

OPENING MARKED BY LARGE CROWD

Three Thousand People on the Eaton Fair Grounds
Yesterday.

TWO INTERESTING RACES

ROAD RACE WITH GOOD FIELD
PROVED HARD FOUGHT EVENT,
FIVE HEATS BEING NECESSARY
FOR DECISION.

The opening day of the Preble County fair was marked by a greater attendance than on the corresponding day last year. The sale of tickets was large and about three thousand people were on the grounds. There were but two race events carded, one for roadsters and the other for colts, both confined to horses owned in the county. Both contests were interesting and the time made was comparatively good, as the drivers were all out to win.

In the roadster contest, centered about Maude Amelia, owned by George Fadley of West Alexandria, and Shocking Stranger, owned by D. Shock of Gratiot. Five heats had to be raced, Shocking Stranger taking three firsts and two seconds. The third heat was made doubly exciting by the fact that Teddy Drayer, owned by Ed Seals of West Alexandria, bolted the track and ran away, tearing down the stretch driverless at a fearful gallop. Mr. Seals toppled off the sulky at the turn into the home stretch, when the animal collided with the fence, but escaped unhurt. Of the eleven entries, eight started, and the contest by heats was as follows:

The contest for colts was also a half mile race and was easily won by Violet Strong, owned by W. H. Buck of Eaton. This race went for heats and six of the ten entries started. A summary is as follows:

Racing for Today.

The card for today contains two trots and a pace, and an aggregate of over a thousand dollars is hung up in purse. A big crowd of people was in attendance, and the indications at present point to one of the biggest shows in history of the society. The week in Eaton is made a holiday occasion and many former residents and others are attracted to the city. Thursday will be the big day, and a record-breaking crowd is expected, in the event of fine weather.

MISSIONARY'S WIFE PRAISES CUTICURA

Daughter's Head Encrusted with Dandruff—Feared she Would Lose her Hair—Many Treatments were Futile—Baby had Milk-Crust.

BOTH CHILDREN CURED BY FAMOUS REMEDIES

"For several years my husband was a millionaire in the Southwest, and we were living on the edge of the desert at an elevation of nearly five thousand feet. Every one in that high and dry atmosphere had more or less trouble with dandruff and my daughter's scalp became so encrusted with it that I was alarmed for fear she would lose all her hair, which was very heavy. After trying between five and six dollars for various remedies, in vain, I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. After rubbing the Cuticura Ointment thoroughly into the roots of the hair, I gently combed out the dandruff free from the scalp, and then gave the head a thorough shampoo with the Cuticura Soap. This left the scalp beautifully clean and free from dandruff, and after the hair was dry, I again rubbed the Cuticura Ointment, this time directly into the roots, and I am happy to say that the Cuticura Remedies were a complete success. My troubles with dandruff were over, although for a long time after that I used the Cuticura Ointment as at first, after shampooing, which kept the scalp and roots of the hair moist. I have used successfully the Cuticura Remedies for so-called 'milk crust' on the head, and have never found anything to equal them. You are at liberty to publish this letter, for I do sincerely believe that the Cuticura Remedies are a blessing to mankind."—Mrs. J. A. Dilling, 310 Fifth St., Carthage, Ohio, Jan. 20, 1908.

Cuticura Ointment is one of the most successful cures for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, ever compounded, in proportion to a skin affection with it, preceded by hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed, when necessary, by a mild dose of Cuticura Resolvent (liquid or pills) is often sufficient to afford immediate relief of itch, irritation, small ulcers, eczema, irritations and inflammations, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.

—AT THE THEATRES

"The Man of the Hour."

