SPEEDWAY OPENED TO GREAT CROWD

Fred Huyck, Driving Indian
Motorcycle, Was Star
Of the Day.

WAS ONE BAD ACCIDENT

TIRE EXPLOSION AFTER A BAD
SKID HURLS ONE OF THE CY-CLISTS HEADLONG INTO A PILE OF GRAVEL.

(American-News Service)
Indianapolis, Aug. 14.—Fred Huyck, riding under the colors of the Chicago Athletic association was the star of the first days racing of the Federation of American Motor Cyclists, which opened the Indianapolis Motor Speedway to a crowd of 5,000 people this afternoon. Huyck, piloting an Indian machine captured three events, including the five mile national amateur event, a five mile open and the five mile handicap.

The opening of the speedway to motor contests drew a good sized crowd to witness the motor cycle events and were rewarded with many close finishes, numerous spills and one bad accident which looked for a moment as if it would be fatal. Jake Derosier, American professional champion caused the big sensation of the day in the ten mile professional event in which Ed Legenfelder was his opponent.

Derosier Was Hurt.
Turning into the stretch on the second lap, Derosier skidded over a bad spot in the course, punctured his rear tire and took a header. He landed fairly well in the gravel and saved himself serious injury. He was badly bruised, but not seriously. There were numerous other spills due to punctures and the course, but Derosier was the only dangerous one. As expected the time in all events was slow considering the class of drivers entered.

In the ten mile national amateur championship the big Indian and Merkle machines were withdrawn, as after the experience in the professional event, neither makers or riders wished to take the chances with high powered machines.

The twenty-five mile event was also postponed because of the reluctance of the riders to take chances.

In an attempt to prove the statements that the speedway is not in the bad shape accredited to it, the officials sent the Stoddard and Dayton auto racer against time, but the best done for the 2½ miles was 3:00. Later Bourque in the Knox was sent against time. He made the course in much better time, 2:20.

PRESIDENT WILL GIVE FAT PLUM

He Will Appoint Number of Tariff Experts Named
On Monday.

MUST CONSTRUCT THE LAW
APPROPRIATION OF $75,000 WAS MADE TO COVER THE EXPENSE
AND TAIT NAMES THE AP-POINTEES.

(American News Service)
Beverly, Mass., Aug. 14.—A number of fat official plums will be distributed on Monday when Secretary of Treasury MacVeagh arrives here with the list of tariff experts to be appointed by the president.
After congress had passed the Aldrich tariff bill in spite of the fact that many members could not understand the meaning of numerous clauses, it came face to face with the fact that somebody would have to understand them or the law couldn't be enforced. So it was voted to allow the president to appoint several tariff experts who should interpret the meaning of the schedules, and particularly decide disputes arising as to the maximum of several of the most involved schedules.

An appropriation of $75,000 was made for this work and the number of appointees was left to the president. That gentleman had troubles of his own and turned the matter over to Secretary of Treasury Franklin MacVeagh, who took the task to Dublin, N. H., with him.
Mr. Hitchcock hastened to the assistance of Secretary MacVeagh and the fact that he felt free to leave Dublin and come to Beverly shows that the task practically completed.
There is the greatest anxiety among possible appointees. Seventy-five thousand dollars will provide salaries of $15,000 a year for five men, $7,500 for ten and only $5,000 a year for fifteen.
Those who have read or tried to read the new tariff bill are convinced that there is work for at least fifteen. It is probable that not more than ten experts will be appointed.

In the meantime President Taft is still playing golf and John Hays Hammond is usually his opponent. He started for Myopia this morning bright and early. His play on these links has improved and he is going around in less than 100.

TURKISH TROOPS ON THE FRONTIER

Thirty Thousand Soldiers Are Ready to Fly at Throat
Of Greece.

HOSTILITIES PROBABLE
IF GRECIAN REPLY TO TURKEY'S
SECOND NOTE IS UNSATISFAC-TORY, INVASION WILL THEN START.

(American News Service)
Constantinople, Aug. 14.—Thirty thousand Turkish troops are massed on the Turkish-Grecian frontier ready to invade Thessaly, and if the Greek reply to Turkey's second note is unsatisfactory, the latter will immediately throw her troops across the Grecian borders.

At least four more batteries of artillery were placed at vantage points on the frontier with in the last forty-eight hours and five more are on the way. Turkey's second note was couched in the plainest terms. It demanded a formal declaration from Greece that the Greek government will not annex Crete and would not accept the island as Greek territory even if the inhabitants thereof should attempt to force amalgamation.
The Greek foreign minister is in conference with the representatives of the four protecting powers—Italy, France, Russia and England.
The sentiment throughout Turkey for war has increased. It is believed that the young Turks will yield to the popular demand. There is a feeling of political unrest also.

"Where'd you get the new suit?"
"Well, you see, I had a sure tip on a horse race."
"I never knew one of those tips to pan out."
"Neither did I, so I didn't play it; put the money into this suit instead."

Her Star Boarder Yanks Locks of Loving Landlady

Dayton, Aug. 14.—The fact that there is an unusually strong attachment existing between herself and the curly locks which adorn her cranium is the only thing which keeps Mrs. Anna Strainsky a Russian boarding house keeper from being a nearly bald woman today.

Mrs. Strainsky, who resides at 325 Daller street, in Dayton, attempted to "call" Alex Austra, 46, a fellow countryman, because he did not pay his board Wednesday evening, and for her trouble she was caught up by the hair of the head and made to do several flying turns through the air as the police say. As it was, when Officer George Firestone arrived at the house, and placed Austra under arrest, he had a handful of the woman's hair.

Austra was locked up in central police station on the charge of assault and battery and will have a hearing before Judge Long in police court on Thursday.

Little Doris could not count beyond four. One day when she was showing me five berries that she had picked I asked, "How many have you, Doris?" Her brows puckered a moment, then, dimpling with smiles, she answered, "Wait till I eat one; then I'll tell you."

GOES TO PITTSBURG

In a recent issue of the "Sporting Life," published at Philadelphia, the editor says that "Bull" Durham of local fame during the short history of the In and Out league (I. O. league) will become a member of the Pirates at the end of the Ohio State League season. The owner of the Pittsburgh National league club has been watching Durham play and says that he will develop into one of the leading ball players in the country in a year or so. Durham's home is in Randolph county.
