

A TURKO-GRECIAN WAR NOW APPEARS BE A SURE THING

Turkish Troops Have Been Massed Along the Greek Frontier and More Are Being Sent Today.

FORTS AT SALONICA ARE STRENGTHENED

It Is Stated Turkey's Answer To the Greek Government Will Be in the Nature of an Ultimatum.

(American News Service)

Constantinople, Aug. 13.—War with Greece is believed inevitable. Troops are massed on the frontier and more will be sent today. The forts near Salonica have been strengthened for war.

Turkey's answer to Greece over the Cretan affair will be an ultimatum. Dissatisfaction is felt by the cabinet over ambiguous paragraphs in the Greek note and a communication is being prepared to be forwarded to Athens, demanding an explanation of the doubtful clauses.

In Extra Session.

The Turkish parliament is in extra session, taking steps to rehabilitate the National treasury and raise a war fund.

The military is demanding war with Greece. In the barracks the talk is wholly of war.

It is difficult to discover the influence under which Turkey is acting in view of the attitude of the powers. It was believed that everything possible had been done to bring peace. The intercession of the four greatest powers of Europe, the repudiation by Greece of intended annexation of Crete and the influence of the diplomatic centers of the continent were all exerted in turn to ameliorate Turkey and bring about peaceful relations with Turkey. In an interview Niaz Bey, the Young Turk leader and hero of the July revolution, asserts at Uskub, European Turkey, that the Albanian clamor for war is merely a cloak to strike a blow at the supremacy of the Young Turks. Niaz Bey sounds a warning. He avers that the present ministry is inefficient and should be changed.

HIGH SCHOOLS TO ASK RECOGNITION

Four County Institutions Want To Be Known as Certified Schools.

JORDAN TO INDIANAPOLIS

IN COMPANY WITH TRUSTEE PAULIN OF WEBSTER TOWNSHIP HE GOES TO HAVE INTERVIEW WITH ALEY.

In order to discuss with State Superintendent Aley, the question of certified high schools in this county and a course of geography in the fourth grade, County Superintendent Jordan and Trustees George Paulin of Webster township, went to Indianapolis today. Several of the high schools of the county are anxious to be recognized as certified institutions. That means the state will acknowledge the quality of work done at these schools is sufficient to admit a graduate to college without examination. The distinction accorded a high school in this manner makes an education obtained there of more value to the pupils. The high schools of Economy, Greensfork, Williamsburg and Whitewater are seeking the distinction.

Study of Geography.

The study of geography in the fourth grade of Indiana schools is in a chaotic state. The state board of education failed to provide for a geography text book to be used in this grade. The state's contract with the company that published the book formerly used has expired. The pupils in the fifth grade who have used the book having purchased it last year retain it. But since the expiration of the contract the company has raised the price from 30 cents to 45 cents per copy. The Wayne county school authorities do not believe it right to make pupils pay this money for the book. As an alternative it is proposed that the superintendent and teachers block out a fourth grade course. This course could be applied without the use of a text book. Supt. Jordan wants the opinion of Supt. Aley on the point and also would like his advice as to the things that should be included in the course. The county superintendent expects the state official to approve of the proposition and give it his support. The course would consist of blackboard and chart instruction outlined by the teachers.

POLICE DISCOVER STARVING FAMILY

Succor Given to John Gabriel, His Wife and Three Children.

FATHER HAS BROKEN FOOT

TODAY THE CASE WAS PLACED IN THE HANDS OF THE TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE—CONDITIONS WERE PITIFUL.

The family of John Gabriel, 18½ South Fifth street was found in abject poverty yesterday afternoon by the police and supplied with fuel and provisions. Today the case was placed in the care of the township trustee. The family consists of father and wife and three children. The father is confined to his bed by a broken foot.

The police were notified of conditions at the home and Supt. Stauch undertook an investigation. He found the father, who is a carpenter can not leave his bed. He has not been able to work for so long that the family treasury has been depleted. He was injured while at work on South Eighth street and the ladder did not hold out very long after he was forced to bed. Mrs. Gabriel is a step-mother to the children, but there was no complaint of any kind. The police say it is simply a case of funds running out. The house was found in comparatively good order.

Members of the department became a self appointed relief committee. They visited groceries and other stores in the vicinity and secured provisions and supplies of various kinds. Nothing was to be found in the house but a few potatoes, when the superintendent first visited. The supplies were taken down at once and there was great rejoicing and also gratification on the part of the recipients.

CONKEY JURY OUT

Charged With a Violation of The State Liquor Statutes.

