A PARDON PETITION

Friends of John Brown, colored, are active in his behalf.

ARE SECURING NAMES NOW

A petition is being circulated among the friends in this city of John Brown, colored, requesting Brown's release from the penitentiary at Michigan City where he was sent on the 19th day of July, 1907, for a term of from two to fourteen years for shooting Mrs. Lulu Fee, colored, with intent to kill. It is said Brown has been ill ever since he was sent to prison and that his condition has now become serious. As many names as can be secured, will be signed to the petition which will then be sent to Governor Marshall.

CRANE IS ARRESTED

In the arrest this morning of Howard Crane, colored, aged 14, the police believe they have put a stop to the whole-sale bicycle thefts that have been baffling the authorities of this city for the past few months. The boy will be bound over to the juvenile court. Crane is alleged to have stolen the bicycles belonging to Edward Treffinger, Willard Stevens and Albert Gauslin recently. He admits that he has stolen several bicycles, but does not know to whom they belonged. The youth is said to be incorrigible. He formerly lived with an aunt on South H street, but she could do nothing with him and the boy was continually getting into trouble. The youngster apparently does not appear to realize the enormity of his offense.

DIES AT DAYTON, O.

Miss Essie Brown, formerly of this city, died at Dayton, O., yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock after a lingering illness. Death was due to tuberculosis. The body will arrive in this city at 10 o'clock, Sunday morning, and will be taken to 905 North I street for funeral services. The burial will be in Earlham cemetery. Friends may call after 12 o'clock, Sunday. Miss Brown was very well known in this city where she resided until last winter. She was an accomplished musician.

SYDNEY ARRANGES A PEARY WELCOME

Canadian Government Plans Reception Rivaling the Danes' Welcome.

IS TO ARRIVE TUESDAY

EXPLORER WILL BE TAKEN TO BOSTON ON SPECIAL CAR AFTER A GREAT ROUND OF FETES ARE GIVEN HIM.

(American News Service)
Sydney, C. B., Sept. 18.—Arrangements for welcoming Commander Robert E. Peary with a rush today. The dominion of Canada will give him a greeting that is expected to rival that extended to Dr. Cook when he arrived in Copenhagen.

Commander Peary is expected to arrive here Tuesday morning. Arrangements have already been made for a private car on the Inter-Colonial railway and according to the present plan it will leave here on Wednesday, attached to the regular day express bound for Boston after a great round of welcoming fetes.

He May Not Attend.
The likelihood developed today that Peary would not be able to attend the Hudson-Fulton celebration in New York. It is also believed that the Roosevelt will not arrive in New York soon enough to take part in the great pageant.

Mrs. Peary has received the following message from her husband: "Barring weather, should arrive in Sydney Tuesday morning."

Upon receipt of this message the time of leaving was switched. According to these plans Commander Peary and his family were to leave on Tuesday. Now it is arranged for them to leave on Wednesday.

"I suppose that my husband will be on the go all day Tuesday," exclaimed Mrs. Peary mournfully. "He will be tired when he arrives and then there will be the celebration and the exertion of attending a banquet and speaking on Tuesday night. That has made it necessary that we should change the time of leaving here. I want my husband to get all the rest he can."

AN ELECTION HELD

West Side Improvement Association Was in Session Last Night.

HEIRONIMUS IS PRESIDENT

Officers for the coming year were elected last evening at the meeting of the West Side Improvement association. N. C. Heironimus was re-elected president of the organization. The executive committee consisting of the officers and four elect members will meet next Friday evening and appoint the standing committees for the year. Members of the association are very optimistic over the prospects for a successful year and at the meeting last evening there was great rejoicing over the fact that the new house for that section of the city is now a certainty.

The officers elected were as follows: N. C. Heironimus, president; George Matthews, first vice president; John Foster, second vice president; O. H. Little, third vice president; Levi Peacock, treasurer; J. W. Outland, secretary; A. D. Hole, assistant secretary. The chairman of the permanent committees are Caleb King, A. M. Gardner, Dr. E. B. Grosvenor and Richard Sedgwick.

