SHE NEEDED SHOES SO STEALS MONEY

Sixteen Year Old Marion Thompson Takes $12 From Mrs. DeLucia.

SHE TOLD A PITIFUL TALE

CHILD TELLS THE POLICE HER HOME WAS IN NEW YORK, BUT SHE CAME HERE IN SEARCH OF RELATIVES.

Because she needed shoes and clothes and the people with whom she was living would not buy them for her, Marion Thompson, aged 16 years, stole $12 from Mrs. Minnie DeLucia, Tuesday, at the home of the latter on West Third street. The girl admitted her guilt when arrested and will probably be bound over to the juvenile court.

The young girl told a pitiful tale at police headquarters. She claimed that her home was originally in New York City, but that she came here several years ago in the search for some relatives, who were never found. She took up her abode with the DeLucia family in this city, recently, and since that time has been subjected to much cruel treatment and pitifully neglected as to her personal needs, she avers. Tuesday, she says, in desperation, and after repeated refusals to buy her clothes, the girl stole $12 from the purse of Mrs. DeLucia, while the woman was in the back yard. She states that she knew she was doing wrong at the time, but that she needed shoes and clothing and that fact prompted the deed.

The home of Mrs. DeLucia bears a bad reputation it is said. It is claimed that the house is frequented by a number of Italian laborers and some startling information has been secured as the result of the thorough investigation that will be made by Prosecuting Attorney Ladd.

JOHNSON IS BETTER

Physicians Stated Today That Slight Improvement Is Noted.

VERY LOW DURING NIGHT

(American News Service) Rochester, Minn., Sept. 16.—A slight improvement was noted today in the condition of Governor Johnson of Minnesota, who was operated on yesterday for intestinal abscess. At 12:30 o'clock this morning the house physician, Dr. C. F. McLeven, of St. Mary's hospital, issued the following bulletin: "Governor Johnson has taken a turn for the better." Up until that time it was feared that the governor would not survive the night. He had had several sinking spells after three hours on the operating table. The attendant physicians think that if the governor lives twelve hours longer the danger line will have been passed.

JUST FALSE ALARM

A false alarm was turned in from fire box No. 48 last evening about 8 o'clock. The departments made a quick run to North Fifth and J streets, but failed to discover any evidence of a fire. It is said to be the malicious work of small boys in that locality.

GREENSFORK MAN ADMITS GUILT SO ARRESTS HIMSELF

Prosecutor Ladd Too Busy to Leave City to Prosecute the Case, So John Franklin Obliges Officer.

ALSO TAKES OFFICER ON AUTOMOBILE RIDE

Before Leaving, Considerate Clay Township Man Secures Affidavit and Goes Home to Pay a Fine.

Until yesterday no instance was known in local police circles where the defendant in the case acted as deputy prosecutor and served an affidavit against himself. It remained for John Franklin, a farmer residing near Greensfork, to establish a precedent in this particular, although prosecuting Attorney Charles Ladd is responsible for it.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Franklin came to this city in his automobile. He was seen by Mr. Ladd and during the course of the conversation the prosecutor asked Franklin if it were true that he (Franklin) was intoxicated at Greensfork last week. Franklin finally admitted that he "had a few on board," and when asked if he did not think he should be fined for such conduct, Franklin couldn't see it that way at first, but after much persuasion on the part of Mr. Ladd the farmer was forced to admit that "he supposed he ought."

Helps Out Prosecutor. "Well, now, I'll tell you what I'll do," said Mr. Ladd. "It will be a great inconvenience for me to go to Greensfork to file an affidavit against you, so get in your automobile and take me up to my office and I'll write out one for you to take home. Do you catch my drift?" Franklin said he was "on," and following a ride about the city, Mr. Ladd, wondering if he were dreaming or merely in a trance, was driven to his office, where he prepared the affidavit and gave Franklin final instructions as to the methods to be pursued in arresting himself. Today Mr. Ladd received word that the fine had been paid to the Greensfork square and that his bank account had been increased to the extent of five dollars. "It is really a shame to take the money," said the prosecutor, wearing the smile that went come off, "but people oughtn't to get drunk—it's bad business." And those who stood near are confident they saw Mr. Ladd cross his fingers and wink his left eye.

WILD GESE.

They Never Feed Without Throwing Out Scouts or Sentries.

Some of the common sayings concerning birds are stupidly wrong. "You stupid goose" is an expression constantly heard, yet the goose, whether wild or tame, is most sagacious. Wild geese, for instance, never feed without throwing out scouts or sentries. J. G. Mills describes how he saw a flock of geese feeding with sentries out and how after a time one of the sentries went up to a bird that was feeding and gave it a gentle peck on the back. The latter thereupon left its grazing and went off to take up guard, while the sentry took its turn to feed.

