings in the world.

A request was sent to the board of works to make an improvement on South Eighth which street runs through the addition by the construction of cement walks, curbs and gutters and also the grading of the street proper. The street adjoins Beallview park, which will be turned over to the city for park purposes eventually.

Forgiveness.

My heart was heavy, for its trust had been abused, its kindness answered with foul wrong. So, turning gloomily from my fellow men, One summer Sabbath day I strolled among The green mounds of the village burial place, Where, pondering how all human love and hate Find one sad level and how, soon or late, Wronged and wrongdoer, each with maddened face And cold hands folded over a still heart, Pass the green threshold of our common grave. Whither all footsteps tend, whence none depart, Aweed for myself and pitying my race, Our common sorrow, like a mighty wave Swept all my pride away, and tremblingly I forgave.

—Whittier.

The Smallest She Had.

A street car conductor one Saturday afternoon had such a good run of business that he had difficulty in keeping himself supplied with small change. Many persons who patronized his car handed him dollars and bills of large denominations in payment of their fares.

The conductor managed to get along fairly well until a woman carrying a tiny infant boarded his car. When he approached the woman for her fare she handed him a five dollar bill. "Is that the smallest you have, madam?" queried the conductor, fearing another stringency in change. The woman looked at the conductor and then at the baby and made this surprising reply: "Yes. I have been married only twelve months."

Round Trip Meals.

"I never think of the dreadful ocean without being reminded of the remark that a small child of mine made to me on the way out last summer," said a cheerful young matron who had just returned from abroad. "I was suffering from one of the most awful spells of seasickness. My little daughter for three days had seen me lying in my berth, while the stewardess from time to time tempted my reluctant appetite, I making dutiful efforts to swallow and retain something—anything to sustain life till I could get off that agitated monster called a 'floating palace.'"

"Mamma," queried this daughter of mine after she had just witnessed a particularly harrowing scene, 'do you think you'll ever go back home if you once get on shore again?' "Oh, yes," I groaned in reply. "I don't believe I would, though, if I didn't have these round trip tickets. Having them, I've simply got to return."

"Round trip tickets" the child repeated musingly; then, after a moment: "Mamma, I believe that's what must be the matter with your meals. They all seem to have round trip tickets too."

Too Much For the Frenchman.

A story is told of a Frenchman who was very anxious to see an American business man at his home. The first morning when he called at the house the maid replied to his query: "The master is not down yet," meaning downstairs. The following morning he called again and was met with: "The master is not up yet," meaning that he had not yet arisen from his bed.

The Frenchman, looking at her with doubtful eye, paused for a few seconds. "Est ce ver' deef'cult, but eef se mademoiselle will tell me when se master will be neither up nor down, but in se middle, sen I will call at sat time."—Joe Mitchell Chapple in National Magazine.

A Day at a Time.

An element of weakness in much of our reasoning is that we try to grasp too much of life at a time. We think of it as a whole instead of taking the days one by one. Life is a mosaic, and each tiny piece must be cut and set with skill. —Anon.

NELSON NOLAN IS HURT AT DETROIT

Three Fingers Were Lacerated While at Work.

Nelson Nolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Nolan, North Sixteenth street and well known in this city as a polo player of exceptional ability, likewise a semi-professional baseball player, had three fingers on his left hand cut off in an accident at Detroit, recently. He was injured by a press falling on his fingers and necessitating the amputation. He was confined at the hospital in Detroit for three days. It is hoped by his friends that the accident will not interfere with his ability as either a baseball or polo player.

IRREGULARITY IN PREPARING BOND

Custom Has Not Been to Fill Them Out Properly According to Judge Fox.

DODDRIDGE CASE CALLED

PRISONERS HAVE BEEN RELEASED ON BONDS IMPROPERLY PREPARED AND CHANGE WILL BE ENFORCED.