VOGELSONG WAS WITNESS

Dr. John A. Conkey, a Main street druggist, was defendant in a case tried in city court before a jury today.

He was charged with violating the liquor laws. The prosecuting witness was Harry Roach, who said he bought whiskey from Conkey, July 4. Conkey's defense was that he sold malt whiskey to Roach, after he had signed a written statement declaring it was to be used for medicinal purposes.

Patrolman Vogel song was one of the important witnesses for the state. He said he arrested Dr. Conkey and the latter asked him to wait a minute. He said Conkey obtained two pink pieces of paper and wrote on them. He did not know what was written. Vogel song was put on the stand by the state to make the impression Conkey had filled in the blanks for a purpose. The patrolman's evidence was not conclusive. The jury hearing the case had not reported at 3 o'clock. It is composed of J. W. Cunningham, Dorey Atkinson, Edmund Dickinson, W. S. Commons, Samuel K. Morgan, Waldo Lacey, Sylvester Draper, S. E. Jones, Seth Watson, Albert Kelley, Mr. Vorhees and Edward Chauncey.

IS NOT AN OFFENSE

Sitting down and going to sleep does not constitute an offense against the public welfare, according to Daniel Fisher of Franklin township. He sat down on Fort Wayne avenue north of the railroad crossing last night and went to sleep. Patrolmen Edwards and Bundy arrived and arrested Fisher for drunk. Judge Converse took the case under advisement in city court this afternoon. Fisher said he sat down to wait for a friend to haul him home.

PETITION IGNORED

Judge Fox has completed his instructions to the jury in the Wade case. This case will be resumed Wednesday of next week. It is not known what will become of the contention of a mistrial. The court is proceeding as if the continuance had been regular. The counsel for the state and assistant are not contending about the technicality of the proceeding.

HOUSE ROBBERIES BEING REPORTED

Burglars Resume Activities After Several Weeks of Idleness.

OPERATING IN EAST END

CERTAIN PHASES IN CONNECTION WITH THE ROBBING OF THE MOSS HOME ARE REGARDED AS PECULIAR.

House robberies have been resumed in the city, after a few days quiet. The homes of Daniel Moss, South Eleventh street, Miss Ruthbarr, 413 South Fourteenth street and Mrs. Land, 417 South Fourteenth street have been visited. Entrance to the Fourteenth street residences was made Wednesday night and that at the Moss home last night. On Fourteenth street, it has not been ascertained what may have been taken. A purse belonging to Mrs. Moss was robbed of $4.50.

Certain phases in connection with the Moss robbery make it perplexing. When Miss Stella Reafrow, employed at the house, came down stairs this morning, she was heard to scream. Inquiry by Mr. Moss revealed the fact the young woman had found the front door open. An investigation was undertaken at once. The lid to a writing desk that had been closed was found open.

Purse Was Removed.

A drawer in a stand was open. A wardrobe door was open and Mrs. Moss's purse had been removed from a handbag. The bag was found on the floor. Drawers in various compartments about the dining room had been opened, but nothing was found removed. A box, which contained silver ware had not been molested.

One of the things the police do not understand is the presence of the key in the lock and on the inside. Mr. Moss told Patrolman Vogel song he is positive the door was locked last night. Understand is the presence of the key and found the end unscathed, as would have been the case if any instrument had been inserted and the key turned with it. Not a window had been forced open. The door to the cellar way was locked. Other doors on the lower floor that had been locked were found in the same condition. There was only one way by which entrance could have been gained and that was through the door found open. But how it was opened from the outside with the key in the lock is more than can be determined.

MRS. HARRY SCHMICK SEEKS TO HAVE HER HUSBAND, A FEDERAL PRISONER AT FT. LEAVENWORTH, PARDONED.

(American News Service)
Beverly, Mass., Aug. 13.—While the war game is about to begin along the South Shore, with the capture of Boston at the pawn for which two big armies are to contend, President Taft is playing his favorite game of golf with almost desperate energy. The president has been experiencing a "slump" in his play recently and today he declared that he would best

John Hays Hammond if it took all summer.

The president is avoiding every bit of official work he can. There are some conferences he must have and some papers he must look over and sign, but he is determined to dodge any hard work he possibly can.

The mysterious woman in white who has been haunting the grounds of President Taft's summer home was today discovered to be Mrs. Harry Schmick, who is seeking a pardon for her husband, a former bank teller now undergoing imprisonment at Ft. Leavenworth. After ascertaining her identity the secret service agents permitted her to see the president.

President Taft was in conference today with Secretary Nagle of department of commerce and labor, and others to decide on the appointment of three hundred census supervisors.