Dublin's Favorite Pastime is Dear Old Croquet

Dublin, Ind., Sept. 18.—Speak not again in tones of derisive scorn concerning the meek and lowly game of croquet. Heretofore it has been to laugh. No more. This pastime, known to the sacrilegious as "Presbyterian billiards," has been legitimized by eastern Indiana until it has been rounded into tournament form. The eastern Indiana croquet tournament came to a close this afternoon and it was the victor. Believe it or not, these meek sports played. It was what the sporting editor would call class.

Perkins, thinking of croquet as an ancient and Agnes game, that is played with the grassy sward with long-handled mallets, wickets of wire and a small ball. At each end of the ground you see a stake topped with the hues of the rainbow. Very winsome Clarence, who is a young man from Battenberg, and Lucius Loewenberg, a young man from Dubuque, were the winners. The game is a combination of the wooden balls and the mallets, and the players are sent to the field to play it in society. But the game is not a game, not in Dublin. It is a game that makes the ordinary croquet look like mumblety-peg.

No grass for the eastern Indiana croquet. The naked face of Mother Nature is the playground for them. The croquet ground lies between McKee's office and Benjamin McKee's Hatfield's store. It is a vacant lot that has been cultivated for croquet. It has been burned down, for all of the croqueters were daily grateful for the hole was filled.

May Be Two Resignations in The United States Supreme Court.

TO CONVENE IN OCTOBER

(American News Service)
Washington, Sept. 18.—When the United States supreme court re-assembles for the fall term, October 11, it is probable that two members of that tribunal will not be in their accustomed places. Associate Justice John Marshall Harlan of Kentucky and Associate Justice William H. Moody of Massachusetts have been in ill health for some time, and it is not unlikely that they will be unable to sit when the court meets. If one of them should retire it is believed here that Governor Hughes of New York, provided he would accept the place, which is thought doubtful, would be appointed to the vacancy by President Taft. Justice Moody recently denied the reports that on account of ill health, his retirement might be expected. It is known, however, that he has not for some time been enjoying his usual health, but announcement that he had left the bench would not be a surprise to those who have kept informed of supreme court matters.

Another Eaton Murder Case Comes to Trial on Monday Next.

H. JOHNSON HIS COUNSEL

Eaton, Ohio, Sept. 18.—Samuel Siders of this place, who is charged with the second degree murder of John Mann, will be tried in the Common Pleas court of Preble county, Monday, before Judge Fisher. Henry U. Johnson, of Richmond, will be counsel for Siders, assisted by Risinger and Risinger and W. B. Marsh. The state will be represented by Prosecuting Attorney Gilmore and several other well known attorneys. Siders killed Mann early in June, after the latter had struck him twice with an ax handle. Siders succeeded in wrenching the weapon from his assailant and killed Mann with it. The weapon was destroyed by Siders on advice of his attorney, W. B. Marsh, it is said.

GROTHAUS—The funeral of Herman Grothaus will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence, 800 South Eighth street. Rev. E. G. Howard, pastor of the First English Lutheran church, will officiate. Friends may call at any time. Burial will be in Lutheran cemetery.

Wrestling Matches Are Scheduled During the Festival Week.

HELD AT THE COLISEUM

On Wednesday evening, October 6, which is also the opening night of the Fall Festival, the Richmond Athletic association will open the wrestling season in this city, with a match between Charles Olson of Indianapolis and Charles Postl, the Milwaukee butcher, who is a protégé of Frank Gotch, the world's champion. Thereafter, once each week the management will pull off bouts between wrestlers of national reputation. The management will not pull off any preliminary bouts as they do not meet with popular favor. The match Wednesday evening, October 6, will be called at promptly 8 o'clock. It is expected that there will be a large number of visitors who attended the opening day of the festival in attendance, besides the residents of this city with whom the sport finds popular favor. As concerns the two men, Olson needs no notice. He is the most popular grappler who ever appeared on a local mat. Postl, however, has never appeared here. He has, however, won an enviable reputation in Milwaukee on a dither large cities, where he frequently appears. He is 20 pounds heavier than Olson.

TESTING THE TEACHER.

A Curious Old School Report Made in Boston in 1722.

