JUST TWO WEEKS
UNTIL FESTIVAL

Promoters Are Now Head Over Heels in All Kinds of Business.

MEETINGS EVERY NIGHT

REPRESENTATIVE OF CINCINNATI COSTUMING HOUSE WILL COME HERE TO PREPARE FOR MARDI GRAS EVE.

But two more weeks remain before the opening of the Fall Festival Oct. 6, 7, 8 and accordingly the workers of the association will be very busy engaged in making the final arrangements. Important committee meetings will be held every evening from now on to the opening of the festival. This evening the entertainment and amusement committee meets while tomorrow and Thursday evenings the executive committee holds two important sessions.

About seventy-five letters were sent out today by Secretary E. H. Harris to newspapers within a radius of 40 miles of the city. These letters contain information relative to the festival. They will be published and help in arousing interest.

Get Your Costume. August Beck, representing the firm of William Beck and Sons of Cincinnati will be here, Wednesday, to meet with the members of the Mardi Gras committee of the Fall Festival concerning costumes and masks for the fantastic parade, on the last night of the festival.

The Beck concern is the largest of its kind in the country, and the Mardi Gras committee intends to make arrangements to have a splendid line of costumes for those who want to take part in the parade.