"Gentle as a dove" is such a common proverb that the dove has become the emblem of peace. Quite a mistake, for all the dove and pigeon tribe are great fighters, and in the breeding season the cock birds indulge in battles royal.

The foolish prejudice against all birds of prey includes that pretty little hawk the kestrel. Now, if the kestrel were known as the mouse falcon it is possible that keepers would not invariably shoot it on sight. The kestrel lives mainly on mice and wireworms. It is quite innocent of killing partridges.

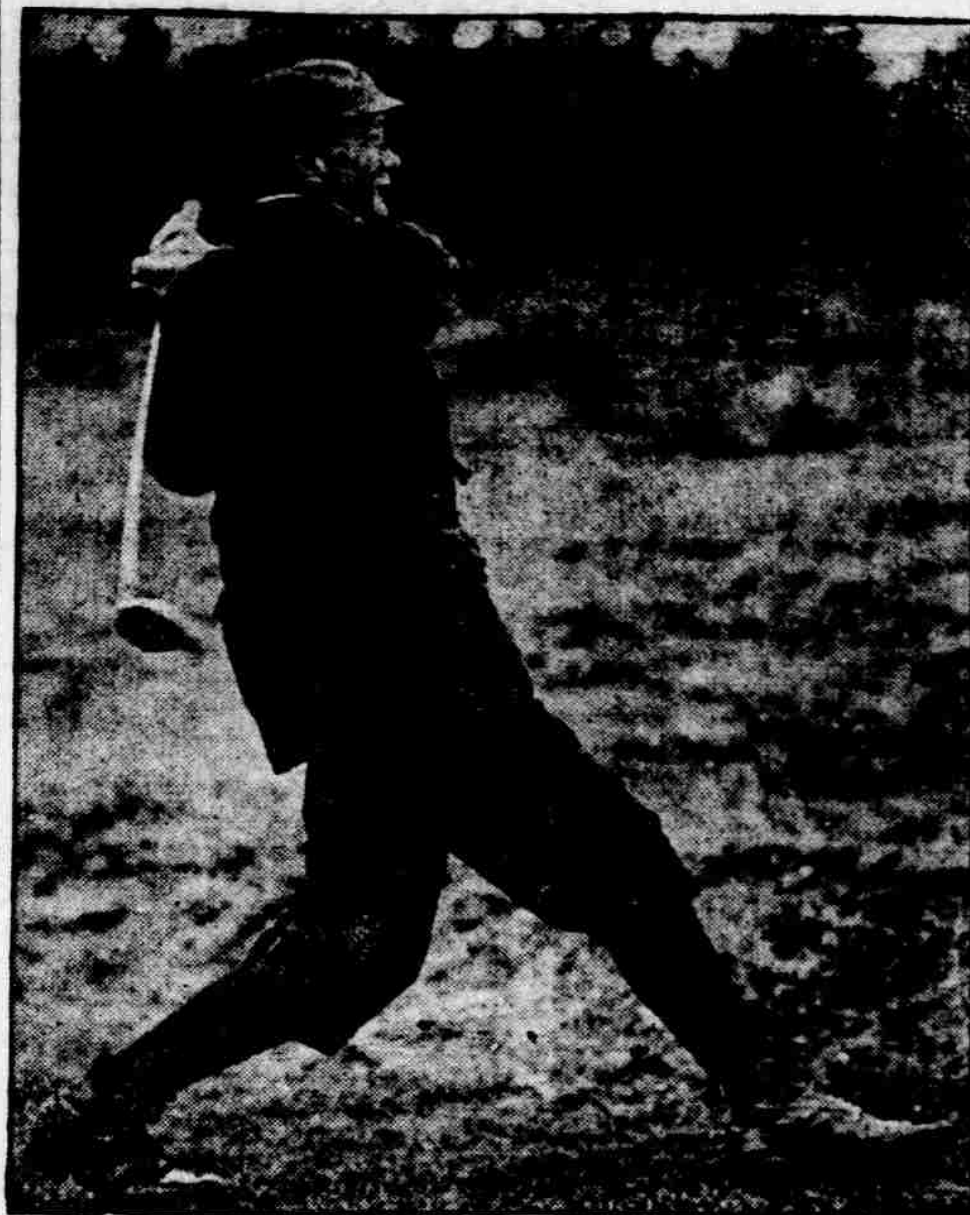

In a game preserving district in southern Scotland kestrels were practically exterminated a few years ago. What was the result? Over a tract of country of 1,200 square miles field mice increased in such numbers that the grazing was absolutely ruined. One sheep farmer lost $8,000 in one year's exchange.

The Wheel Problem. Which, at any given moment, is moving forward faster—the top of a coach wheel or the bottom?

