Cincinnati, Sept. 17.—Pittsburg defeated Cincinnati here by the score of 9 to 3. Poor fielding lost the game for Cincinnati after the locals had taken the lead.
 A wild throw by Downey after two were out in the eighth inning started the trouble.
 A fight between some of the Cincinnati players and a crowd of insulting spectators was only prevented by the quick work of the police.
 Miller's steal home was a feature.

Leprosy.
 Leprosy is a singularly undemonstrative disease. Out of hundreds only a few have a startling not to say horrible appearance. It is very mild, contagious, and nurses and attendants have spent ten, twenty, fifty years in leper colonies without catching it.

STUDY HANDS BLOW

Sidewalk vendors who have been blowing up their standards and signs will probably be blown away by the City Attorney T. J. Study stated this morning that they had no right to use the streets to promote a private enterprise. He believes that the expressmen should be compelled to make their headquarters on the vacant lot, Fifth and South A streets. It is probable that the matter will be brought to council's attention soon.
 A number of complaints have been registered against the pop corn and peanut vendors who occupy the city streets wherever they so desire. The vendors leave a mass of paper, pop corn and peanut shells which is proving very annoying to the residents in front of whose properties they take up their stand.

GIVEN PUNISHMENT

Marion Thompson was ordered sent to the Indiana Industrial school for girls at Indianapolis this morning by Judge Fox of the juvenile court, when she was arraigned before him on a charge of incorrigibility. The girl is but fifteen years old and has been living with an aunt, Mrs. Minnie DeLucia, Sheridan street, for the past two years. She recently stole $12 from a boarder in order that she might buy clothes and shoes. More because the girl's home was not what it ought to be than because the child is incorrigible, was the cause of the court's action.

ON FISH CAMPAIGN

Day Sergeant Mort Little left today on a two weeks' fishing trip to various lakes in Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan. It is expected the population of the fishy tribe in that region will be materially decreased when Little arrives.

COURT THREATENS A COLORED WOMAN

Promises Jail Sentence If She Does Not Produce the Wilts Child.

DENIES ALL KNOWLEDGE

LIZZIE MAYES GROWS INDIGNANT OVER NEWSPAPER ARTICLE ABOUT HER AND BLAMES THE PROBATION OFFICER.

Unless Lizzie Mayes, a colored woman living on South Sixth street informs Judge Fox of the circuit court as to the whereabouts of Korveba Wilts, a five year old colored girl who has been in her charge until recently, by Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, she will be sent to jail where she will remain until she consents to give the desired information. The Mayes woman was told so in so many words by Judge Fox and Sheriff Meredith this morning when she appeared in court to be a witness in the case of the state against the Wilts girl, whom Probation Officer Mrs. Elizabeth Candler recommends be turned over to the care of the children's guardians.

Of the many prevaricators who have appeared before Judge Fox, he believes the Mayes woman is one of the most proficient. She not only contradicted her own statements but made statements which are known to be untrue.

Ordered to Appear.
 Mrs. Mayes had been instructed by the court to appear in the juvenile court this morning with Korveba Wilts, who has been under her charge for some time. When the deputy sheriff went after her this morning, she informed him that she would not tell where the child was. She was accompanied by a friend and Deputy Sheriff Mashmeyer to the court house this morning.

According to her actions, when she entered the court room it appeared that Mrs. Candler was in danger of bodily harm. She accused Mrs. Candler of publishing yesterday's story in this paper about her. She told Mrs. Candler that she had no right to print such news and that she would make her prove it.
 When it was time for Lizzie to appear before Judge Fox, he invited her into his office where all juvenile cases are tried. In brief she informed the court, after much persuasion on his part, that Rebecca Scott, of New Castle, with none too good a reputation, according to testimony introduced, had taken the child home with her two months ago. She said she did not know where the child was or whether John Wilts, the parent, had it under his care. She said she could give no satisfactory explanation as to whether the father had his child or not, because he moved so often that she could not keep track of him.

Mrs. Candler's Report.
 Mrs. Candler said that the child was at Mrs. Mayes' home on September 1 when she investigated the case and found that the child was not clean, was whipped cruelly and kept in a house of ill repute.
 As Lizzie and her friends saw the private office of Judge Fox, one of them stuck her head in at the crack of the door and saw something amusing. She then went that Mrs. Candler was to prove what she charges against the girl to the court, that the child has been kept in an unhealthy atmosphere.

