

THE DOG'S EYE.

Watch That, Not the Mouth, For Symptoms of Hydrophobia.

As dogs do not perspire, the only relief they seem to get when overheated is from inhaling cool air through their wide open mouths in short, puffing breaths. The friction between tongue and lips caused by their rapid, laborious breathing produces saliva, which is sometimes ignorantly diagnosed as foam, one of the symptoms of hydrophobia. Many innocent victims have lost their lives on account of such stupidity.

If your dog should feel ill, sick with some ordinary ailment, he will be welcome to you with a sad, pitiful expression, looking up inquiringly as if asking for help and relief. If it has come to the worst and he feels by instinct the germs of the dreaded disease in his frame, his action will be entirely different. You will find him with low bent head, withholding his usual glad welcome, hardly noticing or glancing at you.

If your eye meet his, the restless, nervous, strange expression will startle you. The dog, feeling his doom, is conscious of approaching danger and would like to prepare and warn you. These unmistakable and easily recognized signs should be watched closely and always heeded. Corner the dog at once and, with the help of a broom or barn fork, keep him at a safe distance until locked up.—Country Calendar.

THE SCOTS GRAYS.

Regiment of Dragoons Famous Since the Time of Charles II.

"Second to none" is the proud motto of the gallant and famous regiment, the Second Dragoon guards, or Royal Scots Grays. It is a happily chosen motto, for the fame of the regiment is worldwide. Its brilliant achievements on the field of battle during two centuries, its striking and historic name, its grand and imposing uniform have made the Royal Scots Grays, as an individual corps, there is no gainsaying, the most widely known and familiar of all the regiments of the British army.

Since the regiment was raised, in the reign of the second Charles, the dragoons have borne themselves well in many a famous field, but want of space forbids us to note the exploits until "earth shaking" Waterloo came on the glory roll of the gallant grays. Here, with the English "Royals" and Irish "Inniskillings," they formed the famous union brigade which made the never to be forgotten picture of the "Fight for the Standard." That widely known picture shows a man of the grays, Sergeant Ewart, capturing the eagle of a very famous French corps, the Forty-fifth of the line.—Scottish American.

Misera of Words.
We have the richest language that ever a people has accreted, and we use it as if it were the poorest. We hoard up our infinite wealth of words between the boards of dictionaries and in speech dole out the worn bronze coinage of our vocabulary. We are the misers of philological history, and when we can save our pennies and pass the counterfeit coin of slang we are as happy as if we were a blind beggar thank us for putting a pewter stepstone into his hat.—"Morals of Marcus Ordeyne."

"The Man of the Hour."

Custom can not stale George Broadhurst's powerful drama, "The Man of the Hour," which is now in its fourth year of success and which comes to the Gennett, Wednesday matinee and night, and it bids fair to go on until the copyright expires. A long stage career is the more assured for it because the interest does not depend upon the rendering of any particular part by a star actor. Throughout the beautiful story run the scarlet threads of laughter, the gray threads of pathos and the white threads of good deeds, and from these variegated strands Mr. Broadhurst has woven a tapestry of rumor, love and kindness that touches the eye and heart alike, and the figures stand out with startling fidelity to life. Managers W. A. Brady and Joe R. Grismer's special company will appear at this engagement. In its roster are such well known players as Arthur Maitland, Felix Haney, William Cullington, John Moore, T. S. Gulse, Paul Byron, William Lloyd, M. J. MacQuarrie, Edward Dewey, F. E. Warner, Arthur Hewitt, Geo. A. Cameron, Madeline Winthrop, Anna Roeler and Florence Mack.

"The Right of Way."
A good melodrama, well located in a pleasant form of entertainment, now and then, and local people much enjoy one. We have had some excellent plays of the type of late and all over the country the taste for melodrama seems to be increasing instead of diminishing. It is just a turn of the wheel of theatrical time again. Some of these days the now extinct spectacular extravaganza will again hold the public attention, but it is to be hoped that this period will be some time in coming to the top. Plays of action demand good acting, extravaganza, silk tights.

A melodrama to be seen here will be the dramatization of Sir Gilbert Parker's well known novel, "The Right of Way," by Eugene Presbrey. It is a heavy intense drama with many strong situations which border on the tragic.

"Williams' Imperials" are announced at the New Phillips theater for next Saturday, September 18, and from all reports they are sure to give a performance that is thoroughly pleasing.

Manager Williams, of this attraction has gone outside of the regular channels for material for this season's show, and the result is most gratifying. Among some of the new faces are Harry L. Cooper, the German comedian, formerly with the "Prince of Pilsen," Helen Almorah, prima-donna, last season with "The Girl Question," Violet Hilson, soubrette formerly with "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway," James Fagan, George Thurston, Thomas Merrick last season with Nixon and Zimmermann's "Lil Mose," and Joseph P. Dolan, late with "The Motor Girl."

