

ONLY KNOCKS FOR MR. J. FRANK HANLY

His Desire to Be Senator from Indiana Meets With No Encouragement.

BEVERIDGE THE ONE BET

HE AND NONE OTHER IS NOW THE SENTIMENT OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS—HARRY NEW FOR STATE CHAIRMAN.

Indianapolis, Sept. 8.—Since the story was printed a week or so ago for the twentieth time that J. Frank Hanly would probably be a candidate for United States senator against Senator Beveridge an enormous lot of knocking has been done, and it is believed that the story has at last been put to sleep for good—or at least for a good while to come. Prominent republicans from over the state who have come to town in the last few days have declared that there is not the slightest possible chance that Hanly will come out for senator. It is believed to be more likely that he will concern himself more with the task of helping to elect a legislature that will refuse to weaken the present liquor laws than he will to running for senator. It is taken for granted that he will force the issue on the saloon question. He is more deeply interested in state wide prohibition than he is in the senatorship, according to these politicians who have been talking. If he is not able to elect a legislature that will sustain the present anti-saloon laws he would not be able to have himself elected senator. And it is declared that if he can preserve the present laws or bring about state wide prohibition he will be well satisfied with his work.

Beveridge Coming Home.
It is commonly accepted among the leaders of the party that there will be no opposition to Senator Beveridge. He will be the only republican candidate for senator, according to present indications. Senator Beveridge is expected to arrive home with his family from the east in a few days and he will remain in Indiana then until congress convenes in December. In the meantime there is not much talk about the reorganization of the republican state committee. Here and there a little talk is indulged in as to candidates for the district committee in various districts, but nothing definite is heard. It is still the belief that Harry S. New will be elected state chairman if he will consent to take the place. In fact, there is no other name mentioned seriously for the position. It all depends on whether New will accept or not.

Centerville, Ind., Sept. 8.—The teachers and pupils of the Centerville high school will give a picnic Thursday, September 9 at Jackson Park.

BABY'S ITCHING WAS INTOLERABLE

Girl of Six Months had Fearful Attack of Eczema—Spread All Over Her Face and Eyes Began to Swell—Scratched Till Blood Came—Relieved in a Night and

CURED BY CUTICURA AFTER LONG SUFFERING

"When my little girl was six months old I noticed small red spots on her right cheek. I did not pay any attention to them but finally the spots grew so large that I sent for the doctor who said it was ring worm. He prescribed an ointment which I used for two weeks, but instead of helping the eruption, the ointment seemed to make it worse. Then I went to a second doctor who after examining the baby said it was eczema. He also gave me an ointment which did not help either. The disease in the meantime spread all over the face and the eyes began to swell. I became very anxious. The itching grew intolerable. I had to tie the baby's hands to the cradle to prevent her scratching. The cheeks were covered with blood and it was a terrible sight to see. I consulted doctors from September to December, but they were unable to cure the baby. I used three boxes of Cuticura Soap, two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and I never use any other soap. I always recommend them whenever there is a chance for doing so. I will send you one of her pictures which she had taken just after she was healed. Mrs. P. E. Gumbin, Sheldon, La., July 13, 1908."

Cuticura Soap (25c), Resolvent (50c), and Ointment (25c), are sold throughout the world by Foster & Clark, Corp., Sole Proprietors, 127 Columbia Ave., Boston.

THE ARREST OF CONNERS IN "THE RED MILL" AT THE GENNETT SATURDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT

AT THE THEATRES

"The Red Mill."
The score of "The Red Mill" is by Victor Herbert, who has long been accepted as the foremost American composer. He has written nineteen light operas, among them The Prima Donna, Mile. Modiste, Babes in Toyland, It Happened in Nardland, The Tattooed Man, The Serenade, The Fortune Teller, Babette, The Wizard of the Nile, The Idol's Eye, Wonderland, Dream City, The Magic Knight, The Singing Girl, Dolly Dollars, etc., all of which have been big successes and many of which are still being played both in America and Europe. He is equally well known as a writer of serious music and is himself a virtuoso of the highest type. His symphonic poems are included in the programs of symphony orchestras all over the world. His concertos for the cello are the accepted standard of musicianship. When Oscar Hammerstein decided to have the grand opera written upon an American subject for production at his Manhattan opera house, Mr. Herbert was the one musician in this country worthy of this commission, and he was unhesitatingly chosen. The score of "The Red Mill" is in Mr. Herbert's happiest vein and is replete with brilliant ensembles, tuneful numbers, every one of which has a different and distinct charm and appeal to the ear.

Of the twenty odd numbers which Mr. Herbert wrote for "The Red Mill" nearly every one has scored a big hit, the more successful being "Every Day is Ladies' Day With Me," "You Never Can Tell About a Woman," "Go, While the Goin's Good," "The Streets of New York," "Because You're You," "The Isle of Our Dreams," and "I want You to Marry Me."

"The Red Mill" will be presented at the Gennett theatre on Saturday, September 11, matinee and night, with a very pretentious cast, including Bert O. Swor as Con Kidder, Frank Woods as Kid Connor, Otto Koerner, Alvia Laughlin, Carl Hartberg, S. W. Stott, Harry R. McClain, Cecil Summers and the Misses Agnes Major, Vernice Martyn, Adeline Stern, Georgia Harvey, and a chorus of fifty including the six little Dutch Kiddies and an augmented orchestra.

"The Man of the Hour."
Rarely, indeed, have Richmond playgoers been permitted to watch a performance in which every role is enacted in such an eminently satisfactory manner as will be the case in "The Man of the Hour," when that great success is seen again at the Gennett September 15. Such a performance as will then be given by Managers Wm. A. Brady and Jos. R. Grismer's special company would carry even a poor play to success and when material of such inherent strength and such absorbing interest as is in "The Man of the Hour" is placed at the disposal of a company of such gifted players, the result is exceptional. An entirely new scenic production is shown this season.