YINGLING TO DIE

Internal injuries of such a complicated nature have developed in the case of Harry Yingling, who was injured on the Pennsylvania railroad near North Nineteenth street Sunday night, that practically no hope is entertained now for his recovery. The man's condition was reported as slightly improved yesterday, but last night he took a sudden turn for the worse and his death may be expected at any time it is said.

OLD "FRIEND" BACK

After an absence of several months emasles has again made its appearance in the city. Thelma, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nicholson, 505 North Twentieth street is afflicted with the disease. The necessary precautions have been taken against the spread of the contagion, however, and there is no danger of an epidemic resulting, it is said.

REPEATED OFFENSE

Byron Hasty was arrested for intoxication again yesterday afternoon, about four hours after he had paid a fine of $5 and costs for a similar offense Wednesday night. In the city court this afternoon friends interceded in Hasty's behalf and the man will be sent to Dayton, O., where he will be given the Keeley cure. Hasty is a good workman during his periods of sobriety, but his love for liquor and addiction to the habit, are rapidly causing him to become a physical wreck.

BUMBAUGH IS HERE

Noted Aviator Arrived in City To Hunt a Starting Place.

SEVERAL SITES VISITED

George L. Bumbaugh, the aviator who has been engaged by the Fall Festival association to give two daily ascensions October 6, 7 and 8, was in the city today conferring with the committee in charge of the affair. The committee with Mr. Bumbaugh visited a number of sites where he might perform his aerial stunts. He was well pleased with several open spaces in the south part of the city, but at the time of going to press, no decision had been reached as to the exact location.

It requires an open space of considerable size for Mr. Bumbaugh to make his ascension. The balloon rises at a 45 degree angle and so it can be readily seen the importance of having a large open space that he may rise and descend without becoming entangled in wires and trees.

TENTH INDUSTRY MAY COME AGAIN

Lieut. Col. Cecil States It Is Possible to Visit Will Be Here.

IS A GOOD ATTRACTION

FALL FESTIVAL COMMITTEE NOW HOPES REGULARS WILL BE QUINCY THE CITY THE ENTIRE DAY.

Indiana that Richmond will be host to the U. S. Infantry, or at least a company of it, stationed at the Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, during the Fall Festival. A receipt of a letter in reply to an invitation to visit Richmond was received by the committee. It was told that it was probable that the regiment would be in Richmond October 6-7-8, which are the days of the festival. Colonel George C. Cecil, is acting as temporary commander.

Last year the regiment spent three days in the city as its guests, and was the center of attraction on the last day, which was known as military day.

Numerous invitations. It has been hoped by the executive committee in charge of this year's festival that the soldiers would make an annual visit to this city. Several members of the committee have, on visits to Indianapolis, called upon the commanding officer and presented urgent invitations for the regiment to attend the festival. However, at the time of these committee members' visits, the officers could not promise to attend, and in fact, gave the impression that it would be impossible to come.

The soldiers and the officers appreciated their visit and treatment here last year very much. The regulars all want to return to that "dear old Richmond." The letter in reply to the executive committee's invitations shows the sentiment of the officers in the matter. If Col. Green approves of the visit upon his return, Richmond will entertain the soldiers again.

A ROBBERY CHARGE

An affidavit has been filed in the circuit court against Charles Miller, charging him with robbery. Miller robbed an Italian in a saloon on Ft. Wayne avenue recently.

A WILD WEST STUNT

Unknown Man Armed With a Gun Terrorizes Needmore Citizens.

SHOOTS THROUGH HOUSE

Residents in the vicinity of Needmore, south of the city, were startled this morning by a man, apparently under the influence of liquor, who was armed with a gun and who insisted upon shooting at everything in sight. He shot through the window of a farmer's house whose name could not be learned, but fortunately no one was injured. The police were notified of the man's reckless actions and deputy sheriff Oscar Mashmeyer and patrolman Remmert were dispatched to the scene of the shooting, but the man had disappeared and no trace as to his whereabouts could be ascertained. It is believed the unknown man is an escaped lunatic and every effort is being made to locate him.

HE GOES TO MUNCIE

Charles Ladd, prosecuting attorney, went to Muncie today to consult with officials of the Western Reserve Life Insurance Company concerning the record of Earl T. Hall, the insurance faker, who is confined in the county jail, awaiting trial for embezzling $30 from local physicians. Prosecutor Ladd is not satisfied with the information he has on hand, believing that Hall has a better defense than appears on the surface. He wants to get complete details of Hall's operations all over the state before he brings the case to trial.
