PRESIDENT KELLY
IN OPENING TALK

Tells the Students Not to Be Ashamed of Being "Grinds."

TEMPERANCE HARD VIRTUE

EARLHAM EXECUTIVE STATES THAT IT IS MOST DIFFICULT TO ATTAIN—LICENSE IS NOT REAL LIBERTY.

President Robert L. Kelly opened the chapel exercises at Earlham College by declaring that the academic spirit was not dying at Earlham. "Don't be ashamed of digging. The college is no place to develop swiftness. It is often said of the colleges and universities of this country that the academic spirit is not preserved. That we are becoming less and less Greek-minded. Let this not be true of Earlham; let it be worth while to develop Greek-mindedness."

"By being Greek-minded, I mean that the students should possess wisdom, justice, courage and temperance. The college is the place to develop these virtues. The college is the place for athletic feats and associations and all of these have their places, but the college is also the place to develop culture and Greek-mindedness."

Look into Future.
"As college students you are thinking more of the future than of the present; that you may attain something not yet found, but which may be found in the future."

"The hardest virtue to develop is temperance. It is the most important of the four. Since you are the freest people in the world, you have great liberty. But do not turn this liberty into license. There is nothing about college life but that we may change into license. Students may overdo eating or sleeping and so become intemperate; he may become intemperate in athletics, or he or she may become so by spending money. But striking examples of this are not at Earlham. The academic spirit is not dying here."

T. H. I. & E. LINE IS CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL ACTION

committee whose name is used as the prosecuting witness. The affidavit contains five counts, all practically the same, in which it is set forth that the operation of freight cars is a nuisance. The state witnesses as shown on the affidavit are Alexander Gordon, superintendent of the local division of the traction company; Fred R. Charles, city engineer; George H. Hill, a resident near Glen Miller park; T. Henry Davis, W. P. O'Neal and B. B. Johnson, members of the board of works; George Stauch, former president of the board of works, but at present chief of police, and C. W. Merrill, city clerk.

Dr. Stevenson sets forth in the affidavit in the first count that the Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern traction company, a corporation "on the day of August, A. D., 1908, did then and there and in the county of Wayne, and state of Indiana, unlawfully and wrongfully obstruct and encumber and from said date to the date of this affidavit, did and does unlawfully and wrongfully, continue to obstruct and encumber by the erection, construction and use of certain structures and other wise to wit: railway embankments, fills and tracks, certain public grounds of and belonging to the city of Richmond, Ind."

Claim Injury Done.
In each count the charge of operating a nuisance is developed until in the fifth count, it sets forth that an injury is done to the park by the different constructions, erections and operations and that such is contrary to the peace and dignity of the state of Indiana.

Notice of the filing of such complaint was served on Alexander Gordon today.
The committee, which was appointed at the mass meeting above referred to, endeavored to oust the company from the Glen by bringing quo warranto proceedings, but was defeated. The committee was not satisfied with the result, and accordingly waited its opportunity. It believes that it has secured sufficient evidence to secure a conviction, which means the ousting of the tracks and corporation from the Glen.

The case will be bitterly fought. The city will no doubt be a party to the suit, as the privilege to use the Glen was granted by the present administration.

"I saved a beggar's life yesterday."

"How?"
"I asked him what he'd do if I gave him a sovereign. 'Good Lord,' he said, 'I should drop down dead.' So I put the sovereign back into my pocket."—London Mail.
