TELEGRAPH WIRES

Peculiar Atmospheric Condition Today Made Them Behave Strangely.

TELEPHONE NOT AFFECTED

WIRELESS COMMUNICATION WAS ALSO PERFECT—ELECTRICAL EXPERTS PUT BLAME ON AURORA BOREALIS.

(American News Service)
Chicago, Sept. 25.—All telegraph wires running out of New York City and those crossing the continent in line with Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago and through to San Francisco, played pranks all forenoon in spite of the fact that apparently ideal weather for good wire conditions prevailed. The disturbances were particularly violent in the vicinity of New York and east of Pittsburgh. A consultation of electrical experts finally decided the trouble was due to earth currents caused by an aurora borealis. Strange to say long distance telephones and wireless apparatus were not affected while telegraph wires would suddenly fail to respond for a few minutes, only to resume as strangely as they stopped. All commercial and news traffic was seriously delayed.

MOORE SCOUTS IDEA.
Washington, Sept. 25.—Professor Moore, chief of the United States weather bureau, scouts the idea that today's electrical disturbances are due to an aurora borealis. He thinks the exact nature may be ascertained later. He says it appears to be somewhat similar to barometric pressure, resulting from a combination of conditions.

BALLOON ACCIDENT

(American News Service)
Moulins, France, Sept. 25.—Captain Marchal, Lieutenant Chauré and Sub-Lieutenant Vincent and Reux met death today when their dirigible balloon, "The Republic," in which they were making a flight, suddenly exploded three hundred feet in the air. The balloon was built by the government. Occupants and the officers of the army, were waving their hands in response to cheers of enthusiastic crowds below, when the accident occurred.

Heart to Heart
Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

TEN TIMES ONE.

"Blessed are the pure in heart."
It was said of a certain character that his strength was "as the strength of ten because his heart is pure."
Which declaration contains as much truth as poetry.

The pure man is the strong man. It has been known for centuries that the mind influences the body, but only in recent years has the fact come to be fully understood and appreciated.

To illustrate:
Under the influence of fear the blood will leave your face; under the influence of shame it will flush your face. When you are amused sufficiently your diaphragm moves up and down and you laugh. When you sorrow deeply the salt drops are shed from your eyes.

These are every day object lessons in the power of the mind over the body. But laboratory tests go deeper.

It is a scientific fact that the baser passions actually poison the blood. Hatred, for instance, is one of the deadliest poisons. Anger, fear, despair—these instill deadly toxins in the blood.

On the other hand, the higher emotions, such as hope, affection, good humor, charity, are real elixirs of the blood. Pure love makes for strength, hope brightens the eye and increases the circulation, laughter massages the organs and increases flesh.

And all these emotions go with purity. The man whose heart is pure enjoys in the highest measure love, joy, peace, hope and courage.

Whereas he whose heart is poisoned by revenge, envy, wrath, despair, weakens himself both soul and body.

The Master of the human heart knew:
Would you be successful, vigorous, buoyant, happy?

Then you must cultivate the pure thoughts that make the pure heart. Because "thoughts are things." Pure thoughts nourish pure strength, courage, optimism. Impure thoughts will be the bane of your life. They cause discord, discouragement, pessimism. Impure thoughts sap both mind and body of their virginal powers.

Now—
The strength of him whose heart is pure is "as the strength of ten" because PURE THOUGHTS ARE TEN TIMES AS STRONG AS IMPURE THOUGHTS.

How do you know that you are not crazy?" was asked the accused in a lunacy investigation. A prize might well be offered for a convincing answer to the question from one's personal knowledge. Lombroso and other eminent alienists have held that there is a talp of insanity upon some subject in every human mind; that no mind is absolutely and correctly balanced. No man sane upon several subjects will admit that he is crazy at all. How, as a matter of fact, does any man know of his own knowledge, that he is not insane?

Ever notice that if a little woman is married to a big man she is boss and if a big woman is married to a little man she is boss too?—Arlinson Globe.

A DETENTION PLACE

Judge Fox Today Rules That An Insane Hospital Is Not a "Home."

A SUIT TO ESCAPE TAXES

"An asylum is a place of detention. It is not a place of residence," stated Judge Fox of the circuit court from the bench this morning in making his decision in the case of Charles E. Shiveley, guardian of Mary L. Martin, deceased, versus the city of Richmond, Demas Coe, county auditor and Albert Albertson, county treasurer, to enjoin them from collecting tax on Mrs. Martin's property at the city rate.

Mr. Shiveley had averred in his complaint that he should not be subjected to pay city taxes on his ward's property because, he claimed, she had been a resident of Eastern Indiana Hospital, during that period of her life she possessed property. She was a former resident of the city. The assessors had listed her property for city taxes. The estate was not a large one but still sufficient for a fair sum to be saved, had Mr. Shiveley been able to receive a favorable decision in the matter.

The case was filed in the circuit court early in the week. City Attorney T. J. Study filed a demurrer to the complaint and Judge Fox decided favorably to Mr. Study, who represented the city. Mr. Shiveley announced this morning that he would pay the taxes.

WHITE PRESENTS

QUAKER COLLEGE WITH 5 THOUSAND

WAS ODD ACCIDENT

Morris White of Cincinnati, who has proven to be one of Earlham college's most liberal contributors, today gave $5,000 to the trustees of the institution. The trustees expected to raise $17,000 at Yearly Meeting today for the support of the college.

WAS ODD ACCIDENT

While the city ambulance was on a "hurry-up" call to Robinson's machine shop on Second and Main Streets, yesterday afternoon, the horse slipped at the corner of Fourth and Main and started on a toboggan slide down the steep court house hill. The harness was broken so the animal started at a gallop west on Main. It was finally stopped at the bridge, however, before any damage was done.

After this circus stunt on the part of the big bay, the horse was driven to its destination where it was found that Edward Eadler had been painfully injured by catching the middle finger of his right hand in the machinery around which he worked. The man was removed to a doctor's office and later to his home, Northwest of the city, where he was given medical attention. The finger was badly lacerated and bled profusely.

The case was filed in the circuit court early in the week. City Attorney T. J. Study filed a demurrer to the complaint and Judge Fox decided favorably to Mr. Study, who represented the city. Mr. Shiveley announced this morning that he would pay the taxes.
