A meeting of the Penny club was than you could get into two electric cars of average proportions. Of course you'd find Cosmo Nicol in your catch. She's one of the altitudinous girls who as Fifth Avenue types will stun the audience at the Gennett with their grace. Fame has not yet caught her in its whirl and she has not stepped beyond the chorus line. Her beauty ought to establish her renown. She will be, it is asserted, the prettiest player in town next week.

SHOCKING CRUELTY.

One of the most shocking cases of cruelty in this city's annals has just come to light. A man prominent in business circles is reported to have coolly neglected to furnish his wife with rub-a-lac for her washing. He evidently does not understand its value or he would not be so careless. Ask your grocer about it. He will explain its powers and how it will whiten the clothes.

LABOR BRIEFS.

Organize yourself first and then urge organization upon others. Your purchasing power is your strongest weapon. Use it always in the interest of labor.

Be in earnest. Sincerity wins respect not only for the individual, but also for his cause, while hypocrisy breeds contempt.

Hold the flag of unionism to the masthead and be known of all men as a true unionist that will only purchase articles bearing the union label. Even your enemies will respect you.

Cast aside all petty jealousies in your union. Pull together and build. Any person can find fault. Only the true union man can overcome the small things in others and by doing so become the bulwark of his organization.—Shoe Workers' Journal.

"I wish you'd thread this needle, mother," said Martha in despair. "Every time I get near I j eye with my thread it blinks!"—Dellnestor.

Fall hats now on display at Mrs. Brower's, 538 Main St.

THE THEATER

Heiress of the Lindens.

The Gennett theater will have as a holiday attraction on Labor Day "The Heiress of the Lindens," a musical comedy in three acts. Mr. Edwin Eaton has gathered an excellent company together in the support of Miss Bessie Wright who has a soprano voice of unusual qualities.

Opening of the New Phillips.

The New Phillips theater has been thoroughly renovated, and repainted, and is in fine shape for the opening on Labor Day, and Manager Murray has secured Hendersons School Boys and Girls for both Monday and Tuesday matinee and night.

This act is a whole show in itself, and has been featured over the Keith and Proctor circuits, also the Orpheum circuit. In addition to this special feature act there will be five other big acts, which will make it one of the best vaudeville combinations ever presented in this city.

"Red Mill."

If you could go through "The Red Mill" organization with a seine, say those who have seen the show, you would make a greater haul of beauties

Ballard Dunn Denies His Sister Is in Europe With Ferdy Earle.

HE ISSUES A STATEMENT

(American News Service)
Chicago, Aug. Sept. 2.—"Any story about the elopement of my sister with Mr. Earle, I can say is without foundation," said Ballard Dunn, Gertrude Dunn's brother and city editor of a Chicago afternoon paper. "I received a communication from her saying she was in Paris alone and that she would sail for New York along about Sept. 4. This is sufficient assurance to me that the story is not true."

"About three weeks ago I was in New York and I heard that she had gone to Monroe to see Mr. Earle in regard to the establishment of an orphan school. My sister is connected with a social settlement on Upper Broadway and she is fond of children and was anxious to found an orphan's home. "In her work she frequently has been in the homes of socialists, and Mr. Earle, being a socialist, she met in one of these homes."

"I was a little concerned when I learned she had gone to see him and I went to Monroe, but I found things all right."

Your Boy

No stimulation. No alcohol habit. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a tonic for the young. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a strong tonic, entirely free from alcohol.