A two act musical comedy is provided to show the individual talents of the company, and it is called, "The Imperials Abroad." The skit is a clever satire on the doings of American tourists in foreign lands, and is full of bright comedy and sparkling music which is all original and was written especially for the "Imperials." There are opportunities for fun making by the principals, with excuses galore for introducing a chorus of twenty-five good looking girls in numerous changes of elaborate costumes.

Covers $500,000 into the Treasury.
Word comes from Washington that Public Printer Donnelly has not only been able to administer the great Government Printing office within the appropriation made by Congress for the last fiscal year, but has been able to cover back into the treasury $400,000 of the appropriation, which he found to be in excess of his needs. If memory serves, this is the first time in the history of the great printing office that such a happening can be recorded. It is the usual thing to wind up the fiscal year with a deficiency. Public Printer Samuel B. Donnelly is a member of the International Typographical union.

Labor to Keep "Tab" on Judges.
The Chicago Federation of Labor decided at a regular meeting to keep hereafter a complete record of judicial decisions in labor cases adjudicated in Cook county, in questions issued names of the judges giving the decisions and their political affiliations. It was explained that the object of keeping such a record was to guide the officials of the affiliated labor organizations in making political endorsements of judicial candidates at elections. The action of the federation follows its fight against so-called "injunction" judges in the recent judicial election.

CLEAR THE COMPLEXION OVERNIGHT

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since its discovery one year ago, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles can now avail themselves of the special 50-cent package, recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50-cent package and the regular $2 jar may now be obtained in Richmond at W. H. Sad-hoff's and other leading drug stores. Samples for experimental purposes may be had free of charge by writing direct to the Emergency Laboratories, 22 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City.

SHADOWS OF LIVERPOOL.

Things Noted by Samuel Gompers in a Great English City.

Two things impressed Mr. Gompers very unfavorably in Liverpool, says Pennsylvania Grit. One was the existence of thousands of ragged, poorly or unshod men, women and children, wan and haggard, the permanently unemployed. So poor were they that even on Sunday, when they gathered in public parks and squares to listen to addresses or merely pass the time they appeared in the same rags and unshod.

The other unfavorable thing was the Chinatown of the city. About twenty years ago the first Chinese settled in Liverpool so unobtrusively as almost to pass unnoticed. Now there are fully 2,000 of them. They have no subtler ranean haunts, as in America, and the reason appears to be obvious, as they are permitted to marry white women or openly live in concubinage with them. In consequence there is a brood of offspring ranging from about eighteen years down, and Mr. Gompers made this observation—that the large youths of this offspring presented all the characteristics of their fathers and absolutely or substantially none of their white mothers, thus indicating that the Mongolian-Caucasian combination did not lead to amalgamation of the races and preservation of the best characteristics of both, but to extinction of the Caucasian element and reproduction of the Mongolian in apparently deteriorated form.

THE BRITISH MUSEUM.

Its Reading Room and the Thousands of Books It Contains.

In the reading room of the British museum decks are crowded with students all day long, and in addition to the books of reference, some 20,000 in number, which fill the open shelves of the room, from three to four thousand volumes are given out every day. Theology in a wide sense, including the Bible, Biblical literature, church history and works on the religious rites and ceremonies of all races and creeds, is easily at the head of the list, with about 300 volumes. Topography comes next, with about twenty fewer, and of these books on London amount to a quarter, books on English topography to another quarter, the other half being for the rest of the world. History and biography come next, English history being mostly in demand, and books on France and the French provinces second. Essays, criticism and miscellaneous literature take the fourth place and are followed by fiction—not less than five years old—moral philosophy, poetry and the fine arts, the drama, law and philology, political economy and so on down to politics, mathematics and chemistry, which have about forty volumes apiece, and, lastly, works on naval and military subjects, which seldom have more than three or four volumes each. It is a curious list and throws a useful light on the sort of studies taken up by the readers in the museum.—London Globe.

"Going," East and West.
"I tell you what," said Gotham, entertaining his western cousin, "everything's so high here it's almost impossible to keep a house going."
"Well," replied the Kansan, "the winds are so high out our way it's almost impossible to keep a house from going."—Philadelphia Press.

Cures Heat-Constipation FREE

At this time of the year city and county physicians publish their annual letters warning the public to beware of unripe or over-ripe fruit; germ-laden food and water, etc. But of more importance still is to warn people to keep their bowels well open these hot days, and this applies to young and old, but especially to the extreme of ages. To be constipated is to be in danger of germ-infection. Also, it thickens and over-heats the blood, producing sick-headache, loss of appetite, etc. Instead of trying to get bowel movement by over-eating yourself with fruit (which is more likely to produce diarrhea than cure the constipation) use DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEP-SIN once or twice a week before retiring. It will clean out the bowels, tone the stomach and put the blood in good order. This remedy is a vast improvement over salts and purgative waters, tablets, pills, etc., for these are only temporary expedients. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEP-SIN is permanent in its effect and contains ingredients that tone and strengthen the body. Its pleasant taste and freedom from gripping recommends it to children and old people, who especially need a gentle laxative. Any drug-gist will sell you a bottle for only 50 cents or $1.00 and guarantee results.
