FEDERAL FISH CAR

PLAN NO REDUCTION

Passed Through the City Last Night and Attracted Attention.

IT WAS HEAVILY STOCKED

A number of people at the Pennsylvania depot were very much interested in a government fish car which passed through the city last evening about 7 o'clock. The car attracted a great deal of attention. It is estimated that there were approximately 10,000 fish in the car in about 150 metal cans. The cans were filled with water and had small rubber tubes attached through which the air was constantly forced, stirring the water and thus keeping the fish alive. It is necessary to change the water at frequent intervals along the route, it is said.

The fish are furnished free by the government and the rivers and lakes of the country are kept well supplied with the finny tribe at the expense of the government. About 200 small bass minnows were taken off the car here and several of the rivers and ponds south of the city were stocked today.

TO HOLD SERVICES

Services will be held at the Third M. E. church tomorrow afternoon and evening and the following program will be conducted:

1:45—An address on "The Church and the Nation," by J. E. Coffin.
2:15—"The Church and International Life," by A. E. Hirsch.
2:45—"Church Going People," by A. H. Kenna.

3:15—"The Church and the Lamp to Her Feet," by M. E. Barrett.
3:45—"The Church and Her Benevolences," by S. B. Stookey.

S. B. Stookey will deliver a sermon at 7:30 o'clock. There will be special music.

GREETING FOR TAFT

(American News Service)

Glenwood Springs, Colo., Sept. 23.—President William H. Taft made but a short stop here this morning, receiving crowds on the rear platform of his car. A party of ladies brought baskets of mountain trout and raspberries and presented them to the president. Grand Junction, Colo., is the next stop.
