TO SELECT DELEGATE

Local Person Will Attend Charities and Correction Convention.

AN INTERESTING PROGRAM

At the October meeting of the board of the Wayne county Charities and Correction, a delegate to the state convention at Columbus, Ind., October 23-26, will be selected. Notices of the meeting have been received by the organization and also all township trustees of this county, county commissioners and Judge Fox of the circuit court. They are cordially invited to attend and it is probable that some of the trustees and the county commissioners will be able to do so. Judge Fox may attend providing his duties do not prevent.

An interesting program has been prepared and includes addresses by well known persons of the state who are interested and associated in work pertaining to charities and corrections.