Upon the appearance of Earl Doddridge, the Washington township young man who was arrested recently for dynamiting fish near Milton, in the circuit court tomorrow morning Judge Fox will probably require a new bond to be given and also issue a standing order relative to filing bonds. There have been several persons released on bonds which were irregular, according to the statutes. Such is the condition in the case of young Doddridge, who was released on $300 bond furnished by his father, James Doddridge immediately following his arrest. Prosecutor Ladd stated this morning it was probable the bond of Doddridge would be raised from $300 to $500 tomorrow morning.

In explaining the irregularity of filling out the bonds, Judge Fox stated to Mr. Ladd that the county clerk should always write on the back of the warrant at the time of the issuance the amount of bond required in order that the person arrested on strength of the warrant may obtain release from custody. This was neglected in the arrest of Doddridge and is responsible for Mr. Ladd ordering the young man to appear in the criminal court tomorrow morning. It is not probable that the young man will stand trial at this time.

IS THIS INSANITY

Mrs. Henry Miller, who was arrested yesterday and for whom an insanity inquest will be held this evening, is alleged to have stolen nine bottles of wine from the cellar of Christian F. Lentz, 823 South 11th street. The wine was missed Sunday and several empty bottles which were identified were found in the cornfield where Mrs. Miller was found. Several other small articles have been missed from the cellars by residents in that locality also.

STUDY OF BIBLE MAKES INTEREST

Annual Conference Continues Discussion of Epistle of James at Earlham.

DISCOURSE UPON FAITH

EXPLANATION OF PARABLE OF JONAH AND WHALE ATTEMPTED—JONAH IMPRISONED FOR PUNISHMENT.

Murray H. Kenworthy delivered a lecture this morning before the Friends' Bible Institute at Earlham College upon the subject, "The Epistle of James." The speaker gave a very interesting account of the epistle and light was thrown on the nature of its contents. Mr. Kenworthy stated in the course of his remarks that James seemed to be constantly against the rich man, but that riches in those days were obtained by extortion and a prevailing feeling of hatred then existed toward the rich generally.

In speaking on "The Problem of Synthesis," Levi Pennington of Knightstown said in part: "The first step toward this synthesis is a union of love. We must learn that the spirit of brotherhood is greater than dogma; that we can not glorify God by mere party victory. The emotionalist must learn that the truth is not to be feared and the intellectualist must learn that intellect alone cannot be taken as a guide. We need an educated ministry but it is often found that college halls are rather cold, spiritually."

What Faith Will Do.

Samuel C. Haworth, professor of biblical instruction in Wilmington college discussed the topic, "The Development of Faith." The various ideas of faith were discussed by the speaker who stated that one who has absolute faith in God would overcome all obstacles and eventually triumph.

Yesterday Afternoon.

"The Message of Jonah to the World Today" was the subject of Dr. Leary's lecture yesterday afternoon. The speaker endeavored to explain the meaning of this parable. He stated that Jonah was shut in his prison as punishment for his disbelief in God and for his refusal to preach the gospel among the heathen. Dr. Leary then went on to state that people today are being punished for their lack of faith in God, although not in the same way as Jonah, in an equally impressive manner.

The sixth and last lecture was delivered by Dr. Leary last evening upon the subject, "The Historic Mediterranean." The lecture was beautifully illustrated with colored stereoscopic views. The audience took a rapid trip around the shores of the classic sea, through France, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Palestine, Egypt and back to Gibraltar. The talk was very instructive and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present.

ARE VISITING HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Szirkosky, entertainers and Temperance Lyceum artists who for the past ten months have been at work in the southwestern states are in the city for a few weeks' visit with Mrs. Szirkosky's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Neff, South Fourteenth street.

There is a song with this refrain: "I don't know why I love you, but I do." We would suggest that no one try to find out. Trying to find out why one loves another has the same tragic result as punching a hole in a drum to see what makes the noise.—Aitchison Globe.

MATTER IS DELAYED

Absence of Col. Durbin From State Interferes With the Plans for Reunion.