The answer to this question seems simple enough, but probably nine persons out of ten, asked at random, would give the wrong reply. It would appear at first sight that the top and bottom must be moving at the same rate—that is, the speed of the carriage. But by a little thought it will be discovered that the bottom of the wheel is in fact, by the direction of its motion around its axis, moving backward, in an opposite direction to that which the carriage is advancing and is consequently stationary in space, while the point on top of the wheel is moving forward with the double velocity of its own motion around the axis and the speed at which the carriage moves.

A Monster Octopus. An octopus which had been in a fight with some other monster once drifted ashore on the Malay peninsula. He had feelers, or arms, which were from twelve to seventeen feet long and weighed altogether 550 pounds. It was calculated that he was big enough and strong enough to drag a two-ton fishing boat under the surface by main strength.

MUCH IN EVIDENCE

Many Richmond People Attended Preble County Fair Today.

OVER 600 TICKETS SOLD

Richmond people were very much in evidence at the Preble County fair at Eaton, O., today. Every interurban leaving Richmond for the Ohio city, was packed to its utmost capacity and 680 single and round-trip tickets were sold to Eaton today at the interurban ticket office on South Eighth street. The Pennsylvania railroad did a big business, too, on account of the fair. There were 217 tickets sold this morning at the depot. It is expected another large delegation of Richmond people will attend the fair tomorrow, although today is supposed to be the "big day." Ideal weather conditions make the attendance at the fair, so far, larger than it has been for years, and it is expected all records will be broken at the end of the week.

PRESENTS BIG BILL

Claiming that he is entitled to $1,800 as a result of the care, and attention given by him to Sarah Shafer, deceased, Marcus Porterfield, living at Twentieth and North A streets, has brought suit in the circuit court against Mrs. Shafer's estate for the above amount. In the complaint, he avers that Mrs. Shafer lived with his family for six years prior to her death and that he lodged, boarded, cared and nursed her for nothing during this period.

A MONTHLY MEETING

Several matters of importance will be discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the South Eighth Street Friends' church this evening which will be held in the church.

The Whistle Tankard. A rare form of drinking vessel is in the possession of the corporation of Hull. This is a whistle tankard which belonged to Anthony Lambert, mayor of Hull in 1693. This fine specimen of old English silverware is fitted with a whistle, which comes into play when the tankard is empty and is evidently meant to be used as a signal for more liquor. It is said that only one other whistle tankard is to be found in England, so temperance is England now!—London Chronicle.

A Good Alarm Clock. Husband—Why don't you have the cook shut the kitchen door? One can smell the breakfast cooking all over the house. Wife—We leave it open on purpose. The smell is all that gets the family up.—Judge.

Beauty is part of the finished language by which goodness speaks.—Ellet.

$10,000 DAMAGE SUIT IS BROUGHT

William Nearon Brings Legal Action Against Town Of Eaton.

FILED IN FEDERAL COURT

ACTION IS THE RESULT OF SEVERE ACCIDENT EXPERIENCED BY RICHMOND MAN IN FALL ON A SIDEWALK.

Suit for $10,000 damages was filed in the federal court at Cincinnati by William Nearon of this city against the village of Eaton, O., for injuries received last January.

While on a visit to his brother in Eaton last winter Nearon arose before daybreak to catch a train for Richmond. The sidewalk near his brother's house was being improved at the time and Nearon in running stumbled over an obstruction in the form of a cement step which was lying on the sidewalk. It was dark at the time and there are alleged to have been no lights displayed. Nearon was severely injured. He broke several ribs and sustained internal injuries of a serious nature.

It is feared by the attending physician that Nearon can not recover and in view of this his deposition will be taken next Wednesday. Dinmore and Stoll of Cincinnati, and Robbins and Robbins of this city are Nearon's attorneys. The case has not been set for trial. The suit was filed in the federal court because Nearon is a non-resident of Ohio.

CHILD ABUSE CASE BEFORE JUDGE FOX

Serious Charges Are Made Against Parents of a Negro Girl.

GIVEN CRUEL WHIPPINGS

PROBATION OFFICER ALLEGES THE CHILD IS NEGLECTED, DIRTY, ILL-FED, AND LIVES IN A POOR HOME.

With the petition filed in juvenile court today by Mrs. Elizabeth Candler, probation officer, that Korebea Wilts, a five year old colored girl, be turned over to the care of the children's guardians, one of the most pitiful and cruel cases of child abuse has come to light. The petition is accompanied by an affidavit filed by Prosecuting Attorney Ladd in which he charges delinquency and that the child is kept in a house of ill repute. John Wilts, the parent, is a negro and his first wife is dead. His second wife will not permit the child to come to the house and so the father has placed it in the care of Lizzie Mayes, South Sixth street. He pays a small board.

Mrs. Candler in her petition to Judge Fox of the juvenile court says "the child is neglected, dirty, cruelly whipped, ill fed and otherwise badly abused. Its home is filthy and unkept."