The announcement at the Gennett for tonight is George Broadhurst's greatest of all American plays, "The Man of the Hour." One sits down to this play as he would to a good dinner. The heartiness and wholesomeness of the characters, together with the theme of the play itself, the right fighting against evil, are among the things that give the performance its human quality and cause it to appeal to all. The characters are delightful creations, strong and convincing and thoroughly in keeping with their surroundings. "The Man of the Hour" is as true to life that doesn't seem like a play, and in the illusion that is created the spectator fancies he is looking upon real people, doing real things. "The Man of the Hour" promises a large matinee audience this afternoon.

& Keith Stock Company.

Beginning Monday night, when the Keith Stock company opens a week's engagement at the Gennett theater, Richmond theater goers will be treated to one of the best stock organizations ever seen at popular prices.

The acting company is without doubt the best ever seen with a popular priced attraction, such well known people as Chris Young, Joe Kiley, coon shouter, Helen Leslie, top southerner, Alfred Clark and Miss Besse Warren are included in the cast. Every detail has been attended to. Get the habit and visit the Keith Stock.

Youder Stock Company.

The New Phillips theater has been doing a fine business with the Youder show which has been giving the best of satisfaction. There will be a special reception matinee today at 2:30. Tonight will be the last opportunity to see "At Cozy Corners."

Commemorating Thursday evening ladies free night, the company will present "Her Husband's Friend," a comedy for laughing purposes only. There will be new vaudeville acts, moving pictures and illustrated songs between the acts. Special scenery will be painted for each production and it is hoped that the people of Richmond will turn out in large numbers and make the engagement of the Youder Company a pleasant one.

CANDIDATES WILL NOT BE PLEDGED

No Promises to Be Exacted By the Indiana Anti-Saloon League.

A NEW SYSTEM DEVISED

IN FUTURE THE TEMPERANCE ORGANIZATION WILL SUPPORT MEN WHO APPEAR TO BE IN- CLINED IN ITS DIRECTION.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—R. C. Minton, general attorney for the Indiana Anti-saloon league, has announced that the league will not attempt to exact promises from candidates for the legislature to support the league's legislative program at the next session. This will be entirely different from the plan followed last year, when the league canvassed all of the candidates of both parties all over the state, and demanded promises that they would vote for the bills promoted and favored by the league. The candidates were judged according to the answers which they gave to the league, and the league made up its slate accordingly.

Williams Imperials.

"Williams' Imperials," aptly styled the big, bright, fun and beauty show comes to the New Phillips Saturday, September 18.

The Imperials are prime favorites all the larger cities, and rightly so for they have never failed to present a snappy, gingery entertainment, well calculated to chase the blues and guarantee to cure any case of grouch ever known.

A new two-act sparkling burletta, "The Imperials Abroad," is staged and costumed in elaborate fashion and serves to introduce Harry L. Cooper, the favorite German comedian, Helen Almora, prima donna, and Violet Wilson, a dainty soubrette.

A typical Williams chorus of "nifty" singing and dancing damsels will be much in evidence in the ensembles.

In the vaudeville section will be seen Clara Raymond and Corinne De Forest in a novel sister act; the Irish American Trio, in a comedy singing sketch; Senorita Korenah, the famous Spanish dancing beauty; Violet Wilson, singing and dancing skit, and Zazel's artist's models in a series of beautiful living pictures copied from paintings in the salons of Paris.

stitutionality of the law. He is regarded as one of the very best posted men in the state on liquor laws, and he is a smooth politician and a hard worker in the cause. Therefore, what he says in this regard is accepted as showing just what the policy of the league next year will be.

Plan Is Much Favored.

It is believed that the candidates for the legislature next year will feel better in the campaign if they are not asked to bind themselves on the liquor question, for both parties will do their utmost to keep the saloon question from being mentioned in their state platforms. This is evident from the talk that is heard on both sides whenever the subject is mentioned. The republicans fear that to indorse in any way the county option law will lay their party open to attack by the liberal voters who do not now and never did, approve of the local option law. They realize that the liquor question last year was largely responsible for the slump that the party suffered at the election, and no one is more thoroughly convinced of this than James E. Watson, who ran for governor on the republican ticket.