LARGE CROWD IS EXPECTED

Owing to the absence of ex-governor Winfield T. Durbin from the state, no communication can be secured with him by local members of the Denver Brown Camp, Spanish American War Veterans, to ascertain whether he approves of this city at the place to hold the reunion of the regiment. At the meeting of the organization Monday evening at the court house it was decided to get in correspondence with the members of the regiment and endeavor to obtain their support for holding the reunion in this city. Providing the regiment members do decide to meet here next year, 600 or 700 Spanish American War veterans will attend.

COMMITTEE TO MEET

Joint Organization on Civic Affairs Meets in First Session This Week.

OBJECT NOT DISCLOSED

The first meeting of the joint committee consisting of one representative from the Riverdale Civic League, the West Side Improvement Association, the South Side Improvement Association and the Young Men's Business club, will be held some time this week. It will meet with the committee on municipal research from the Commercial club and probably will have a wide range of duties.

While the nature of its investigations is not definitely known, matters of the most vital importance to the citizens of Richmond will be discussed and an agreement as to the proper action to be taken on several questions will be reached.

GOV. BUCHTEL HERE

Did Not Divulge Purpose of Visit and Remained at Hotel During His Stay.

WAS A FORMER RESIDENT

Ex-governor Henry A. Buchtel, of Colorado, former pastor of the Grace M. E. church of this city was a guest at the Westcott hotel yesterday. Dr. Buchtel is now interested in the University of Denver. He did not divulge the nature of his call to this city, although several men met him at the hotel in the afternoon. He appeared to be in good health.

It has been several years since Dr. Buchtel has been a resident of this city. Among the older Methodists he is well remembered as a very pleasant speaker. Upon removing from this city he went to Colorado and in the gubernatorial fight of 1902 which was on reform issues, he was successful. During his term of office, he had several difficult questions arising but his position as the preacher-governor was not compromised.

BULGARIA MENACE TO TURKEY'S HOPE

Threatens Nation While Preparations for War With Greece Are Going On.

DISPUTE IS WITH GREECE

TURKEY DEMANDS GREECE RECALL OFFICERS FROM ISLE OF CRETE OR EXPECT TO WAGE WAR FOR IT.

(American News Service)

Constantinople, Aug. 4.—Turkey, planning war with Greece over the Isle of Crete, is menaced upon her northern frontier by the Bulgarians. While four Turkish transports, bearing Turkish soldiers are enroute to Crete today to invade the island, word was brought to the grand vizier that a bloody encounter between Turkish and Bulgarian troops had taken place on the frontier near the Kadikhan barracks. Villagers took part and many were seriously wounded. According to the Turkish version the Bulgarians precipitated the fracas by firing on the Turks.

Dispute Grows Alarming.

The dispute with Greece over Crete has assumed alarming proportions bordering on actual warfare. Rifaat Pacha, the minister of foreign affairs, declared to the Hellenic minister today that the Ottoman government would make a formal demand for the immediate recall of Greek officers from Crete. The Turkish minister in Athens will also make this demand. If it is not fulfilled and Greece has intimated that it will not be, Crete will become the battleground. Turkish troops will soon arrive there to enforce the policies of the Ottoman government.

Turkey already has a flotilla of warships off Crete.

CORONER'S VERDICT

Coroner A. L. Bramkamp today announced his verdict in the death of James E. Donlin, who died Monday evening as a result of falling on a pitcher and severing the right jugular vein, as follows: "Death from hemorrhage, resulting from wound in the neck following an accidental fall." The evidence in the case is voluminous, bringing out the fact that the children of John Pickle and the Roe children who were partly responsible for the death are receiving lax home training.

SPECIAL POLICEMAN

At the meeting of the police board Friday evening a selection of one of the policemen for duty at the chautauque assembly, Glen Miller park, Aug. 20-23, will be made. The officer will also have several subordinates selected by the chautauque association under him.

TO REPEAT PLAY.

Milton, Ind., Aug. 4.—Owing to the fact that many were unable to secure seats for the recent performance of "Don't Tell My Wife," at the Odd Fellows hall in Milton, arrangements have been made with the management of the Hurst's Opera House at Cambridge City to give the play a production in that theatre, Tuesday evening, August 10th.