M'Liss at the Gennett.
Some of the sensational features of "M'Liss" in which Nellie McHenry will be seen at the Gennett on Friday, September 10, are the arrival of the stage coach, with its plunging dust-covered horses, the burning of the jail that contains the school-master and one of the most realistic court room scenes ever produced in any play. Although full of thrilling features, "M'Liss" does not depend upon them for its drawing power, for it tells one of the most powerful heart stories ever seen, interspersed with a delightful run of comedy. During the action of the play, Miss McHenry will introduce several of her songs that have made her world-wide famous.

Henderson's School Boys and Girls.
With Billy Henderson's big vaudeville combination as the attraction the New Phillips theatre was packed at both matinee and night performances, the bill consists of five feature vaudeville acts headed by Henderson's Happy School Boys and Girls, consisting of four boys and girls. They have been the feature act in all the large vaudeville houses in the country, having played continuously for over three years. It is just such a show as pleases from the oldest to the youngest and made up of plenty of singing and dancing and novelties. Manager Murray has made arrangements to hold the show over another day and they will appear today matinee and night.

Uncle Toms Cabin.
That old but ever welcome play, Uncle Toms Cabin will be seen at Phillips theatre for one night only, Thursday, September 9. Oelrich Bros. who have been playing the large eastern cities for the past fifteen years promise the best production ever before seen in Richmond. They have a company of twenty-five well known actors also an excellent band and orchestra. The play will be given a perfect production with special scenery and mechanical effects also a pack of blood hounds that are absolutely necessary for the escape of Eliza and the realistic ice scene on the Ohio river.

"Salaam"
"Salaam" will open at the New Phillips theatre Friday, September 10. That play has proven so successful this season is not to be wondered at when the talent is considered. The company is one of exceptional merit. Robt. B. Joplins the master of stage craft, personally supervised the production and it is his boast that never before has he given the public anything so elaborate or enjoyable. The play is one in which the talent of the author and composer show conspicuously. It is coherent and consistently contains songs to whistle, tunes to hum and ensemble numbers to remember. There are parodies and topical songs that are timely and best of up to date subjects. Robt. B. Joplins wrote the book and lyrics. With the array of talent and a capable acting company "Salaam" is considered a leader in this style of entertainment.

Yonder Stock Co.
The Yonder Stock Co. will open the regular season at the New Phillips with a special matinee Saturday, Sept. 11 presenting a repertoire of recent New York successes. Manager Murray has arranged a scale of prices at 10, 15 and 20 cents for the evening performances and 10 cents at the matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

IMPROVE THE TRACK

New cross ties and rails are being laid by workmen for the Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern Traction company on the Main street hill. The grade of the street will not be affected by the change. It is very probable that something will be done by the city authorities soon for the repair of the roadway. In many places the street is from a foot to eighteen inches below its former grade. This is due to heavy rains washing out the roadway badly.

FIRST ANNUAL REUNION.

Milton, Ind., Sept. 8.—The Bennett family held its first annual reunion at Jackson's park, Sunday. Those who were in attendance were Mrs. Charles Bldgood, of Shelbyville, Mo., Messrs. and Mesdames James Paxton of Jacksonburg, Garthwaite, Ellis Baird, Benj. Hatfield and children of Dublin, Frank Garthwaite and daughter of Indianapolis, Henry Bladel, Homer Klummer of Cambridge City, Edie Bennett and family of Milton, Edie Garthwaite and Albert Harter of Richmond. One brother, A. G. Paxton, was unable to be present. A fine dinner was served.

The Japanese have discovered a cheap substitute for the milk cow in the form of a tiny bean. The juice, which is extracted by a special process from the bean, is said to be an excellent vegetable milk, the properties of which render it highly suitable for use in tropical countries. The preparation, according to the Java Times, is obtained from the soja bean, a member of the leguminous family of plants, and a popular article of food among the poorer classes of Chinese and Japanese. In making the vegetable milk the beans are first of all softened by soaking and boiled in water. The resultant liquor is exactly similar to cow's milk in appearance, but is entirely different in its composition.

"One need only to try his luck at any of the Riviera gambling palaces to learn how slender are the chances to win at roulette," says a German correspondent writing from Ostend. "But if he would experience the gambler's disadvantage at its best, let him come to Ostend and join the baccarat players. The game as it is played gives the man who places his money against the bank no chance whatever, and if it were known how much money has been sacrificed this season in the endeavor to win by luck and by system the public would be horrified. It is nothing unusual for the bank to win twenty-four times before an outsider wins once. The people who play, if they have ever played before, know this, and still they come again, respond to the call until they depart and plant their gold in the baccarat mire, in the hope that it will bear fruit. It does—but what is the harvest?"—New York Tribune.

The twelfth international congress on alcoholism, held in London, was attended by about 1,400 members, including four hundred delegates from abroad.

ROBBED OF VALUABLES.

Greensfork, Ind., Sept. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Hoover arrived home from Indianapolis Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Hoover's mother who had been detained at Indianapolis on her way from Kansas to visit her daughter. She was robbed of her money, railroad ticket, glasses and check for her trunk on the way.

CORSET SAVED HER

That Mrs. J. C. Boyd of Columbus, Ohio, did not sustain more serious and perhaps fatal injuries, Sunday evening, when run over by an automobile at Fifteenth and Main streets, is attributed to the corset worn by her. In order to remove Mrs. Boyd from her dangerous position, was necessary to lift the machine from off her body. The attending physician states that her corset probably is responsible for her fortunate escape from more serious injuries, than minor bruises and cuts.
