

EATONS 59TH FAIR WILL OPEN MONDAY

Final Details Made, and Only
Good Weather Needed
For Successful Week.

TEACHERS' MEETING ENDS

C. H. MOSES OF GRATIS, ELECTED
PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATION—
TERRIBLE LONG SENTENCE OF LONE PRISONER.

Eaton, O., Sept. 11.—The fifty-ninth annual fair of the Preble County Agricultural society, will be opened at Eaton next Monday. Practically all the final details for the meeting have been completed and the event gives promise of being one of the most successful ever held since the organization of the society.

The following officers were chosen Friday morning by the Preble County Teachers' association to serve during the ensuing year:

President—Charles H. Moses, Gratis.
Vice President—O. P. Kimmel, Eaton.
Secretary—Miss Goldie Trunk, Eaton.

Executive committee—C. R. Coblenz, Campbelltown. Other members of this committee are M. M. Leiter, of Lewisburg and L. D. Bruse, of West Alexandria.

Preble County's jail now contains but one inmate, William Butler, who was committed there by Judge Fisher for the illegal selling of whiskey. Butler was assessed a fine of $150 and costs and sent to jail until "such fine and costs were paid, or otherwise released according to law." Such a commitment might keep the man there for a lifetime, were it not in the province of the county commissioners to order his release. These officials have not as yet seen fit to recommend his discharge, an dare apparently in no hurry to consider his case. Butler has been confined for 45 days and though he is anxious to get out, still his release appears to be a matter of remote conjecture.

The senior ball team from the St. Mary's Military institute, Dayton, will contest with the Eaton team Sunday afternoon on the local grounds, south of Eaton.

HANDS CRACKED RAW AND SCALY

Itched and Burned Terribly—Arms
Affected, Too—Could Not Move
Thumbs Without Flesh Cracking—
Sleep and Work Often Impossible—Was Fairly Worn Out.

CUTICURA SOON CURED HIS FEARFUL ECZEMA

"About a year ago an itching humor began to appear around the back of my hand. It started in to spread, and pretty soon it covered both my hands and got up over my wrists and over to the elbows. The itching and burning were terrible. My hands got all scaly and when I scratched, as I was doing a good part of the time, the surface would be covered with blisters and then get raw. The eczema got so bad in around the pit of my thumb that I could not move the thumb without deep cracks appearing. I went to my doctor, but his medicine could only stop the itching and did not seem to heal my hands up at all. At night I suffered so fearfully that I could not sleep, often lying awake until well toward morning, then waking up still tired. I am a chef and steward by trade and I had to give up my place, as my hands were so terrible to look at that they did not like to have me around about the food. I could not bear to touch them with water, but when I positively had to get my hands clean I would rub them with oil.

This sort of business went on for three months and I kept trying ointments and tar ointments and such remedies with no particular benefit. I did not know what to do, for I was fairly worn out. For a long time several friends kept asking me why I didn't use Cuticura and at last I thought I would. First I got the Cuticura Soap, then Cuticura Ointment and at last Cuticura Resolvent. I put the Cuticura Ointment on at night, covering my hands with light cotton gloves. In the morning the inside of the gloves would be lined with scales, sometimes half as long as your finger, leaving nice healed places where the scales had been. In a month I was cured and have kept so now for nine months. My hands and arms are perfectly clear of all traces of eczema and I think I am well rid of it. Walter H. Cox, 16 Somerset St., Boston, Mass. Sept. 25, 1908."

Cuticura Resolvent is sent throughout the world. Cuticura Soap, 25¢ per box. Cuticura Ointment, 25¢ per tin. Cuticura Resolvent, 50¢ per bottle. Cuticura, Inc., New York, N. Y.

Kid Conner and French Countess

"The Red Mill" which appeared at the Gennett this afternoon pleased a good-sized crowd. The show will be given again tonight.

"The Man of the Hour."

Nothing succeeds like success, and this is once more demonstrated in the case of George Broadhurst's "The Man of the Hour," which is now in its fourth successful year and which comes to the Gennett next Wednesday afternoon and night. The secret of the success that has attended "The Man of the Hour" is really not hard to find. We have had the so-called problem plays, based on theories and expounded into arguments. They soon wearied us. We have had, too, the sensational melodrama, and the hodge-podge farce comedy. We soon lost interest in them. What we shall never tire of, however, is a clean and wholesome story put together in such a way that each character, as revealed will be a photograph of real life. There are things in "The Man of the Hour" which make the higher life attractive, broaden the mind, enlarge the heart, soothe the soul and open the field for the true enjoyment of life and the things which do not harm our fellow man. Plays of this sort are doing good work and their popularity proves that the influence of the stage can be for good as readily as for evil.

"Red Mill" Pleased.

"The Red Mill" pleased a large audience this afternoon at the Gennett. This is the first time that children have had an opportunity of seeing a matinee of a comic opera and to say that they enjoyed it is to put it mildly. The little Dutch Kiddies received encore after encore. The costumes and scenery are all fresh, starting in at the beginning of the season. Bert Swor and Frank Woods are two clever comedians and their various disguises met with big receptions.

STOCK COMPANY OPENS.

Starting with a matinee today the Youder Stock Co., will present for their opening play the original version and production of "At Cozy Corners." There will be vaudeville, moving pictures and the usual specialties. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday. All seats 10 cents; evenings 10, 15 and 20 cents. Reserved seats are now on sale at the box office for the entire week. The first twenty-five ladies in line tonight will be admitted free.

ACTOR AGE LIMIT BADLY VIOLATED

Some Three Score Years and
Ten Tried to Take Kiddish
Role of Sweet M'Liss.

SHOW A LUDICROUS AFFAIR

SMALL AUDIENCE SEES BRET
HARTE'S CREDITABLE PRODUCTION SLAUGHTERED BY AN IN-FERIOR COMPANY.

If the show, "M'Liss," presented at the Gennett theater last night, with Miss Nellie McHenry in the title role, is a fair sample of the kind of shows the management of that theater is going to offer the amusement loving public of Richmond the coming winter, it is probable that the poor public will not survive the shock long. In the first place, the entire company was, perhaps, the poorest that has been seen in this city for several years at least. It was absolutely pathetic to see one of the age of "Jolly" Nellie McHenry attempt to assume a kiddish part and appear coy and coquettish. Perhaps there was a time, long years ago, when she was fairly successful in that sort of thing, but the time has long passed and the mere handful of persons who witnessed the performance last evening was painfully aware of this fact.

The Plot is Excellent.

The plot of "M'Liss" is an excellent one, and with a good company to put it on, is well worth seeing. But to see it butchered as it was last night would positively bring tears to a pair of glass eyes, and cause the public to sit up and wonder how the management can possibly be hoodwinked into presenting this play before the people and accepting real money for it. It is decidedly in the ten, twenty and thirty cent class and there have been stock companies here this season presenting much better plays.

Many people delude themselves by saying, "It will wear away," when they notice symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. This is a mistake. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy and stop the drain on the vitality. It cures backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, and makes every trace of pain, weakness, and urinary trouble disappear. A. G. Luken & Co.