In the town records of the city of Boston there is a curious passage which records how a schoolmaster was examined and what happened. The manner in which the visit of inspection is recorded makes one incline to the view that the unlucky schoolmaster may not have had fair play, although if he was really inefficient he may be said to have been judged by his peers. In the record for the 23d of May, 1722, it is set forth that:

"Coll. Pen. Townsend, Jeremiah Allen Esq., and John Edwards together with the Select men, Visited the writing School at the Southern End of Boston on Thursday the 24th April 1722, and Examined the Scholars under Mr. Ames Angers tuition as to their proficiency in Reading writing Scrapering & the masters ability of teaching & instructing youth his rules & methods therefore. And are of Opinion That it will be no Service to the Town to Continue Mr. Anger in that Employ." Whereupon it was voted that the said Mr. Ames Anger should not continue master of the "Said South school."

It is true that nothing is said of the methods of spelling inculcated at the "writing School," and it is also possible that a clerk rather than the committee was responsible for the errors of the record, but there is certainly something absurd in the passage as it stands.—Exchange.

THE BLUE WHALE.

A Monster Skeleton That Is Eighty-seven Feet in Length.

What is claimed as the largest animal in the world is represented by a colossal skeleton in the museum of Christchurch, New Zealand, says the London Globe. This is the remains of a large specimen of the blue whale stranded on the coast of that country. This whale is probably the largest of all living animals. The length of the skeleton is eighty-seven feet, and the head alone is twenty-one feet. The weight of the bones is estimated at nine tons. This gigantic whale gets its name of blue whale from the dark bluish gray of its upper surface. The tinge of yellow on its lower part has led to the name "sulphur bottom," by which it is known on the western side of the Atlantic. It is otherwise known as Sibbald's rorqual (Balænoptera sibbaldii).

The chief food of this gigantic animal is a small marine crustacean (Thysanopoda inermis, known to the whalers as "krill." Another species of the same shrimplike group has been obtained in thousands from the stomachs of mackerel caught on the Cornish coast. The nearly related opossum shrimps found in enormous numbers in the Greenland seas form the chief food of the common whale. Some of the thysanopoda are phosphorescent and contribute to the luminosity of the sea.

After the Show.
A well dressed man, said to be an Englishman, has been arrested in Montmartre, Paris, on a charge of tendering bad half sovereigns for dinners and entertainments, which reminds us of the story about the touring company which has been doing very bad business in "the smalls." While the proprietor and sole responsible manager was standing outside the temporary theater (the Corn Exchange) a very small boy with a very large melon arrived and proposed to barter the fruit for a seat in the gallery. The bargain was duly concluded, and the scene now changes to the interior of the theater after the performance. "Boy," says the manager severely, "that melon was rotten." "That's all right," returns the youthful critic; "as was yer show."—London Globe.

Difference in Time.

When it is noon at any given place it is similarly noon at all other places having the same longitudinal meridian, and the sun is in its zenith where meridian and equator intersect.

For business convenience every fifteen degrees of longitude evenly divided from Greenwich has the same time, being the distance that the earth travels in one hour. In the United States we have eastern, central, mountain and Pacific time. Thus when it is noon at New York it is 11 a. m. at Chicago, central time; 10 a. m. at Denver, mountain time; and 9 a. m. at San Francisco, Pacific time.—New York American.

As Represented.

Irate Stranger Look here! I thought you told me that dog I bought from you had a good many fine points. He looks like he has been shot full of arrows.

Mountain Pete—Those be the fine points, stranger. He tackled a porcupine the day before you bought him.—Los Angeles Times.

One Foot in the Grave.

"You see that strapping, robust man? When I saw him last night he had one foot in the grave."

"Extraordinary! Who is he?"

"He is playing the gravedigger in 'Hamlet' at the local theater."

Inconsistent.

"He vowed he would love me at ways, no matter what happened."

"Well?"

"And got mad five minutes later because I had a pin in my belt."

The Part It Was.

Teacher—In this sentence, "The sick boy loves his medicine," what part of speech is "loves"? Small Boy—Please, ma'am, it's the part that ain't so.—Chicago News.

Suggest.

The origin of the word "budget," meaning an estimate of government revenues and expenses, is thus explained: Almost from time immemorial it was the custom in England to put the estimates of receipts and expenditures presented to parliament in a leather bag, the word budget being thus borrowed from the old Norman word bougette, which signifies a leather purse. Curiously enough, the word has passed back again into France from England.
